 leave me children, wives, and you ii. 1 all leave his native channel ii. 2 desolation leave them as naked as ii. 2 and leave those woes alone, which I iii. 1 I leave your highness grandam iii. 3 evils, that I take leave to iv. 1 nobles leave me, and my iv. 2 that leaves the print of blood where'er iv. 3 give me leave to speak v. 2 desires your majesty to leave the field v. 6 that I take leave to v. 6 outward parts, leaves them insensible v. 7 presently to leave this war v. 7 and his summer leaves all faded Richard II, i. 2 I take my leave before I have i. 2 the last leave of the takes my i. 3 then let us take a ceremonious leave i. 3 kiss your hand, and take his leave i. 3 but you gave leave to my unwilling i. 3 my lord, no leave take I i. 3 too few to take my leave of you i. 3 my letters patent give me leave ii. 3 give Richard leave to live till ii. 3 that his broad-spreading leaves did iii. 4 give sorrow leave a while to tutor iv. 1 then give me leave to go iv. 1 from my deathbed, my last living leave v. 1 take leave, and part: for you must part v. 1 where did I leave? At that sad v. 2 well-gaced actor leaves the stage v. 2 then give me leave to go v. 3 then give me leave that I may turn v. 5 at length have gotten leave to look v. 5 leave the prince and me alone Henry IV, i. 2 after we leave them; and, sirrah i. 2 you give me leave to go i. 2 and to leave these rogues, I am ii. 2 well, we leave that to the prof ii. 2 how now, Kate? I must leave you ii. 3 this evening must I leave you ii. 3 do thou never leave calling ii. 4 let me entreat you leave the house ii. 4 give me leave to tell you once again ii. 4 must steal, and take no leave iii. 1 and leaves behind a stain upon iii. 1 and let us take our leave iii. 1 and leave in sooth, and such protest iii. 1 lords, give us leave iii. 2 by his hollow whistling in the leaves v. 1 give me leave to breathe v. 3 I'll give you leave to powder me v. 3 for I'll purge, and leave sack v. 4 let us not leave till all our own v. 5 give me leave to tell you 2 Henry IV, i. 2 if thou get me any leave i. 2 but, by your leave, it never i. 3 and leaves his part-created cost i. 3 he leaves his back unarmed i. 3
 I commend thee, and I leave thee ii. 2 (letter) I am your did leave season to none ii. 3 take my leave of these six dry ii. 4 when wilt thou leave fighting o' days ii. 4 we must hence, and leave it unpicked ii. 4 give me leave to go through Gloucestershire iv. 3 when the best do leave to iv. 3 will I to mine leave, as 'tis left iv. 4 why did you leave me here alone iv. 4 depart the chamber, leave us here alone iv. 4 leave gormandizing; know, the grave v. 5 to give us leave to Henry V, i. 2 nor leave not one behind ii. 2 and leave your England, as dead iii. (chorus)
 I must leave them, and seek some better ii. 2
 I will not leave the half-achieved iii. 3 and those that leave the valiant iii. 3 as I will leave 'em to them iv. 3
 O give us leave, great king, to view iv. 7

LEAVE—yet leave our cousin Henry V, v. 2 she hath good leave v. 2 and here take leave to go about my Henry VI, i. 1 let's leave this town i. 2 back, you lords, and give us leave awhile i. 2 to leave my base vocation i. 2 leave off delays, and let us raise i. 2 his sword did ne'er leave striking i. 4 and leave our beds, hearing alarms ii. 1 household, leave this peevish broil ii. 1 will you fly, and leave lord Talbot? ii. 2 to leave the Talbot, and to follow us ii. 3 and give them leave to speak iv. 1 the sanguine colour of the leaves iv. 1 and leave my followers here, to fight iv. 5 will you fly, and leave lord Talbot? iv. 4 wilt thou yet leave the battle iv. 6
 I pry thee, give me leave to curse v. 3
 I were best to leave him v. 3
 O give me leave, I have deluded you v. 4 with whom I leave my curse v. 4 it then, and leave thee insolence. 2 Henry VI, i. 3 give me leave to show some reason i. 3 go in God's name, and leave us i. 4 I will leave thee, and leave thee ii. 1 yet, by your leave, the wind wags ii. 1 churchman, leave to afflict my heart! ii. 1 give me leave, in this close walk ii. 2 give me leave to go ii. 3 as I willingly at ii. 3 come, leave your drinking, and fall ii. 3 my Nell, I take my leave ii. 4 and caterpillars eat my leaves away iii. 1 I can give the loser leave to chide iii. 1 such leave as I can give you to speak iii. 1 what, will your highness leave iii. 1 let thy Suffolk take his heavy leave iii. 2 ban, and will you bid me leave? iii. 2 and take ten thousand leaves iii. 2 cause to fear, before I leave thee iii. 2 we will not leave one lord iv. 2 that you should leave me iv. 8 and makes them leave me desolate iv. 8 entering his feelings out of leave iv. 10 if I do not leave you all as dead iv. 10 so great a power without his leave v. 1 that keeps his leaves in spite of any v. 1 my soul to leave thee unassailed v. 2 then leave me 3 Henry VI, i. 1 and give King Henry leave to speak i. 1 that I will leave my kingly throne i. 1 thus do I leave thee i. 1 though I be youngest, give me leave i. 2 Lancaster leave to speak i. 2 most humbly I do take my leave i. 2 and leave not one alive i. 3 by your leave I speak it ii. 1 and leave thine own with him ii. 2 I'll leave my son to give you leave ii. 2 by your kingly leave, I'll draw it ii. 2 and leave us to our fortune ii. 2 we'll never leave, till we have ii. 2 take leave, until we meet again ii. 3 and give them ii. 3 which takes her heavy leave? ii. 6 when his leaves put forth ii. 6 leave; I'll try this widow's wit (rep.) iii. 2 I take my leave, with many thousand iii. 2 sorrow leaves to speak iii. 2 with your leave and favour iii. 3 leave Henry, and call Edward king iii. 3 the leaves and fruit maintained iii. 3 and leave your brothers to go speed iv. 1 may I give you leave to iv. 1 mind to leave you. Leave me, or tarry iv. 1 leave off to wonder why I drew you iv. 1 I'll leave you to your fortune iv. 7 fair lords, take leave, and stand not iv. 8 that I take my leave iv. 8 at Southam did I leave him v. 1 that he should leave the helm v. 4 he should have leave to go away v. 4 sirrah, leave us to curse v. 6 and leave the world for me to Richard III, i. 1 to give me leave, by circumstance i. 2 known evils, but to give me leave i. 2 to leave this keen encounter i. 2 may I please you to leave these sad i. 2 for shame, and leave this world i. 3 and leave out thee? stay dog i. 3 why wither not the leaves, that want ii. 2 that her grace did leave it out ii. 2 when great leaves are, then winter ii. 3 but leave it all to God ii. 3 in this resolution, here we leave you iii. 7 most joyfully, we take our leave iii. 7 pray you, by your leave, how doth iv. 1 I may not leave you iv. 1 poor soul, that takes thy leave of it iv. 1 I humbly take my leave iv. 3 and leave the burden of it all on thee iv. 4 to give me leave, I'll muster up iv. 4 but, here you, leave behind your son iv. 4 leave me; about the mid of night (rep.) v. 3 leave us never an understanding. Henry VIII, (prol.) not unconsidered leave your honour i. 2 though we leave it with a root i. 2 leave these remnants of fool and i. 3 by your leave, sweet ladies i. 1 but leave their flocks (rep.) i. 4 by all your good leaves, gentlemen i. 4 whom to leave is only bitter to him ii. 1 so leave him to him, that made ii. 2 to leave so sweet a bedfellow? (rep.) ii. 2 the which to leave is a thousand-fold ii. 3 your particular fancy, and leave me out ii. 3 and got your leave to make this present ii. 4 if this can't ii. 4 your grace would leave your griefs iii. 1 hath ta'en no leave; has left iii. 2

LEAVE me a while. It shall be to... Henry V III. iii. 2
 I leave to your own conscience iii. 2 and so we'll leave you to your iii. 2 puts forth the other leave of hope iii. 2 must I then leave you? must I iii. 2 sorrow Cromwell leaves his lord iii. 2 willing to leave their burden iv. 2 give me leave to speak him iv. 2 and leave me here in wretchedness iv. 2 bid the music leave, they are harsh iv. 2 Patience, you must not leave me yet v. 1 before he goes to bed. I'll take my leave v. 1 leave me alone, for I must bid you v. 3 you'll leave your noise anon v. 3 ye rude slaves, leave your gaping v. 3 so shall she leave her blessedness v. 4
 I will leave all as I found it. Troilus & Cressida, i. 3 fair leave, and large security ii. 1 and leave the faction of fools iii. 2 my leave, my lord. Your leave (rep.) iii. 2 that itself will leave, to be iii. 2 while some men leave to do iii. 3 and leave you hindmost iii. 3 if ever she leave Troilus iv. 2 my kiss, sir: lady, by your leave iv. 5 so to him we leave it iv. 5 I will rather leave to see Hector v. 3 let's leave the hermit pity with v. 3 but give me leave to take that course v. 3 Hector, I take my leave; thou dost v. 3 that I shall leave you one of these days v. 3 and every where you go, and takes v. 3 will you leave me there? Timon of Athens, ii. 2 as I had leave of means? ii. 2 by your leave, sir,—What do you ask iii. 4 more willingly leaves to do iii. 6 leave their false love with him iv. 3 as leaves do on the oak iv. 3 I'd give thee leave to hang it v. 2 so I leave you to the protection v. 2 but leave with us to brag v. 5 and leave me but the brain Coriolanus, i. 2 I leave you, honour; if we i. 3 beseech you, give me leave to retire i. 3 that you might leave pricking it for pity i. 3 I'll leave the fire to see Hector ii. 1
 I will be bold to take my leave of you ii. 1 and behind him he leaves tears ii. 1 and leaves nothing undone, that may ii. 2 leave nothing out for length ii. 2 you'll mar all, if I do see Hector iii. 1 leave us to cure this cause iii. 1 if by the tribunes' leave, and yours iii. 1 give me leave, I'll go to him iv. 1 come, leave your tears; a brief iv. 1 well, well, we'll leave you iv. 2 leave this faint purling, and lament iv. 2 taking their leaves of me iv. 5 and leave his passage polled iv. 5 to leave unburnt, and still to hope v. 2 but, by your leave, I am an officer v. 2 I must have leave to pass v. 2 mother of the world leave unalutted v. 3 set on, and leave no ceremony out. Julius Caesar, i. 2 a dreamer; you desire; I'll leave you i. 2 Cassius, your leave; I'll leave you i. 2 for this time I will leave you i. 2 let us not leave him out ii. 1 then leave him out. Indeed, he is not ii. 1 we'll leave you to see Brutus ii. 1 gave sign for me to leave you ii. 1 my sad brows; leave me with haste ii. 1 and leave us, Fulvius; lest that iii. 1 he speaks by leave and by permission iii. 1 here, under leave of Brutus iii. 1 and will you give me leave? iii. 2 you shall have leave. A ring iii. 2 gave me public leave to speak of him iii. 2 your mother chides, and leave you iv. 3 Hybla bears, and leave us to ourselves v. 3 where did you leave him? v. 3 by your leave, gods: this is a Roman's v. 3 never given you leave to come! Antony & Cleo. i. 3 I'll leave you, lady. Courtous lord i. 3 Antony, leave the lascivious wassail i. 4 give me leave, Caesar.—Speak, Agrippa ii. 2 now Antony must leave her utterly ii. 2 let him not leave out the colour of ii. 5 better leave me, than by iii. 1 leave unexecuted your own renowned iii. 7 let that be left which leaves itself iii. 9 leave me, I pray, a little iii. 9 and leave his navy gazing iii. 11 that we must leave, and iii. 11
 I will seek some way to leave him iv. 2 on you, as one that takes his leave iv. 2 whom Antony loved, now leaves him iv. 3 I'll leave thee now, like a man iv. 4 and leave his master Antony iv. 6 give thee leave to play till doomsday v. 2 avoid, and leave him: hast thou v. 2 such as the aspick leaves upon the v. 2 should we be asking leave as long. Cymbeline, i. 2 sweet sovereign, leave us to ourselves i. 2 for this time, leave me i. 2
 I did not take my leave of him i. 4
 I will leave to appear hereafter i. 5 let us leave leave, gentlemen i. 6 and leave her to such honour as you i. 6 I humbly take my leave i. 6 my man's abode where I did leave him i. 7 for his heart, and leave eighteen ii. 1 the taper, leave me, and ii. 1 by your leave, ho! I know her women ii. 3 by your leave. Who's there, that knocks? ii. 3 to leave you in your madness ii. 3 so I leave you, sir, to the worst ii. 3 or masterless, leave me to who ii. 4 you'll give me leave to spare ii. 4
 I beg but leave to air this jewel ii. 4

LEAVE—good wax; thy leave Cymbeline, iii. 2 as hard to leave, as keep iii. 3 my, my leaves, and my bare iii. 3 leave't not the worthy Lucius iii. 3 that duty leave unpaid to you iii. 5 when he took leave of my lady iii. 5 so please you, leave me; sick to your iv. 2 we'll leave you for this time iv. 4 give me leave, I'll take the better care iv. 4 he leaves me, scorns me; briefly v. 5 thou't torture me to leave unspoken v. 5 give me leave, I faint v. 5 have at it then; by thy throat hadst v. 1 have given me leave to sheathe Titus Andron. i. 2 by your leave, this maid is mine i. 2 no less; and so I take my leave i. 2 and so let's leave him to plean i. 2 the green leaves quiver ii. 3 and leave me to this miserable ii. 3 well could I leave our sport to sleep ii. 4 upon whose leaves are drops ii. 4 and so let's leave him to plean ii. 5 tremble, like aspen leaves ii. 5 give me leave; for losers will have leave iii. 1 he leaves his pledges dearer than iii. 1 good grandsire, leave these bitter iii. 2 how busily she runs the leaves iii. 2 note, how she quotes the leaves iii. 2 and so I leave you both iii. 2 and leave you not a man of war iii. 3 depart at pleasure, leave us here iv. 2 that kindness, and take my leave iv. 3 give my tongue like leave to love Pericles, i. 2 all leave us else i. 2 since you have given me leave to speak i. 2 who never leave his gaping, the leech i. 2 and leaves us to see the leech i. 2 to bid farewell, we take our leaves ii. 5 there I'll leave it at careful nursing iii. 1 and leave her the infant of your care iii. 3 come, we will leave his honour iv. (Gover) his woeful queen leave at Ephesus iv. (Gover) I'll leave you, my sweet lady iv. 1 leaves Tharsus, and again embarks iv. (Gow.) there's for you; leave us (rep.) iv. 6 come, we will leave his honour iv. 6 come, let us leave her, and the gods v. 1 yet give me leave; how came you v. 1 did in Tharsus leave me v. 1 for his head; so leave him all v. 1 take care, and leave me Lea, i. 1 then leave her, sir; for, by the power i. 1 which often leaves the history unspoken i. 1 with washed eyes Cordelia leaves you i. 1 leave; thy drink and my whore i. 2 and leave his horns without a case i. 2 my lord, if you will give me leave i. 2 and leave thee in the storm ii. 4 when I desired their leave iii. 3 if you will leave me, give me leave iii. 4 leave him to my displeasure iii. 7 and leave you to attend him iv. 3 leave, gentle wax; and, manners iv. 6 ere he can spread his sweet leaves. Romeo & Juliet, i. 1 as if you leave me, give me leave i. 1 nurse, give leave awhile, we must talk i. 3 to think it should leave crying i. 3 wilt thou leave me so unsatisfied? ii. 2 and leave me to my grief ii. 2
 I am leaving thee, give me leave ii. 5 have you got leave to go to shrift to-day? ii. 5 by your leaves, you shall not stay alone ii. 6
 I pray thee, leave me to myself to-night iv. 3
 I will die, and leave him all iv. 5
 I dream that gives a dead man leave v. 1 since you did leave it for my office v. 1 not leave you (Col. Kn. sir, have patience) v. 1 think me, and do the thing I bid thee v. 1 fly hence, and leave me v. 3 drink and leave to thy folly Hamlet, i. 2 your leave and favour to return to i. 2 gracious leave and pardon (rep.) i. 2 wrong from me my slow leave i. 2 beseech you, give him leave to go i. 2 occasion smiles upon a second leave i. 3 most humbly do I take my leave i. 3 leave her to heaven, and to those thorns i. 5 where did I leave? At close ii. 1 give me leave; how does my good ii. 2 I will leave him, and suddenly contrive ii. 2 most humbly take my leave of you ii. 2 I'll leave you till night ii. 2 sweet Gertrude, leave us too ii. 2
 I am leaving thee, give me leave ii. 2
 leave, leave me here awhile ii. 2 leave thy damnable faces, and begin ii. 2 gaily said; leave me, friends ii. 2 leave wringing of your hands; peace ii. 4 on this fair mountain leave to feed iii. 4 as will not leave their tinct iii. 4 and woo, for leave to do him good iii. 4 I pray you, give me leave. We will iv. 5 you shall hear of me, give me leave iv. 7 to-morrow shall I beg leave to see iv. 7 (letter) his hour leaves in the glassy stream iv. 7 give me leave; here lies the water v. 1 of aught he leaves, knows what (rep.) v. 2 if you have given me leave to sleep Othello, i. 1 farewell; for I must leave you i. 1 leave that latest, which concerns him first i. 3 Othello, leave some officer behind i. 3 my Desdemona must I leave to thee i. 3 (Go) when I leave her, I'll leave i. 3 say, but by your leave, not before me ii. 3 madam, I'll take my leave ii. 3 to leave me but a little to myself ii. 3 not to leave undone, but keep unknown ii. 3 leave me, I beg you, take my leave ii. 3 leave it to time ii. 3
 I once more take my leave iii. 3

LEAVE—I have use for it; go, leave me. Othello, iii. 1
 I will not leave him now, till Cassio iii. 4 and leave me for this time. Leave you! iii. 4 I must leave you to your own door iv. 1 leave procurements alone, and iv. 2 let me have leave to speak v. 2

LIFE—my life for a thousand who prefer'd thy life before right depends not on his life, or death thy priesthood saves thy life to renown, by life, or death life; here must I stand, and here my life prolong a while the traitor's life now in his life against thy holy I should not for my life but weep for yet is hope of life, and victory I think, it were a happy life ah, what a life were this! how sweet yield both my life and them to my life, have by my hands of life if any life be left in thee gave thee life too soon like life and death's departing o'er shades his beams of life would but two hours' life gentleman did lose his life while life upholds this arm fair hope must hinder life's decay myself will lead a private life high reward, and he his life?
 envious guard on his life wouldst thou come? is't for my life?
 if any spark of life be yet remaining Edward shall be fearful of his life windows, that let forth thy life my life. Black death, she finds upon my life, she finds is outrage, life my shame my dream was lengthened after life reward you better for my life wouldst thou not end my life?
 of my sovereign's life
 in his life; yet none of you would my husband lost his life to get in fame though not in life Henry my life and hopes to find you my life as dear as yours never in my life
 now, for my life, she's wandering more miserable than I grave's life, blind sight, poor mortal cancel his bond of life, dear God shame serves thy life, and doth thy save her life, and she best I blessed thee with a fairer life kingdom, kindred, freedom, life fair life's end. But how long fairly thy life hath that dishonoured upon my life, my life that never in his life felt I have set my life upon a cast lose some life, which action's self my life is spanned already my life itself, and the best part of what for other life, compelled by my life, this is much he spoke, and learnedly, for life for further life in this world Henry the eighth, life of my long weary life is come by my life, she never knew should do no more offices of life to by my life, and kingly dignity I know my life too well near my life, I fear pray, while I shall have my life the peace and honours, during my life the articles collect'd from his life may give me a longer life both of my life and office remember your bold life too how much more is his life in send prosperous life, long if you have health, give it for thy stretched-out life our project's life this shape whose life were ill bestowed you touched the life of our design and, by my life, you shall make I'll lay my life, with my I'll play the hunter for thy life now, by Anchises' life, welcome a Grecian's life hath cost me I shall have such a life and thy life shall be as safe is yonder, dealing life!
 to catch my life, so pleasantly I never man holds dear and pay thy life thou owest me I reek not though I end my life to-day armour, thus hath cost thy life close the day, my Hector's life is done nurse thy life, my life it is a pretty mocking of the life these touches, livelier than life like madness is the glory of this life I never tasted
 to hazard life for life?
 a sufficient briber for his life he owes the law his life with him to supply his life that the whole life of Athens were of thou shouldst hazard thy life for of thy kindred were jurors on thy life still serve him with my life gave life and influence to their main in life to overcome you brave death outweighs bad life I do owe them still my life prefer a noble life before a long which never shall I discharge to the life that mine own life, my dear mistake me not, to save my life would betray what life we have led thou hast never in thy life

LIFE—sir, if you'd save your life, fly our patroness, the life of Rome which this man's life did owe you and other men think of this life and those sparks of life that should be by life being weng of these he that cuts off twenty years of life for your life, you durst not all the voyage of their life is bound so to prevent the time of life my life is run like compass saving of thy life, that whatsoever in all my life, I found no man almost ended his life's history thy life hath been some smatch his life was gentle, and all the the nobleness of life is, to do I love long life better than figs higher than both in blood and life hath yet but life, and not and die with looking on his life shows a body rather than a life or take his life there so dissolve my life that I expect virtuous life best fits my latter part of life that life, a very rebel to my will she rendered life, thy name so and I won't my life, spend upon yield thee up my life for her life in Rome would be begin to make a better life other elements I give to hater life knot intricate to the life bound for no less than my life since the true life on't was by my life, I kissed it O this life is nobler, than his book unsuccess'd his life haply this life is best, if quiet life be strikes life into my speech let thine own hands take away her life no, in my life: I'll give but notice in my life, I will comfort most retired bath her life been I see, a man's life is a tedious one and though you took his life, as being of which your life is in danger sir, my life is yours, I firmly what pleasure, sir, and we in life the certainty of this hard life even for whom my life is, every became the life of 'o name dear life, take mine; and thou take this life, and cancel these cold the action of my life is like it by medicine life may be prolonged madly dying, like her life whose life, but that her right should by the minute feed on life I do not bid thee beg my life, good lad your life, good master, must shuffle my queen, my life, my wife would cease the present power of life resign my life, and set abroad Titus, father of my life and shall do with my life I need for my dear son's life these looks infuse new life in me Moor, sweeter to me than life as you love your mother's life my father's sake, that gave thee life I'll give thee my life, I'll begg'd benefit my brother of his life not then have touched them for his life nursed this woe, in feeding life life not shrink thereat his pledges demand, my life violent hands upon her tender life will quickly melt thy life away that first gave life to you I never drank with him in all my life never say grace in all my life lord of my life, commander of my as he regards his aged father's life punishment for his most wicked life if one good deed in all my life I did her life was best-like, and devoid I life would wish, and that his riddle told not, lost his life who tells us life's but breath touch not, upon thy life, for that's lest thou, I should, to keep you have after nourishment and life by care makes war upon your life power to take thy life treason, will I take thy life destined to cut his throat of life each minute threatens life or death who first shall die to lengthen life give them life, who are hunger-starved and no more of life, than may even as he left his life that holds his life over so much blood unto your life undertake a married life the kind of life, to have my life even as my life, my blood that as a duck for life that dives now, mild may be thy life and yet the fire of life kindle again his light to blow the fire Marina's life seeks to take off never did her hurt in all my life or my life imply her danger?
 your lady seeks my life his anger, his life
 another life give them repetition to the life no less than life, with grace

LIFE—answer my life my judgment
 Kent, on thy life, no more. My life I dare pawn down my life for him now, by my life, old fools are babes again I'll call thee; life and death O god, seek your life?
 ruffian, sir, whose life I have spared as I've life and honour, there shall he to keep base life afoot man's life is cheap, and being cheap he sought my life, but lately his life, with thine, and all that offer we may not pass upon his life life would not yield to age pluck upon my hateful life dissolve the life that wants to despatch his nighted life treasury of life, when life itself yields thy life's a miracle; speak yet again I pardon that man's life then there's life in it ch'ud ha' been zaggered out of my life a plot upon her virtuous husband's life my life will be too short that I have my life and the strings of life began to crack I pant for life; some good for my writ is on the life of Lear haste thee, for thy life the life of the life no, no, no, life; why should a dog a horse, a rat, have life, and thou no he but usurp'd his life lovers take their life fear of a despised life my life is my foe's debt on my life, hath stolen him home my life were better ended by their hate a challenge on my life of my life for an hour and an hour hit the life of stout Mercutio those twenty could but kill one life should end the life of Tybalt I'll thy lady, the life of life let day in, and let life out when he shuts up the day of life almost freezes up the heat of life my child, my only life, revive when these lips were parted 'life leaving, all is death's O life, not life, but love in death and breathed such life with kisses upon thy life I charge thee my old life be not gone did forfeit with his life, all those his if thou hast uphoarded in thy life upon my life, this spirit dumb to us as I have seen it in his life I do not set my life on a pin's fee that did sting thy father's life of life, of crown, of queen, at once except my life, except my life upon whose property, and most dear life makes calamity of life to grunt and sweat under a weary life memory may outlive his life half a year on wholesome life usurp immediately the single and peculiar life is found like life in execution and breath of life, I have no life to breathe who was in life a foolish prating knave even on the pith of life should be as mortals as the gods I'll crown, our life, and all that we call father slain, pursued my life so conjunctive to my life and soul upon my life, Lamord. The very same death, shortens not his life with my life, I'll desperate him such bugs and goblins in my life for my proper life, and with such cozenage and a man's life's no more than to say in thee there is not an hour's life had it the ability of life to thank you for necessity of present life, I must show I fetch my life and being from men your sentence even fall upon my life still questioned me the story of my life for life and education; my life my life upon her faith. Honest Iago a life's but a span; why then
 'tis the soldier's life, to have their halmy I thank thee, I'll make my life of it hang a doubt on 'or, woe upon thy life!
 I must live, or bear no life his unkindness may defeat my life treachery, and devise engines for my life he had a daily beauty in his life but of life as honest, as you that thus no, by my life and soul; send for I never did offend you in my life for little office, the hateful commons iii. 3

LITTLE—is little less in joy Richard II., ii. 3 a little scene to monarchise iii. 2 and with a little pin, bores through iii. 3 little great, a little little grave iii. 3 thou little better thing than earth iii. 4 pardon me, madam; little joy have I iii. 4 being are we beholden to (rep.) iv. 1 it is too little, to bring him to all v. 1 like ne'er so little urged v. 1 some love, but little policy v. 1 thoughts people this little world v. 5 as thus, come, little ones v. 5 I speak truly, little better than one ... Henry IV., l. 2 my sovereign liege, little deserves l. 3
 'tis no little reason bids l. 3 I'll break thy little finger, Harry ii. 3 lend me thy hand to laugh a little ii. 4 I pray you say a little, and ii. 4 yea, but a little charge will ii. 4 whereof a little more than a little ii. 4 swore little; died not above seven ii. 3 I hold mine for little counsel with weak ii. 3 steps me a little higher than his yow ii. 3 keep in a little liege; poor Jack v. 4 hath little gilded over your night's ... Henry IV., l. 2 virtue is of so little regard l. 2 you make a misusage, make a waste you whorson little valiant villain ii. 4 ah, you sweet little rogue, you ii. 4 little dice Bartholomew bear-pig ii. 4 good advice, and little medicine ii. 1 little John Doy of Staffordshire ii. 2 give me always a little, lean ii. 2 there was a little quiver fellow ii. 2 to all the rest of this little kingdom iv. 3 we want a little personal strength iv. 4 I would have been a little more iv. 4 stay but a little; for my cloud iv. 4 any pretty little tiny kickshaws v. 1 I have but a very little credit v. 1 and my little soldier there be merry v. 3 welcome my little tiny thing v. 3 may attest, in little place ... Henry IV., i. (chorus) like little body with a mighty ii. (chorus)
 I say little; but when time shall serve ii. 1
 I would prick your guts a little ii. 1
 I would have been a little more ii. 2 with scanting a little cloth ii. 4 small breath, and little pause ii. 4 for pix of little price iii. 6 so little kin to the purpose iii. 6 a little touch Fr. (chorus) though it appear a little out of iv. 1 but in gross brain little wots iv. 1 a very little little let us do iv. 3 shall yield them little iv. 3 a little phrase is I do iv. 7 also being a little intoxicated iv. 7 ever known so great and little loss iv. 8 tell him a little piece of my desires v. 1 in little room confining v. 2 (cho.) lingering on, with little on ... Henry IV., l. 1 thou know'st little of my wrongs l. 3 pertakers of a little gain iv. 2 a little herd of England's iv. 2 I owe him little duty, and less love v. 3 the little of the French can little boast v. 3 of one stands me in little stead v. 6 deign to woo her little worth v. 3 had been a little ratsbane for v. 4 as little as the Frenchman v. 4 make but little for his benefit ... Henry IV., l. 1 some reason, of no little force l. 3 and Humphrey is no little man iii. 1 but little thinks, we shall be of ... Henry IV., l. 1 though with a little disease l. 1 down a little while to breathe l. 1 we'll hear a little more. My queen she could say little less iv. 1 a little fire is quickly trodden out iv. 8 a little while to do v. 6 good was little better: good v. 6 maintain it with some little cost ... Richard III., l. 2 as little joy, my lord, as you (rep.) l. 3 nay, I pray thee, stay a little l. 4 he little thought of this divided l. 4 with some little train (rep.) ii. 2 my dagger, little cousin? iii. 1 little lord? I would that I (rep.) iii. 1 because that I am little, like an ape this little prating York was not iii. 1 cradle for such little pretty ones! iv. 1 some little pause, dear lord iv. 2 Richmond was a little peevish boy iv. 2 and little the Frenchman iv. 4 there the little souls of Edward's a grandam's name is little less iv. 4 great a charge as little honour ... Henry VIII., l. 1 we cannot feel so little, hear too much l. 2 she would beget a little thought l. 2 for my little cure, let me alone l. 4 with dancing is a little heated l. 4 I'll tell you in a little ii. 1 the cause he may a little grieve at ii. 1 which makes a little happier ii. 1 pluck off a little; I would not be ii. 3 in faith, for little England you'd iii. 1 full little, God knows, looking either in England, but little for my profit iii. 1 she would beget a little thought iii. 2 you have as little honesty as honour iii. 2 you'll show a little honesty iii. 2 to see him so little of his great self iii. 2 my little good lord cardinal (rep.) iii. 2 like little wuntun boys that swim iii. 2 some little memory of me will iii. 2 now, methinks, I feel a little ease iv. 2 give him a little earth for charity! iv. 2 found a little blessedness of being little and a little to love her for her iv. 2

LITTLE—but little, Charles Henry VIII., v. 1 and not a little, toward the king first and th' no little sturges, that may v. 2 I make as little doubt, as you v. 2 you are a little, by your good favour v. 2 I have a little yet to say v. 2 will suffer but the little finger of v. 2 this little one shall make it holday v. 3 whose grossness little characters. Troilus & Cress., l. 3 that little little less than little wit ii. 3 at your request, a little from himself ii. 3 to give me now a little benefit iii. 3 do that that is a little great iii. 3 my little stomach to the war iii. 3 a little proudly, and great deal iv. 5 extremity of great and little iv. 5 and too little brain, though two may v. 1 and too little blood, they will v. 1 stay a little while. How the devil v. 2 I will strain a little, for 'tis ... Timon of A. Hens., l. 1 as this pomp shows to a little oil l. 2 the little basket bring me hither l. 2 there will little learning die then l. 2 there was very little honour showed iii. 2 it shows but little love or judgment iii. 3 deep enough, and yet find little iii. 4 needs brook a little more, as gods iv. 3 I have but little good of late iv. 3 needs say, you have a little fault v. 1 to scale 't a little more ... Coriolanus, l. 1 (of what you have little) patience l. 1 how does your little purpose l. 4 that's lesser than a little l. 4 as if I loved my little should be l. 9 for a very little thief of occasion will ii. 1 I know you can do very little alone ii. 1 as little as little, were you ii. 2 to report a little of that worthy work ii. 3 a little help will serve ii. 3 with those that have but little iii. 1 I have a heart as little apt as yours iii. 2 as was words iii. 2 a very little I have yielded too v. 3 afore, and then I'll speak a little v. 3 and, sir, it is no little thing, to make to displace it with your little finger v. 3 how does your little purpose ... Julius Caesar, l. 1 let me a little show it, even in ii. 1 shrunken to this little measure? ii. 1 lead their charges off a little from this iv. 2 which we will nigard with little rest iv. 3 of secrecy, a little to read. Antony & Cleopatra, l. 1 or a little, I should say myself offended ii. 2 little jealousies, which now seem great ii. 2
 leave me, I pray, a little iii. 9 little thought, I would not do iii. 9 sleep a little. No, my chuck: Eros iv. 1 yet come a little, wishers were iv. 13 some wine, and let me speak a little iv. 13 lighted the little O, the earth v. 2 may stay a little, were you ... Cymbeline, l. 1 as little as a crow, or less l. 4 he hath a court the little cares for l. 7 these boys know little they are sons iii. 3 a little witness my obedience iii. 4 who may, happily, be little angry iv. 1 than themselves for crying but little v. 1 you match some hence for little faults v. 1 with the little skill I have ... Titus Andronicus, ii. 1 or get some little knife between iii. 2 as little as little iv. 1 too little to contend, since he's so great. Percicles, l. 2 and finding little comfort to relieve l. 2 were all too little to content and please l. 4 to those little l. 4

 the great ones eat up the little ones ii. 1 of your queen—a little daughter iii. 1 look to your little mistress iii. 3 if you require a little space for prayer iv. 1 that say with little iv. 1 my acquaintance lies little against iv. 6 thou little know'st how thou dost v. 1 O stop there a little! v. 1 more a little, and then done v. 2 (Gower) mend your speech a little ... Lear, l. 1 if aught within that little l. 1 it is not a little I have to say l. 1 we have made of it hath not been little l. 1 till some little time hath qualified l. 2 him that is wide, and says little l. 4 thou hadst little wit in thy bald crown l. 4 a little to disquiet your train l. 4 this house is little; the old man l. 4 strives in his little from an' fman iii. 1 I have ten to little ears iv. 4 thus little mercy on her flesh? iv. 4 now a little fire in a wild field were iii. 4 the little dogs and all, Tray, Blanch iii. 6 Cordelia, Cordelia, a little iv. 3 with a team of little atomies ... Howe & Juliet, l. 4 not half so big as a round little worm l. 4 stay but a little, I will come again ii. 2 who lets it hop a little from her hand ii. 2 when 'twas a little ii. 4 is but a little way above our heads iii. 1 cut him out in little stars iii. 2 and little mouse, every unworthy thing iii. 3 [Kn.] hear me a little speak iii. 3 remove but his little thought iii. 4 in one little body thou counterfeist iii. 5 therefore have I little talked of love iii. 5 his rest, that you shall rest but little iv. 5 a little ere the mightiest Julius fell ... Hamlet, l. 1 a little more than kin, and less than kind l. 2 a little month; or ere those shoes l. 2 as 'twere a thing a little soiled l. 1 at last a little shaking of mine arm l. 1 here in our court some little time l. 7 an outcry of children, little cyasos l. 1

 though it lacked form a little iii. 1 where little fear was great iii. 2 excellent voice, in this little organ iii. 2 bestow this place on us a little while iv. 1 we go to gain a little patch of ground iv. 4 with you straight; get a little before iv. 5 they shall go in a little iv. 5 the hand of little employment hath v. 1 with the little goddess I have Othello, i. 3 little blessed with the set phrase of peace and little of this great world can I speak therefore little shall I grace my cause she puts her tongue a little in her heart you have little cause to say so ii. 1 with as little a web as this, will I ii. 1 good faith, a little more, not past a pint yet some little wrong to him ii. 3 and a little more wit, return to Venice; entreats her a little favour of speech iii. 1 to leave me but a little to myself iii. 3 see, this hath a little in it; your spirits your trumpet is too little; let it alone iii. 3 but, with a little act upon the blood iii. 3 the rack: than but to know't a little iii. 3 bring me on the way a little iii. 4
 't is but a little more that I desire you withdraw yourself a little while iv. 1 with this little arm, and this good sword LITTLEST—the littlest doubts are fear. Hamlet, li. 2 LIVE—merely cheated of our lives Tempest, i. 1 these lives in thy mine; not past a pint true; save means to live ii. 1 sir, he may live; I saw him ii. 1 long live Gonzalo! iii. 1 being most unfit to live iii. 3 or that with a little in it; your spirits where live nibbling sheep iv. 1 let me live here ever iv. 1 merrily, merrily, shall I live now v. 1 (song) how happily he lives Two Gen. of Verona, i. 3 sweetest-natured man that ever was than live in your air ii. 4 they live by your bare words ii. 4 command me while I live iii. 1 he lives not now iii. 1 let me not live to look on your spirits hold excused our lawless lives iv. 1 and live as we do, in this wilderness?
 thou shalt not live to brag what iv. 1 't will live with you iv. 1 beauty lives with his iv. 2 (song) sure as I live, he had iv. 4 not so; I think, she lives iv. 4 if shame live in a disguise v. 1 whist I live again Merry Wives, i. 4
 I live like a gentleman Kn.
 [Kn.] let me see thee froth, and live i. 3 all affections else that live in her! Twelfth Night, i. 1 and thou shalt live as freely as thy i. 4 do not our lives consist of ii. 3 and do not, it is pity of our lives ii. 3 shall this fellow live? ii. 5 dost thou live by thy labor? iii. 1
 I live by the church (rep.) iii. 2 to-morrow morning, if I live iii. 2 I will live to be thankful iv. 1 too doubtful soul may live at peace iv. 3 live you the marble-breasted v. 1 live in thy tongue and heart Meas. for Meas., i. 1 but, whilst I live, he will i. 3 that would live. How goodly ii. 1 if you live to see this come to ii. 1 but, when they live, to end ii. 2 lives not to act another ii. 2 O her brother! ii. 2 your brother cannot live ii. 4 yet may he live awhile ii. 4 then Isabel, live chaste, and brother ii. 4 I have hope to live, and am prepared ii. 4 to live to live, I speak to ii. 4 yes, brother, you may live iii. 1 sweet sister, let me live iii. 1 that it will let this man live iii. 1 that is thy means to live iii. 2 I eat, array myself, and live iii. 2 if I may live to report you iii. 2 unfit to live or die: O gravel heart! iv. 3 the best is, he lives not in them iv. 3 than that which lives to fear v. 1 I will live in thy heart Much Ado, i. 1 and there live as we merry as the day a man may live as quiet in hell ii. 1 I did not think I should live till ii. 3 no glory lives behind the back iii. 1 do not live, if you do not iii. 1 the practice of it lives in John iii. 1 stay yet; look back, with me iv. 1 that look into me with considerate iv. 2 your wife's son; well, look to it iv. 2 Stanley, look to your wicks iv. 2 by that knot, looks proudly or iv. 3 never look upon [Kat.-more behold] thy look your heart be firm, or else iv. 4 why look ye so sad? my heart is (rep.) v. 3 look to what stakes you play v. 3 look on my forces with a gracious eye that frowns on me, looks sadly v. 3 shall lessen this big look Henry VIII., i. 1

 I read in his looks matter against me i. 1 look to look on the business present i. 2 pray, look to't; I put it to your care i. 2 pray, look there, some of you i. 4 let them look they glory not in i. 5 all, that dare look upon his affairs i. 5 now sad he looks upon me, he is i. 5 looks upon the ground, then, lays ii. 2 so looks the chafed lion upon ii. 2 how pale the lords, and of an earthly by thy looks, I see your grief ii. 2 look there, my lords; by virtue v. 2 do you look for ale and cakes here v. 3 fairer than ever I saw her look Troilus & Cress. i. 1 look, how he looks! there's i. 2 look you what backs are on his (rep.) i. 2 look well upon him, niece; look you and how he looks, and how he goes! i. 2 ne'er look, ne'er look, the eagles are gone i. 2 those most imperial looks know i. 2 nay, look upon him. So do i. 1 but yet you look not well upon i. 1 he here; that he; look you there i. 1 save these men's looks iii. 3 neither gave to me good word, nor look her woe look like drowned men iv. 5 which looks like pride, is courtesy iv. 5 that same that looks so heavy? iv. 5 let me look on thee. Behold iv. 5 who no other looks on thee iv. 5 you look upon that sleeve v. 2 one eye yet looks on thee v. 2 I'll go look on; that dissembling v. 4 my prize; I will not look upon v. 6 look in thy last work, where Timon of Athens, i. 1 make thee, and thy state, look ill i. 2 after distasteful looks, and these ii. 2
 I pry thee, man, look cheerly ii. 2
 I will look you out a good turn ii. 2 when he looks out in an ungrateful ii. 2 to make an ugly dead look fair iii. 5 you cannot make gross sins look clear iii. 5 that none may look on you iii. 5 let me look back on you iv. 1 for all her cherubim look iv. 3 and these looks of care? iv. 3 ay, though it look like thee iv. 3 but himself, which looks like man iv. 2 look out, and speak iv. 2 and make bold power look pale Coriolanus, i. 1 than look upon his schoolmaster i. 3 and make my wags on you; look to't but, with thy grim looks, and the i. 4 and by his looks, methinks, his wags ii. 3 which looks with us to break his neck iii. 3

LOOK—and you'll look pale before . . . Coriolanus, iv. 6 the gods look down, as this unnatural . . . v. 3 look upon Caesar. What say'st at thou. Julius Caesar, i. 1 if I have veiled my look i. 2 and I will look on both indifferently i. 2 and all the rest look like a child i. 2 and Cleopatra looks on such a sight i. 2 Castius has a lean and hungry look i. 2 he looks quite through the deeds of men i. 2 that Caesar looks so sad i. 2
 'Till ne'er look on me again i. 2 you look pale, and gaze, and put on fear i. 3 and look you lay it in the prator's chair i. 3 looks in the clouds, scorning i. 3 look in the calendar, and bring me news i. 3 look fresh and merrily; let not our looks i. 3 stared upon me with ungentle looks ii. 1 and look where Publius is come ii. 2 not immortal, look about you ii. 3 (paper) boy, if thy lord look well, for he ii. 3 if then thy spirit look upon us now ii. 3 look you here, here is himself, marred ii. 3 young bloods look for a time of rest ii. 3 and downward look on us v. 1 they look not on him Cleopatra, i. 3 look here, and at thy sovereign leisure i. 3 and let it look like perfect honour i. 3 which some did die to look on i. 4 that make their looks by his i. 5 let Antony look on me ii. 2 sir, look well to my husband's house ii. 2 Herod of Jewry dare not look upon ii. 3
 I followed that I blush to look upon ii. 3 pray you, look not sad, nor make ii. 3 abused by one that looks on leaders? ii. 3 shake thou to look on't ii. 3 I look on you, as one that ii. 3 and look on their endeavour ii. 3 they cannot look on me ii. 3 look out o' the other side ii. 3 look you sad, friends? ii. 3 declining day, or look on thine ii. 3 of this man looks out of him ii. 3 would gladly look on him ii. 3 but she looks like sleep, as she ii. 3 to the bent of the king's looks Cymbeline, i. 2 look here, lover; this diamond i. 2 cracked them, but to look upon him i. 2 am I one, sir, that look on him i. 2 is it fit, I went to look upon him? i. 2 or look upon our Romans i. 2 let her beauty look through a casement i. 2 kills me to look on't i. 2 look for fury, and to resist his looks i. 2 how look I, that I should seem i. 2 a fog in them that I cannot look through i. 2 to me, with a look untender i. 2 she looks us like a thing more i. 2 go, look after Pisanio, thou that i. 2 like me, he'll scarcely look on't i. 2 bid the captain look to't i. 2 scarce ever look on blood i. 2 I am ashamed to look upon this holy sun i. 2 but to look back in frown i. 2 gilded pale looks, part, shame, part i. 2 gan to look the way that they did i. 2 look out; no longer exercise upon i. 2 naught but beauty to look on i. 2 you look like Romans, and not i. 2 under Titus' threatening look Titus Andronic, i. 2 at my suit, look graciously on him i. 2 nor with sour looks afflict his i. 2 these looks into his face i. 2 not be denied: sweet heart, look back i. 2 words, fair looks, and liberality? i. 2 your highness look so pale (rep.) i. 2 Aaron and thou look into ii. 4 (letter) look for thy reward among ii. 4 look, sirs, if you can find ii. 4 yet do thy cheeks look red ii. 5 arise, and look upon her ii. 5 look by-and-by to have thy sons ii. 5 look here; look here, Lavinia ii. 5 Marcus, look to my house ii. 5 look ye draw home enough ii. 5 and then look for your reward ii. 5 lest these but thy mother's look ii. 5 look round about the wicked streets ii. 5 as yon grim looks do testify Pericles, I (Gower) the ostent of war will look so huge i. 2 what see'st thou in our looks? i. 2 how dare the plants look up to heaven i. 2 Tyre, I now look from thee i. 2 we do not look for reverence i. 4 look how thou stirrest now! ii. 1 ne'er come, but I look to be washed ii. 1 and nobody will be like thee ii. 1 which looks for other levels ii. 1 your scholar be; therefore look to it ii. 1 set't down, let's look on it ii. 2 for look how fresh the looks! ii. 2 look to your little mistress ii. 3 and your looks foreshow you have ii. 3 none would look on her, but cast ii. 3 or else, look friendly upon thee ii. 3 yet thou dost look like Patience ii. 3 look to the lady; O she's but ii. 3 look! Thaisa is recovered (rep.) ii. 3 this ornament that makes me look so ii. 3 then must we look to receive them Lea, i. 1 let his knights have older looks i. 1 I will look further into't i. 4 you do bawdy looks with me i. 4 gave me cold looks; and meeting here i. 4 art not ashamed that I look on these i. 4 creatures yet do look well-favoured i. 4 [Knt.] I will look him, and privily ii. 3 whose warped looks proclaim ii. 6 how is't my lord? how look you? ii. 7 looks fearfully in the confined deep ii. 1

LOOK—speaking looks to noble Edmund Lea, iv. 5 I'll look no more; lest my brain turn ii. 6 look up a height (rep.) ii. 6 look with thine ears ii. 6 look upon me, sir, and hold your hands ii. 7
 'Tis time to look about ii. 7 sings thy outside looks so fair v. 3 look on her,—look,—her lips (rep.) v. 3 look up, my lord. Vex not his ghost v. 3 Benvolio look upon me dead Romeo & Juliet, i. 1 at my poor house, look to behold this i. 2 I'll look to like, if looking i. 3

 I'll be a candle-holder, and look on i. 4 look to hear nothing but discords ii. 1 look to the plate i. 5 (chorus) look thou but sweet, and I am proof ii. 2 toward school with heavy looks ii. 2 she looks as pale as any clout ii. 4 look to be wretched by the class of looks ii. 1 men's eyes were made to look ii. 1 calm look, knees humbly bowed ii. 1 to prison, eyes! ne'er look on liberty! ii. 2 exile hath more terror in his look ii. 3 bewitched by the class of looks ii. 5 be wary, look about ii. 5 or never after look me in the face ii. 5 look to't, think on't, I do not use ii. 5 to-morrow night look that thou lie alone ii. 2 look to be merry, look to be ii. 2 look to the baked meats, good Angelica ii. 4 look! look! O heavy day! ii. 4 revive, look up, or I will die with thee ii. 4 your looks are pale as my ii. 4 heagre were his looks, sharp misery v. 1 his looks I fear, and his intents I doubt v. 3 eyes, look your last! arms, take your v. 3 if I did stay to look on his intents v. 3 they cannot look on me v. 3 look, and thou shalt see v. 3 with wild looks, bid me devise some v. 3 give me the letter, I will look on it v. 3 looks it not like the king? Hamlet, i. 1 you smile, and look not on me i. 2 and let thine eye look like a friend i. 2 I shall not look upon his like again i. 3 in thy memory look thou character i. 3 look to't, I charge you i. 3 that look so woful fakers i. 3 and with a look so pitious in purport ii. 1 may conceive,—friend, look to't ii. 2 a kind of confession in your looks ii. 2 I'll observe his looks; and in him ii. 2 how contented my mother looks ii. 2 day would quake to look on ii. 3 then I'll look up; my fault is past ii. 3 look here, upon this picture, and on this ii. 4 whereto do you look? in his mind (rep.) ii. 4 do not look upon me, lest, with this ii. 4 look you there, look how it steals away! ii. 4 thy cleatrice looks raw and red ii. 4 alas, look here, my lord ii. 4 thy, thy rebellion look on me like? ii. 4 lives almost by his looks ii. 4 and that our drift look through our bad ii. 4 look to the queen there, ho! ii. 4 you that look pale and tremble at v. 2 look to your hearts, look to your Othello, i. 1 in love with what she feared to look on? i. 1 look to her, Moor; have a quick eye i. 3 looks sadly, and prays the Moor be safe i. 3 following, and not look behind i. 3 shall she say to look on me? i. 3 that folly and green minds look after i. 3 Michael, look you to the guard to-night ii. 3 with my personal eye will I look to't ii. 3 gentlemen, you're left to our business ii. 3 how not on his evils, but on his true ii. 3 Iago, look with care about the town ii. 3 look to your wife; observe her well ii. 3 look to't; I know our country disposition ii. 3 to shake, and fear your looks ii. 3 shall ne'er look back, ne'er ebb ii. 3 therefore look to't well ii. 4 nor of them look for such observances ii. 4 let me see your eyes; look in my face ii. 2 ay, there, look grim as hell! ii. 3 he looks gentler than he did ii. 3 what, look you pale? (rep.) v. 1 I pray you, look upon her v. 2 look in upon me then, and speak with me v. 2 now, how dost thou look now? v. 2 this look of mine will hurt my soul v. 2 peace, peace be not so loud Coriolanus, iv. 2 and speaks as loud as his own Antony & Cleo., ii. 5 and speak as loud as Mars ii. 2 debate our trivial difference loud ii. 2 to our ears with the loud music ii. 7 as loud as his strong sides can volley ii. 7 we bid a loud farewell to ii. 7 by crying out so loud, O bless my Cymbeline, iii. 5 [Cel.] to the loud noise we make iii. 5 rudeness answered my steps too loud iv. 2 with loud 'larums welcome them Titus Andron., i. 2 this loud music is too harsh for Pericles, iii. 3 the wind is loud, and will not be iii. 3 as loud as thunder threatens us v. 1 with loud and coward cries Lea, iv. 4 who calls so loud? Come hither Romeo & Juliet, v. 1 the morning comes too loud As You Like It, ii. 2 what act, that roars so loud, and thunders iii. 4 too slightly timbered for so loud a wind iv. 7 such loud reason the Cyprus wars Othello, i. 1 tongue at will, and yet was never loud ii. 1 either by speaking too loud or As You Like It, ii. 2 LOUDER—are louder than the weather Tempest, i. 1

 I speak louder. This not so Merry Wives, iii. 3 no certainly!—Speak louder iv. 2 ten times louder than beauty Mens. for Meas., ii. 4 cries cry louder and louder As You Like It, v. 1 you were best knock louder Taming of Shrew, v. 1 both roaring louder than the sea Winter's Tale, iii. 3 you must speak louder, my master Henry IV, i. 2 and let him cry ha, louder! Henry VIII, iii. 2 breath that makes proclaim the order Pericles, i. 4 male louder by the o'er-fair breast iii. (Gov.) dead near; louder the music there Lea, iv. 7 LOUDEST—advocate the 'loudest, Winter's Tale, ii. 2 to the loudest Cymbeline, iii. 3 LOUD—HOWLING wolves arouse Henry IV, iv. 1

 LOUDLY—speak loudly for him Hamel, v. 2 LOUSE—the dozen white louses Merry Wives, v. 1 care not to be the louse of a leazar Troilus & Cressida, i. 1 LOUSY—on thy knees, my lousy Cymbeline, iii. 3 upon my knowledge, he is, and lousy All's Well, iv. 3 rascally, beggarly, lousy knave it is Henry V, iv. 3 lousy, praging knave (rep.) v. 1 snail like a lousy footboy v. 2 LOUZE—to you, my louse Pericles, iv. 4 pronounce thee a gross lout Winter's Tale, i. 2 in such a louse, so vile a lout as he King John, ii. 2 but a calf's skin, most sweet lout iii. 1 rather show our general louses Coriolanus, iii. 2 to before this lout, as he exceeds Cymbeline, ii. 2 LOUTED—I am louted by a traitor Henry IV, v. 1 LOUVRE—your Paris Louvre shake Henry V, ii. 4 he wise, and never see the Louvre Henry VIII, i. 1 LOVE—none that I love more than Tempest, i. 1 to dear the love of my people i. 2 I do not love to look on i. 2 and I the king shall love thee i. 1 do you love me? iii. 1 do love, prize, honour you iii. 1 were but my wish that thy love iv. 1 with such love as 'tis now iv. 1 do you love me, master? iv. 1 whose shadow the dismissed bachelor loves iv. 1 a contract of true love to celebrate (rep.) iv. 1 to, my dearest love iv. 1 glances of thy honoured love Two Gen. of Fer., i. 1 but since thou lovest, love still i. 1 when I do love begin i. 1 upon some love i. 1
 some shallow story of deep love i. 1 a deep story of a deeper love i. 1 more than over shoes in love i. 1 for you are over boots in love i. 1 to be in love, where scorn is bought i. 1
 'tis love you covet at; I am not Love i. 1 love is your master, for he masters you i. 1 so eating love inhabits i. 1 even so by love the young i. 1 of thy success in my love i. 1 after honour hunts, I after love i. 1 my friends, and all for love i. 1 then counsel me to fall in love? i. 2 which is worthiest love? i. 2 were but my wish that thy love i. 2 thought your love not cast away i. 2 I think, best loves ye i. 2 shows his love but small i. 2 do not love, that do not show their love i. 2 love least, that let men know their love i. 2 to plead for love deserves more i. 2 how wayward is this foolish love i. 2 some love of yours hath writ i. 2 to the tune of light of love i. 2 sweet love! sweet love! i. 3 here is her oath for love i. 3 our fathers would applaud our loves i. 3 take exceptions to my love i. 3 excepted most against my love i. 3 O how this spirit of love resembles i. 3 she, that your worship loves? i. 1 how know you that I am in love? i. 1 if you love her, you cannot i. 1 because love is blind i. 1 for he, being in love, is not i. 1 then you are in love i. 1 I was in love with my bed i. 1 you swung me for my love i. 1 to write some lines to one she loves i. 1 hath taught me to love i. 1 though the carmelion love can feed i. 1

LOVE—my love's forgetfulness! Two Gen. of Fer., ii. 2 ay, so true love should do ii. 2 ay boy, it's for love ii. 2 as worthy for an empress' love ii. 4 love hath twenty pair of eyes ii. 4 they say, that love her more ii. 4 upon a homely object love can win ii. 4 how thrives your love? ii. 4 my tales of love, were wont ii. 4 done penance for contemning love ii. 4 in revenge of my contempt of love ii. 4 love hath chased sleep from ii. 4 love's a mighty lord ii. 4 except it be of love ii. 4 upon the very naked name of love ii. 4 for love-delights us and praises ii. 4 thou wilt except against my love ii. 4 seem me dote upon my love ii. 4 for love, thou know'st, is ii. 4 but she loves you? ii. 4 the remembrance of my former love ii. 4 so is Julia, that I love ii. 4
 I did love, for now my love is thawed ii. 4 and that I love him not ii. 4 that I should love this ii. 4 the reason I love him so little ii. 4 without advice begin to love her? ii. 4 if I can check my erring love ii. 4 not though he burn himself in love ii. 5 love bade me swear, and love ii. 6 O sweet-suggesting love ii. 6
 I cannot leave to love ii. 6 but there I leave to love ii. 6 that I should love ii. 6 for love is still more precious ii. 6 that my love to her is dead ii. 6 love, lend me wings ii. 6 in kind love, I do conjure thee ii. 7
 that I should love ii. 7
 the holy touch of love to fly ii. 7 quench the fire of love with words ii. 7 your love's hot fire ii. 7 have brought me to my love ii. 7 his love as burning of sin ii. 7 his love sincere ii. 7 deserve my love, by loving him ii. 7 this love of theirs myself have iii. 1 for love of you, not hate iii. 1 that I should love iii. 1 to begot more love in you iii. 1 for love is like a child iii. 1 the love I ever bore my daughter iii. 1 thou canst not see thy love iii. 1
 that I should love iii. 1 that knows me to be in love iii. 1 yet I am in love iii. 1 nor who 'tis I love iii. 1 because I love crutis iii. 1 but that she loves me iii. 2 this weak impress of love is a iii. 2 love of Valentine, and love sir Thuro? iii. 2 not long continue love to him iii. 2 this weed her love from Valentine iii. 2
 that I should love iii. 2
 as you unwind her love from him iii. 2 already Love's firm votary iii. 2 hate young Valentine, and love my iii. 2 shows thou hast been in love iii. 2 I do not not that I do love iv. 1 my own love to prefer iv. 2 the more she spurns my love iv. 2 will creep in service iv. 2 that you love not here? iv. 2 love light to be ever iv. 2 (song) and make thy love amends iv. 2 I grant, sweet love, that I did love a lady iv. 2 my love is buried iv. 2 your picture for my love iv. 2 if you shadow I will make thy love iv. 2 and thy true love died iv. 3 as well as you do love your lady Silvia iv. 4 in him that has forgot her love iv. 4 that cares not for your love iv. 4
 'tis pity, love should be so contrary iv. 4 because he loves her iv. 4 because I love him, I must iv. 4 my master's true confirmed love iv. 4 respects my mistress' love so much iv. 4 how love can trife with itself iv. 4 if that be all the difference in his love iv. 4 if this fond love were not a blinded god iv. 4 to make my master out of love with thee iv. 4 love we do not care to iv. 4 when I discourse of love and peace? v. 2 than for the love of reckless Silvia v. 2 more for Silvia's love v. 2 more to cross that love v. 2 for Silvia, that is gone for love v. 2 they love me well v. 2 forced your honour and your love v. 4 love, lend me patience v. 4 how I love Valentine v. 4 O! his case in love v. 4 when women cannot love v. 4 when Proteus cannot love v. 4 thy first best love v. 4 descended into perjury, to love me? v. 4 I dare thee not to respect friends? v. 4 and love you 'gainst the nature of love v. 4 that's without faith or love v. 4 that my love may appear plain v. 4 live in a disguise love v. 4
 I have need not to breathe upon my love v. 4 for a girl that loves him not v. 4 worthy of an empress' love v. 4 the story of your loves discovered v. 4 and signifies—love Merry Wives, ii. 1 that I should love v. 4 can you love her? i. 1

LOVE—can you love the maid? Merry Wives, i. 1 but if there be no great love in i. 1 I love the spark, and so do I i. 1 to make love to Ford? i. 3 of this love to Page i. 3 my master himself is in love with i. 4 if the maid loves you i. 4 I'll be sworn she loves you i. 4 but Anne loves him not i. 4 ask me no reason, why I love you ii. 1 (letter) for though love use reason for ii. 1 (letter) you love each, and so do I ii. 1 (letter) love of a soldier can suffice (rep.) ii. 1 (letter) but I say, love me ii. 1 (letter) he loves the rally-mawfy ii. 1 love my wife? ii. 1 Falstaff loves your wife (rep.) ii. 1 each other how they love me? ii. 2 your little page, of all loves ii. 2 as love hath pursued me ii. 2 love like a shadow fly with (rep.) ii. 2 of what quality was your love then? ii. 2 by gar, I love you ii. 3 and de maid is love-a-me ii. 2 what made the love the love? ii. 3
 I love thee, none but thee ii. 3
 I fear, you love mistress Page ii. 3 as well say, I love to walk by ii. 3 well, heaven knows how I love you ii. 3 love thee; and I love thee ii. 4 I cannot get thy father's love ii. 4 a thing impossible I should love thee ii. 4 yet seek my father's love ii. 4 mistress Anne, my cousin loves you ii. 4

LOVE—and for your love... Merchant of Venice, iv. 1 and you in love shall not deny his deservings, and my love without and waded her love to come again and with an unthrifful love, did run from slender her love, and he forgave it her since you do take it, love love me, and leave me not I gave my love a ring, and made her cousin, so loves her, being ever, As you Like It, i. 1 and for your love, I would be loath therefore, out of my love to you Charles, I thank thee for thy love to me not with the full weight that I love thee I could have taught my love to take if the truth of thy love to me were what think you of falling in love?
 but love no man in good earnest your father, loves. My father's love is if you do keep your promises in love true applause, and love whose loves are dearer than I shall desire more love and knowledge that you should love his son dearly?
 love him for that; and do you love him Rosalind lacks then the love which I love to cope him in these snellen fits why do people love you? and wherefore that thou know'st how I do love her?
 love were ever like mine (rep.) didst thou ne'er love so heartily that ever love did make thee I remember, when I was in love so is all nature in love mortal if that love, or gold, can in this world who loves to be rich me, and tune and loves to live 't the sun many a weary step limped in pure love in witness of my love must find love's way what tedious homily of love have you Rosalind is your love's name?
 is to be in love. 'Tis a fault farewell, good signior Love for there he is faithful to the the quotidian of love upon him how to know a man in love I could make thee believe I love her that you love believe it are you so much then the lover love is merely a madness that the whippers are in love too to imagine me his love, his mistress from his mad humour of love not be one aspect of love now by the faith of my love, I will but for his verity in love, I do not true in love? Yes, when he the shepherd that complained of love the pale complexion of true feedeth those in love say, that you love me not that love's keen arrows make fasting, for a good meek love cry the main reason I love him in love with her foulness, and (rep.) do not fall in love with me my grief in love, by giving love thou hast my love bear thee love; but since thou (rep.) and so perfect is my love think not I love him in love with him, but for my (rep.) to hate him, that he should love I do love it better than laughing he out of love with your nativity break an hour's promise in love?
 part of a minute in the affairs of love he is one of the best of loves but not for love, I would not then love me, Rosalind alas, dear love, I cannot lack many fathom deep I am in love!
 he judge, how deep I am in love with pure love, and troubled brain and that she could not love me her loves is not the hare that I do hunt turned unto the extremity of love to raise such love in mine whiles you chid me, I did love love to thee, little knows this love by him my love deny fit thou love me, or love me?
 I see, love hath made a tame she love me, I charge her to love thee committing me unto my brother's love you do love this maid? I do, sir that's seeing, you should love I love Aliena; say with her, that (rep.) they are in the very wrath of love if you do love Rosalind so near look upon him, love him tell this youth, that he is to love if this be so why blame you me to love I would love you, if I could love Rosalind, meet; as you love (rep.) sweet lovers love the spring for love is crown'd with roses why then, my love adieu!
 you to his love must accord a love, that your true faith doth (rep.) for the love you bear to men, to like the love you bear to women love all, trust a few, do wrong to none, All's Well, i. 1 the best that shall attend his love that I should love a bright particular the ambition in love the plague by the lion, must die for love I love him for his sake, and yet shall your master have a thousand loves

LOVE-which mounts my love so high? All's Well, i. 1 that did make me love his love and wisdom approve loves my flesh and blood, he that loves madam, you love your gentlewoman as much as love she finds love, no god, that would not extend where love's strong passion is 'tis gross, you love my son pardon me! do you love my son?
 do you my son? do you love (rep.)
 I love your son; my friends were (rep.)
 I know I love in vain pour in the waters of my love your hate encounter with my love and love dearly, that you Dian (rep.) my leave, and love, means and write to her a love line a poor friend of yours, that loves you mistress! all, when love please who shuns thy love, shuns all his love and to imperial Love, that god love made your fortunes twenty and her humble love! No better my wish receive, which great love grant I cannot love, nor will strive in vile misprision shackle up my love lovest her, thy love's to me religious prerogative and rite of love, which doth not give me man's love money lay our best love and credence of thy drum, hater of love ambitious love hath so in me delights to hear, and loves to grant who loves by pure love for the love of laughter, let him I love not many words. No more (rep.) in your fine frame hath love no quality?
 but I love thee by love's own sweet which is not to be holding (rep.) so holy-cruel; love is holy and ever my love, as it begins I begin to love him for this truly labour to recompense your love and I have loved a man who would love her, strikes some scores away (rep.) our own love waking cries to see speak 't falsely, as I love mine did he love this woman? Faith (rep.) did love her, sir, as a gentleman loves I'll love her dearly, ever, ever dearly as he will win my love. Taming of Shrew, i. (Induc.)

 dost thou love hawking? 2 (Induc.)
 dost thou love pictures 2 (Induc.) and, by my father's love and leave both love Katharina, because (rep.) for I will love thee ne'er the less their love is not so good, Horatio yet, for the love I bear my sweet be happy rivals in Bianca's love that love should of a sudden take I found the effect of love in idleness
 I love have touching in my laugh if you love the maid, bend your love must live a maid I love Lucentio. Tranio, be so (rep.) as foul as was Florentine's love and he will have a man's love leisure to make love to her
 'tis the rival of my love all books of love, see that at any 'tis now no time to vent our love I love no commanders, sir she's the choice love of signior Greimio and, for your love to her, lead if I get your daughter's love this—her love; for that is all I love her ten times more than I to believe how much she loves me in a wink she won me to her love I am one, that love Bianca more not love so dear as I (rep.) shall have Bianca's love disguised thus to get your love the knave doth court my love that loves with all affection he looks as though he were in love to her love concerneth us to add now, if you love me, stay serve it thus to me that love it not?
 that I profess, the art to love I love to love, and love to love forswear Bianca and her love for ever shall win my love; and so I take ta'en you napping, gentle love take in your love, and then let me he does it under the name of perfect love a dish that I do love to feed upon here, love, thou seest how diligent and now, my honey love, will we I love thee well (rep.) a weighty cause of love between and for the love he beareth to your doth love my daughter love wrought these miracles (rep.) now, pray, these love, stay I love, and quiet life, and awful rule but love, fair looks, and true obedience are bound to serve, love, and obey we will be justified in our loves. Winter's Tale, i. 1 the heavens continue their loves O dear! I love you, a whip to me were, in your love, a whip to me I love thee not a jar o' the clock and clap thyself my love think is mine, and love as mine region I love as I love myself I love you better of love, as might become a lady (rep.) whose love had spoke, even since

LOVE—the love I bore your queen. Winter's Tale, iii. 5 humbling their deities to love for love to live and please he says, he loves my daughter to choose, who loves another best I love a ballad but even too well if I were not in love with Mopsa
 I love a ballad but even too well that swart sworn my love to be and handed love, as you do your lack of love, or bounty if I were not in love with her love do him love and honour if the love I have I have borne your prosperity's the very bond of love women will love her, that she is whom he loves (he bade me say so) to change our loves whilst I laboured of a love to see. Comedy of Err, i. 1 ere I learn love, I'll learn to love as you love strokes, so jest will just upon my love, and make for know, my love, as easy of love, thy love and so, I pray muffle your false love with some of credit, that you love us let love, being light, be drowned sweet love, as look on night (rep.) I love I love, and I love thought our love would last too long that love I begged for you persuasion did he tempt thy love?

 his affection in unlawful love?
 namely, some that drive you toward your love and honour my dearest love, Duncan comes the love that follows us which still we thank as love and his great love that he has we love him highly, and shall such I account thy love how tender 'tis, to love the babe the expedition of love
 a heart to love, and in that heart (rep.) to the heart and love of us whose loves I may not drop to your assistance do make love what I love, and what I pray come, love and health to all who, as others do, loves for his own he loves us not and nothing is the love those strong words to commanding love nothing in love
 as honour, love, obedience, troops reckon with your several loves with very easy arguments of love. King John, i. 1 subject tribute to commanding love heart full of unstained love to this indurance of my love to make a more requital to your love England we love; and for that out of my dear love, I'll give if lusty love should go in quest if I love ambitious sought can in this book of beauty read, I love he doth espy love in the eyes in such a love, so vile a love as he I will enforce it easily to my love love the lady? (rep.) for then I should not love thee peace, amity, love, and labour so newly joined in love, so strong what is opposite to England's love now shall I see thy love my grandam's love means to pay thy love yet I love thee well; and by my Hubert, I love thee; well, I'll not say misery's love, O come to me!
 O what love I note, in the fair inseparable faithful loves, sticking so you would love me, Hubert I warrant I love you more what good love may I perform you may think my love was earthly love I have a way to win their loves again the Dauphin's love, is much more allegiance, and the love of soul dear amity, and everlasting love the love of my love and so, I pray but I do love the favour and the form the like tender of our love we the devotion of a subject's love had love in thy old blood no each other others' love in banishment I wan'er from the jewels that I love love they to live, that love and honour he loves you, on my life as Herford's love, so his to the king in love (rep.) for their love lies in their purses with thy love, it shall be still (rep.) I wot, your love pursues shall be your love and near in love, till you did with letters of your love to her sweet love, I see, changing his my heart might love your love service shall deserve your love tears show their love, but want are we beholden to your love the love of wicked friends hand, my love, and that that were some love, but little or any of my kin, and yet I love him shall I, for love, speak treason and not love, regrets his penitence where your majesty demands v. 2 in a vision full of majesty Henry VI. i. 2 inferior to none but his majesty iii. 1 we do exhibit to your majesty iii. 1 at Eltham Place I told your majesty iii. 1 one thought against your majesty! iii. 1 best avail your majesty, to cross iii. 1 yes, if it please your majesty, my liege iii. 4 but I'll unto his majesty, and crave iii. 4 princely majesty is such v. 3 no loving token to his majesty? v. 3 swear allegiance to his majesty v. 4 imperial majesty I had in charge Henry VI. i. 1 words yclad with wisdom's majesty i. 1

 I sat in seat of majesty, the cardinal i. 2 royal majesty! What say'st (rep.) i. 2 please it your majesty (rep.) i. 3 and that your majesty was an uper i. 3
 I do beseech your royal majesty (rep.) i. 3
 I humbly thank your royal majesty i. 3 an' it like your majesty, my lord ii. 1 I beseech your majesty (rep.) ii. 3 your grace to his majesty's parliament ii. 4 with what a majesty he best himself ii. 4 I will, my lord, so please his majesty ii. 4 in grim majesty, to fright the world ii. 2 glided towards your majesty, it were ii. 2 by his majesty I swear, whose far ii. 2 signify unto his majesty, the cardinal ii. 2 sent to tell his majesty, that even now ii. 2 God save your majesty! I thank you iv. 7 what canst thou answer to my majesty iv. 7
 God save his majesty! who hatest him iv. 8
 I glad tidings of his majesty! iv. 8
 I was, an' like your majesty iv. 8
 I came unto your majesty Henry VI. iii. 2 from our king unto your majesty iii. 2
 I told your majesty as much before iii. 3
 I beseech his majesty to raise me iv. 1 more licensed against your majesty iv. 1

MAJESTY—pardon of your majesty 2 Henry VI. iv. 6 his looks are full of peaceful majesty iv. 6 that I owe unto your majesty iv. 6 stamped, and want love's majesty Richard III. i. 1 his majesty, tending my person's i. 1 his majesty, he has some intent i. 1 his majesty hath straightly given i. 1 there's no doubt, his majesty will soon i. 3 God make your majesty joyful as you i. 3 are come from visiting his majesty i. 3
 I never did accuse his majesty against i. 3
 I will acquaint his majesty, of those i. 3 madam, his majesty doth call for you i. 3 by his death hath lost much majesty iii. 1
 I thank your majesty for all iii. 7
 I am unfit for state and majesty iii. 7 pleaseeth your majesty to give me leave iv. 4 what time your majesty shall please iv. 4 the news I have to tell your majesty iv. 4 I know, your majesty has always Henry VIII. i. 2 still growing in a majesty and pomp i. 3 the king's majesty commends his good i. 3 service to his majesty and you (rep.) iii. 1 and your majesty, protect my iii. 1 encountering the eyes of majesty's Troilus & Cressida. iii. 3 good majesty, Herod of Jewry (rep.) Ant. & Cleo. iii. 3 what majesty is in her gait? (rep.) iii. 3 some majesty, and should know (rep.) iii. 3 that majesty, to keep decorum v. 2 good-morrow to your majesty Cymbeline. i. 1 his majesty bids you welcome i. 1 beseech your majesty, forbear sharp iii. 5 so please your majesty, the Roman iv. 3 that you shall pardon of his majesty Titus Andronicus. i. 2 you shall ask pardon of his majesty i. 2 to-morrow, an' it please your majesty i. 2 many good morrows to your majesty ii. 2 give his majesty my hand iii. 1 yes, please your majesty, I please Pericles. ii. 5 I love your majesty as I do my bond Lear. v. 2 large effects that troop with majesty i. 1 when majesty stoops to folly i. 1 most royal majesty, I crave (rep.) i. 1 please your majesty, my lord iv. 7 how fares your majesty? you do me wrong iv. 7 during the life of this old majesty v. 3 which the majesty of buried Denmark Hamlet. i. 2 the assay of arms against your majesty ii. 2 that majesty of old times which is ii. 2 my dear majesty your queen here ii. 2 his majesty shall have tribute of me ii. 2 your majesty, and we that have free souls iii. 2 that live, and feed, upon your majesty iii. 3 the cause of majesty dies in one iii. 3 in all our majesty and skill iii. 3 if that his majesty would aught with us iv. 4 is the beauteous majesty of Denmark? iv. 5 this to your majesty; this to the queen iv. 7 impossible a thing to you from his majesty iv. 7 my lord, his majesty bade me (rep.) v. 2 if it please his majesty, it is the breathing v. 2

MAJOR—I deny your major Henry IV. ii. 4 my major vow lies here Troilus & Cressida. v. 1 in compound with inch-meat part Coriolanus. i. 1 my nativity was under ursa major Lear. i. 1

MAJORITY, and military Henry IV. iii. 2

MAKE—make yourself ready Tempest. i. 1 make the rope of his destiny i. 1 and make me a wasp i. 2 thy groans did make wolves howl i. 2 go make thyself like to a nymph i. 2 he does make our fire i. 2 took pains to make thee speak i. 2 make me no more of his bests i. 2 and make a vassal of him i. 2 I'll make you the queen of Naples i. 2 this swift lightning I must uneasy make i. 2 lest too light winning make the prize light i. 2 make me too make a fool of me i. 2 and make thy weapon drop i. 2 one word more will make me chide thee i. 2 the earth let liberty make use of i. 2 you make me study of that ii. 1 which make me a man (rep.) ii. 2 I myself could make a cough ii. 1 to make an earthquake ii. 1 and let's make further search ii. 1 and make him a man (rep.) ii. 2 this monster make a man ii. 2 cannot make him give ground ii. 2 to make a wonder of a poor drunkard ii. 2 no more dams I'll make for fish ii. 2 (song) and makes me all his pleasures iii. 1 make me have it to iii. 1 and make a stock-fish of thee iii. 2 will make me sleep again iii. 2 your compensation makes amends iv. 1 and makes it half behind iv. 1 to make this contract grow iv. 1 to make cold nymphs chaste crowns iv. 1 make this place Paradise iv. 1 make holiday: your yre straw hats iv. 1 which make it half behind iv. 1 make us strange stuff iv. 1 more pinch-spotted make them iv. 1 the green-sour ringlets make v. 1 whose pastime is to make midnight v. 1 and makeable to make a double loss v. 1 this day makes him to me v. 1 make flows and ebbs v. 1 shall make it go quick away v. 1 will make me cry baa Two Gen. of Verona. i. 1 she makes it strange i. 3
 I shall make known i. 3 so pointed to make her fair ii. 1 which makes me the bolder ii. 1 why, then we'll make exchange ii. 2
 I'll make a most shrewd match ii. 4
 I shall make your wit bankrupt ii. 4

MAKE—if he make this good Two Gen. of Ver. ii. 4 that make rough water everlastingly ii. 4 makes other words nothing ii. 4 I will you make haste ii. 4 that makes me reasonless ii. 4 to make my purpose swift ii. 6 till Proteus make return ii. 7 he makes sweet music with his pipe ii. 7 and make a pastime of each ii. 7 what fashion, madam, shall I make you ii. 7 it will make me scandalized ii. 7 soon at first, make me after-love the more iii. 1 make speed from hence iii. 1 will make me surfeit iii. 1 bid him make haste iii. 1 that won makes the fault iii. 1 makes me the better to confer iii. 2 to make the girl forget iii. 2 make tigers tame iii. 2 we'll make you sick iii. 3 to make a virtue of my love iii. 3 it makes me have a slow heart iii. 3 and make thy love amends iii. 3
 I will make true love iii. 3 an open book to my shadow, as I am iii. 3 where, I hear, he makes to go iii. 3 he makes me no more ado iii. 4 and make water against iii. 4 thinking on it makes me cry alas iii. 4 I can make respective in myself iii. 4 to make my master out of iii. 4 to make it somewhat rounder iii. 2 O sir, she makes no doubt of that v. 2 that makes their wills their law v. 4 let his habit make me no less v. 4 makes him run through all v. 4 to make this happy close v. 4 to make such means for her v. 4 to make your grace to smile Henry VIII. i. 1
 I will make a man of you Henry VIII. i. 1 to make atonements and compromises i. 1 and her father is make her i. 1
 I will make a priest of it i. 1
 I'll make an end of my dinner i. 2 an' of clock make me no less i. 2 to make love to Ford's wife i. 3 make the beds, and do i. 4 priest to meddle or make i. 4 to me difference of men's liking ii. 1 it makes me as mad as the wind ii. 1 and make them his servants! ii. 1 I'll make bold of thy old body ii. 2
 I make bold (rep.) ii. 2 make myself acquainted with you ii. 2 as we will make our pedes iii. 1 (song) one way or other make you amends iii. 1 have you make-a-dee set of us? iii. 1 I'll make him dance iii. 2 and shall make thee iii. 2
 I would make thee my lady iii. 3 thou wouldst make an absolute courtier iii. 3 why then make sport at me iii. 3 make your proof better than your iii. 3
 I will hereafter make known iii. 3
 I shall make two (rep.) iii. 3
 I'll make a shaft, or bolt out iii. 4 he will make you a hundred iii. 4
 I will make you a hundred iii. 4
 I would not, shall not make me take iii. 5 if he loves horns to make one mad iii. 5 to make another experiment iv. 2 but what make you here? iv. 2 but I'll make you a hundred iv. 2 to make us public-spirited iv. 4 and makes milch-kine yield iv. 4 that you make grand preparation iv. 5 I'll make a present recompence iv. 6
 but I'll make you a hundred iv. 6 child of conscience; he makes restitution v. 5 make the fairy o-eyes v. 5 one that makes fritters of English? v. 5 let that go to make amends v. 5 I'll make the best in Gloucestershire v. 5 would not so much as make water. Tureliph Night. i. 3 rather than make unprofitable return i. 4 make that good i. 5
 make your excuse wisely, you were best i. 5 make our proof better than your i. 5 doth ever make the better fool i. 5 one draught above heat makes him i. 5 to make one in so skipping a dialogue i. 5 but since you make me take out for him i. 5 and make the babbling gossip of i. 5 love make his heart of flint i. 5 but shall we make the welkin dance i. 5 do ye make an alehouse of my ii. 3 I'll make a fool of you ii. 3 and make him a common reputation ii. 3 we can hardly make distinction ii. 3 your horse now would make him an ass ii. 3 and let the fool make a third ii. 3 and the tailor make his doublet of ii. 4 that always makes a good voyage ii. 4 make no compare between that love ii. 4 this letter will make a contemplative ii. 5 contemplation makes a rare turkey-cock ii. 5 with an obedient ear, make out for him ii. 5 and thus makes she her true lady ii. 5 if I could make that resemble ii. 5 O ay! make up that ii. 5 and make him cry, O ii. 5 I'll make one to make ii. 5 quickly make them wanton (rep.) iii. 1
 I would it would make you invisible iii. 1 Slight! will you make an ass of me? iii. 2 but since you make me take out for him iii. 2 I do, no answer, make, but thanks iii. 2 this does make some obstruction iii. 2

MAKE me thankful! Twelfth Night, iii. 4 why, we shall make him mad iii. 4
 I will make your peace with iii. 4 I'll make the motion (rep.) iii. 4 a little thing would make me tell iii. 4 now my necessity makes me to ask you iii. 4 I'll make division of my present iii. 4 lest that it make me so unsoond iii. 4 will you make me mad court'ry to iv. 2 make him believe thou art sir iv. 2 make the trial of it in any iv. 2 and make an ass of me v. 1 if your four negatives make you v. 1 I would you could make it another v. 1 such scathful grapple did he make v. 1 that makes thee strangle thy v. 1 to make us happy both v. 1 make us pay down for our offence, Meas. for Meas., i. 3 that she make friends i. 5 for I now must make you know i. 5 sir, make me not your story i. 5 to make him an example i. 5 and make me lose the good we oft i. 5 we must not make a sencerow i. 5 till custom make it their pearl ii. 1 as make the angels weep ii. 2 for those things that make her good? ii. 2 and to make me know the nature ii. 4 to make a false ii. 4
 I'll make it my morn prayer ii. 4 of late to make the law a tyrant ii. 4 as easy broke as they make forms ii. 4 billing the law make court'ry to iii. 1 that makes thee odds all event iii. 1 your best appointment make with speed iii. 1 that thus can make him bite iii. 1 go to your knowledge, that iii. 1 makes beauty brief in goodness iii. 1 I do make myself believe iii. 1 and make fit for his attempt iii. 1 that when he makes water iii. 2 let me desire you to make good provok iii. 2 this would make mercy swear iii. 2 to make societies secure iii. 2 to make fellowships accused iii. 2 which professed to make him rejoice iii. 2 to make bad good iii. 2 but makes his opening with this iv. 1 that make haste; the vaporous night iv. 1 thousand 'scapes of wit make thee iv. 1 when vice makes mercy, mercy's so iv. 2 to make you understand this iv. 2 I may make my case as Claudio's iv. 2 who makes that noise there? iv. 3 make a swift return iv. 3 I'll make all speed iv. 3 to make her heavenly of iv. 3 me quite, makes me unpregnant iv. 4 you make my bonds still greater v. 1 to make them know that outward v. 1 make not your words, that which v. 1 serve to make the truth appear v. 1 as words could make up vows v. 1 ere you make that my report v. 1 and would not rather make rash v. 1 me to it your words, that which v. 1 that will make a voyage with him Much Ado, i. 3 scratching could not make it worse i. 3 not make the full show of this i. 3 but by the fair weather that you make i. 3 to you make good i. 3 make him my waiting gentleman? i. 3 cousin's duty to make court'ry (rep.) ii. 1 not till God make men of some other ii. 1 to make an account of her life to a clod ii. 1 to her, make good ii. 1 did he never make you laugh? ii. 1 either to make him a garland ii. 1 will thou make a trust a transgression? ii. 1 have clef't his club to make the fire too ii. 2 that proof shall I make of that ii. 2 he shall never make me such a fool ii. 3 he would but make a sport of it ii. 3 die ere she make her love known ii. 3 if she should make tender of her love ii. 3 by some large jests he will make me ii. 3 I'll make her come, I warrant you ii. 3 lest she make sport at it iii. 1 and make no boast of it iii. 3 you shall also make no noise iii. 3 if they make you then the better iii. 3 if the less you meddle or make with them iii. 3 poor ones may make what price iii. 3 I dare make his answer, none iv. 1 to make you as goodly as I iv. 1 and I will make him eat it, that says iv. 1 make misfortune drawk with v. 1 make a pish at chance and surffiance v. 1 make those, that do offend you v. 1 I'll make it good, that you v. 1 to make thee a double-dealer v. 1 to tear a cat in, to make all split Mid. N.'s Dr. i. 2 to make a heaven of hell, to die ii. 2 and make her of her fearful fantasies ii. 2 to make my small elves coats ii. 3 so that but one heart we can make of it ii. 3 through thy bosom makes me see ii. 3 I have a device to make all well iii. 1 no, make it two more iii. 1

MAKE me afraid Mid. N.'s Dream, iii. 1 this is to make an ass of me iii. 1 honest neighbours will not make them iii. 1 I shall make bold with you iii. 2 if for his tender here I make you stay iii. 2 the noise they make will cause iii. 2 patience, all to make you sport iii. 2 more quick of apprehension makes iii. 2 could never this make thee know iii. 2 counterfeit sad looks, make mows upon iii. 2 you would not make me such iii. 2 and make his eyeballs roll with wonted iii. 2 notwithstanding, haste; make no delay iii. 2 two of both kind makes up four iii. 2 thus to make poor females mad iii. 2 to make it the more gracious iv. 1

MAKE—to make merry withal. Taming of Shrew, v. 1. subject me to make merry withal. Fresh Winter's Tale, l. 1. to make us say, this is put forth l. 2 of this make no conclusion l. 2 and make us as fat as tame things l. 2 ere I could make thee open thy l. 2 that dost make me possid' this l. 2 and make itself a pastime to harder l. 2 he makes a July's day short as l. 2 you had much ado to make his l. 2 make't thy question, and go rot! l. 2 make me not sighted like l. 2 to his eye, make known how he l. 2 such ado to make no stain a stain l. 2 laugh at me; make their pastime l. 2 and would by count make her good l. 2 that makes but trifles of his eyes l. 2 that makes the fire, not she l. 2 and will ignoble make you, yea l. 2 innocency shall make false accusation l. 2 flies does my deeds make l. 2 at fault; make, when l. 2 make your best haste l. 2 but to make an end of the ship l. 2 that make, and unfold error l. 2 and make stand in the way l. 2 cherish it to make it stay there l. 2 if I make not this cheat bring l. 2 a way to make us better friends l. 2 but nature makes that man l. 2 in an art that makes his own l. 2 and nuke conceive a bark of baser l. 2 then make your garden rich l. 2 O these I lack, to make you garlands l. 2 he tells her something that makes her l. 2 he makes the lust of me indeed l. 2 if you make a care of happy l. 2 and will make her portion equal his l. 2 yea, him too, that makes himself l. 2 make for Sicilia; and there present l. 2 will make an instant of me l. 2 we must make an exchange l. 2 to make me the king's brother-in-law l. 2 will make him scratch his beard l. 2 what will can make heavy l. 2 I'll make it an instant of me l. 2 no fault could you make which l. 2 would make her sainted spirit again l. 2 make proselytes of who she but bid l. 2 follow me, and mark what way I make l. 2 can make a broken heart l. 2 our absence makes us unthrift l. 2 and makes her as she lived now l. 2 what was he, that did make it? l. 2
 O sweet Paulina, make me to think l. 2 I'll make the minute me indeed l. 2 what you can make her do l. 2 easy to make her speak, as move l. 2 ay, and make't manifest where l. 2 or borrow, to make up the sum. Comedy of Err. l. 1 of whom I hope to get comment l. 1 servitude makes you to keep unwe l. 1 make a common of my serious hours l. 1 let foolish gnats make sport l. 1 I'll make you amends next l. 1 lost it make you the hearing of l. 1 stronger state, makes me with thy l. 1 of welcome makes scarce one dainty l. 1 and great welcome, makes a merry l. 1 it would make a man mad l. 1 good sir, make haste l. 1 poor women! make us but believe l. 1 to make it wander in an unknown l. 1 but to make a lamp of her l. 1 therefore make present satisfaction l. 1 Give me the credit of my love l. 1 to make a loathsome abject scorn l. 1 suffer them to make a renene? l. 1 unquiet meals make ill digestion l. 1 to make of him a formal man l. 1 when thou dost make him love l. 1 fear of death doth make me dote l. 1 might make one wiser mad l. 1 age and dangers make thee dote l. 1 I shall have leisure to make good l. 1 and we shall make full satisfaction l. 1 and thrice again, to make up mine Macbeth, l. 1 afraid of what thyself didst make l. 1 and make my seated heart knock l. 1 and make joyful the hearing of l. 1 lest it would make up his message l. 1 make thick my blood l. 1 to make their audit at your l. 1 and yet you would make both l. 1 as we shall make our griefs l. 1 so it will make us mad l. 1 it makes him, and it mars him l. 1 makes him stand to, and not l. 1 I'll make so bold to call l. 1 courage, to make me his low known l. 1 as they would make war with l. 1 that would make good of bad l. 1 to make society the sweeter welcome l. 1 to make them kings, the seed l. 1 to your assistance, make me love l. 1 and make our faces vizards to l. 1 and the crow makes wing to l. 1 begun, make strong themselves l. 1 gate make it their walk l. 1 why do you make such faces? l. 1 but make amends now l. 1 let's make haste; she'll soon l. 1 make the cruel thick and slab l. 1 why yet, I'll make you see l. 1 what had he done, to make him fly l. 1 our fears do make us traitors l. 1 a sauce to make me hunger more l. 1 the means that make us strangers? l. 1 create soldiers, make our women l. 1

MAKE us medicines of our great Macbeth, iv. 3 make our march towards v. 2 your royal preparation make v. 2 and make discovery err in report v. 4 will with due decision make us know v. 4 make all our trumpets speak v. 6 conquest never eanst thou make i. 1 Philipp, make up; my mother i. 2 O this will make my mother die i. 3 and make me know a tongue i. 3 some philosophy to make me i. 3 in this world, can make me joy i. 3 may then make all the claim that i. 3 strong reasons make strong actions i. 3 you will but make it blue and glow i. 3 it makes the course of thoughts i. 2 doth make the fault the worse i. 2 doth make a stand at what i. 2 O make a league with me i. 3 but make me i. 3 while he, that hears, makes fearful i. 2 makes deeds ill done i. 2 I'll make a peace between your i. 2 and make them tame to their i. 2 long travel in it, makes it seem i. 2 and make fair weather in your i. 1 go to I make the French lay i. 1 and make compromise, institution v. 1 the cardinal can not make your peace v. 1 do make an earthquake of v. 2 and makes me more amazed v. 2 and make you take the hatch v. 2 should make me now deceive v. 4 by the title comment that it makes v. 7 to make his bleak winds kiss v. 7 the like tender of our love we make v. 7 nought shall make us rue v. 7 my body shall make good upon (rep.) Richard III, l. 1 not reverence of it makes it except l. 1 by my sceptre's awe I make a vow l. 1 deep malice makes too deep l. 1 lions make leopards tame l. 1 we cannot do to me my friends l. 1 to make the least and most sweet l. 2 in thy god make make thee l. 2 and make us wade even in our l. 2 too strict, to make mine own away l. 2 but grief makes one man from l. 2 every tedious stride I make will l. 2 we will make for Ireland l. 3 shall make coats to deck our l. 3 pray God, we may make haste l. 3 misery makes sport of his l. 3 admonition, make pale our cheek l. 3 duty make me suffer wrong? l. 3 and make high majesty look like l. 3 I think, makes me with heavy nothing l. 3 to make him lose at home l. 3 our miles, and make them wearome l. 3 shall make their way seem short l. 3 my heart this covenant makes l. 3 your presence makes us rich l. 3 before I make reply to aught l. 3 and make you stoop unto the crown l. 3 till you did make him misinterpret l. 3 would they make peace? (rep.) l. 2 make dust our paper, and with raihy l. 2 tired majesty did make thee offer l. 2 every stride he makes upon my l. 2 make foul weather of despised (rep.) l. 2 of heart makes him speak fondly l. 3 to make the base earth proud l. 3

 'twill make me think the world is l. 3 like unruly children, make their sire l. 3 to make a second fall of cursed man? l. 3 few vanities that make him light l. 3 shall I make to this base man? l. 3 tired majesty did make thee offer l. 3 make me, that nothing have l. 3 body of a king; make glory base l. 3 did make beholders wink? l. 3 to make my end too sudden l. 3 together weeping, make one woe l. 3 we make woe wanton with l. 3 make way, unruly woman l. 2 villain, I'll make thee safe l. 3 suppliant makes this eager cry? l. 3 what dost thou make me here? l. 3 but makes one pardon strong l. 3 I pray God make thee new l. 3 it will make wise men mad l. 3 to make misfortune live? l. 3 should sprinkle me, to make me grow l. 3

MAKE a voyage to the Holy Land. Richard II, v. 6 which makes him prune himself Henry IV, i. 1 had, I'll make one (rep.) l. 2 so offend, to make me l. 2 have hold to make so portly l. 3 and make the Douglas's son your only l. 3 to make us strangers to his looks of l. 3 I'll make a fat pair of gallows l. 1 credit sake, make all whole l. 1 and make her their boots l. 1 medicines to make me love him l. 2 there's enough to make us all l. 2 give him as much as will make l. 4 but he would make you believe l. 4 with spear-grass, to make them bleed l. 4 to make mine eyes look red l. 4 a hardy song; you will make him mad l. 1 for thy tongue makes Welsh as l. 1 thy passages of life, make me believe l. 2 make blind itself with foolish l. 2
 I shall make this northern youth l. 2
 I shall make this merry l. 3
 I make as good use of it as many a man l. 3 what will you make a younker of me? l. 3 sugar-candy to make thee long-winded l. 3 of his absence make this use l. 3 can make a bold push against l. 3 this bottle makes an angel l. 2 but sirrah make haste; Percy is l. 2 to make that worse, suffered his l. 3 import, you would make haste l. 4 wisdom makes you fight against him l. 4 infinite do make against it v. 4 let him make a carbonado v. 3 beseech your majesty, make up (rep.) v. 4 I'll make it greater, ere I part v. 4
 I shall make a garland of his v. 4
 I should not make so deaf a show of zeal v. 4 therefore I'll make him sure v. 4 I would make him eat a piece of my v. 4 only, I make fearful musters Henry IV, (induc.) and I make thee rich l. 1 before you said, let us make head l. 1 and make friends with speed l. 1 of rebellion can tell how to make it l. 2 the woe may make some dram l. 2 good thing, to make a fool common l. 2 a good wit will make use of any l. 2 to marry me, and make me my lady l. 1 if a man will make courtiers l. 1 sit alone, I'll be content to sit l. 1 these humble considerations make me out l. 1 you do not make him be hanged l. 2 and make him eat it. 'That's to make l. 2 to make strength stronger l. 3 that makes a still-stand l. 3 you make fat rascals (rep.) l. 4 these villains will make the word l. 4 doth not make thee wrong this l. 4 consider of them; make good speed l. 1 the times make me in level l. 1 will thou make as many holes l. 1 mend him, and make him fit to go l. 2
 I will make him a philosopher's two l. 2
 I make my quarrel in particular l. 1 in case, you make me take a question l. 1 if we can make our peace l. 1 if we do now make our atonement well l. 1 nor a man cannot make him laugh l. 3 makes it apprehensive, quick l. 3 warm it, and make it a little l. 3 should these good news make me sick? l. 4 and make me as the poorest vessel l. 4 which thou must make thy friends l. 4 might make them look too near l. 4 my worldly business makes me l. 4 I should make four dozen such v. 1 royal thoughts, make the case yours v. 2 nothing but eat, and make good cheer v. 3 (song) to make me take this bloody day v. 4 I will make the time of my v. 5 thy noble liver, and make thee rage v. 5 make less thy body, hence v. 5 the man yet, that shall make you great v. 5 good conscience will make any possible (epil.) make you merry with fair Katharine l. 1 and make imaginary puissance Henry I, i. (cho.) and make you long become it l. 2 that make such waste in brief l. 2 there is no bar to make against l. 2 make claim and title to the crown l. 2 with right and conscience, make this l. 2 who will make road upon us with l. 2 and make your chronicle as rich l. 2 armed in their rage, as the boot upon l. 2 shall make all Gallia shake l. 2 we hope to make the sander blush l. 2 to make you friends (rep.) l. 1 he that makes the first thrust l. 1 and of Orleans, make show the world l. 4 his approaches makes as fierce l. 4 he'll make your Paris Louvre l. 4 makes much against my manhood l. 2 the poet is make a most excellent l. 6 would I might make show the world l. 6 I could make as true a boast as that l. 7 our bad neighbour makes us early l. 1 and make a moral of the devil himself l. 1 hath a heavy reckoning to make l. 1 get so, to make us fit to cheer fly l. 1 I will make it my quarrel l. 1 mount them, and make incision in l. 2 may make a peaceful and a sweet l. 3 the empty vessel makes the greatest l. 4 and make them sit at a distance l. 4 how canst thou make me satisfaction? l. 4
 I will make you to-day a squire v. 1
 I say, I will make him eat some v. 2 you must make a circle v. 2 your request shall make me let it pass v. 2

MAKE divorce of their incorporate Henry V. v. 2 glorious star thy soul will make Henry VI. i. 1 will make him burst his lead i. 1 in France for which I am to make i. 1 shall make all Europe quake i. 1 nor money, hath he to make war i. 2 proof I'll of thy valour make i. 2 but to make open proclamation i. 3 best place to make the battery i. 4 and make a quagmire of your i. 4 help Salisbury to make his testament i. 5 herof will make me hide my head i. 5 command the citizens make bonfires i. 6 that we do make our entrance i. 6 mount, or make his grave i. 6 the enemy doth make assault i. 6 make us partakers of a little gain i. 6 in a moment makes them desolate i. 6 or make my ill the advantage i. 6 and makes him roar these iii. 1 our policy must make a breach iii. 2 and make these curse the harvest iii. 2 and we will make make them iii. 2 in favour, makes him lag iii. 3 or nature makes me suddenly iii. 3 thy friendship makes us fresh iii. 3 what makes you thus exclaim? iii. 3 and make the sword stand iii. 3 and wrathful fury, makes me weep iii. 3 to make a bastard and a slave iii. 3 young Talbot's valour makes fear iii. 3 that shall make all France afraid iii. 3 I'll either make the tower and bend iii. 3 the tongue, and makes the senses rough iii. 3 before thou make a trial of her iii. 3 I'll undertake to make thee Henry's iii. 3 what answer makes you to this iii. 3 make this marriage to be solemnized iii. 3 country where you make abode iii. 3 would make a volume of enticing iii. 3 to seek a queen to make him rich iii. 3 makes me the better to be iii. 3 makes me, from wondering iii. 3 then let's make haste away iii. 3 pirates may make cheap iii. 3 and make a show of love to proud iii. 3 I'll make him feel the weight of iii. 3 this night doth make me sad iii. 3 that shall make answer to such iii. 3 St. Albans we do make return iii. 3 make merry, man (rep.) iii. 3 we make but words of his iii. 3 would make these quickly hop iii. 3 before we make election, give me iii. 3 we make your grace lord regent iii. 3 we will make fast within iii. 3 blessed for the peace that iii. 3 make up no factious numbers for iii. 3 shall one day make the duke of York iii. 3 shall live to make the earl of Warwick iii. 3 when he please to make communion iii. 3 if my death might make this island iii. 3 and all to make away my guiltless life iii. 3
 'twill make them cool in zeal iii. 3 to make the fox surveyor of the fold? iii. 3 make commotion, as full iii. 3 will make him say I'm moved iii. 3 and make my image but an alchouse iii. 3 but to make my sorrow greater? iii. 3 my sovereign's presence makes me mild iii. 3 I'll make the beggar's thy iii. 3 makes them thus forward in iii. 3 might make the sleep eternal iii. 3 two of you; the devil make a third iii. 3 scritch-owls make the concert full iii. 3 that makes him say I'm moved iii. 3 can I make men live, wh'er they iii. 3 pangs of death do make him grin iii. 3 make signal of thy hope; he dies (rep.) iii. 3 here shall they make their ransom iii. 3 his make, make boot of this iii. 3 not this make thee be bloody-minded iii. 3 and let it make thee crest-fallen iii. 3 small things make base men proud iii. 3 to make dog's leather of iii. 3 and I will make it felony iii. 3 nay, he can make obligations iii. 3 I will make myself a knight presently iii. 3 and makes it fearful and degenerate iii. 3 that answer makes your grace iii. 3 which makes me hope you are not iii. 3 and that will make 'em red again iii. 3 if when you make your prayers iii. 3 I will make shift for one; and so iii. 3 and make the meanness of you carls iii. 3 should make a man's brow like iii. 3 and makes them leave me desolate iii. 3 my sword make way for me iii. 3 treasons, makes me betake me iii. 3 but retired, to make him strong? iii. 3 I'll make thee a man of iii. 3
 I'll warrant, they'll make it good iii. 3 makes him oppose himself iii. 3 heavens do make their minister iii. 3 I hope thereof more to be iii. 3 to make a shambles of the parliament iii. 3 which makes thee thus presumptuous iii. 3 that seeks to make them foes iii. 3 but to make thy sepulchre iii. 3 that makes his teeth his eyes iii. 3 do make me wipe off both iii. 3 did Richard make a lane to me iii. 3 are numbered that make up my life iii. 3 with makes him deaf iii. 3 come make him stand upon iii. 3 grieves, to make me merry, York iii. 3 and I, to make thee mad, do iii. 3 I see, to make me sport iii. 3 let's hear the maddest he makes iii. 3 proud queen, to make thee blush iii. 3

MAKE—doth oft make women proud Henry VI. i. 4 make them most admired (rep.) i. 4 is to make less the depth of grief i. 4 and short talk to make us i. 4 thy glories, makes me speak i. 4 here I'll make my royal choice i. 4 more than I dare make faults i. 4 I'll make of your prayers one sweet i. 4 no black envy shall make any grave i. 4 will make them one of your i. 4 good lady, make yourself mirth i. 4 which makes me a little happier i. 4 for those you make friends i. 4
 I'll make you know your times i. 4
 I'll make thee curse the deed i. 4 my legs, make them your president i. 4 soft courage makes your followers faint i. 4 that durst make you stay i. 4 I'll make thee curse the deed i. 4 to make this shameless cat know i. 4 you longer, make we hence again i. 4 how many make the hour full i. 4 stay not to expostulate, make speed i. 4 and what makes robbers bold i. 4 effuse of blood doth make me faint i. 4 this covert will we make our stand i. 4 her sighs will make a battery i. 4 entreally shall not make you guilty i. 4 but yet I'll make a pain i. 4 I'll make my heaven (rep.) i. 4 to make an envious mountain i. 4 the jointure that your king must make i. 4 by this alliance to make void my suit i. 4 I'll make king Lewis know i. 4 had he none else to make a stale i. 4 what answer makes king Lewis unto i. 4 and make prepare for war i. 4 what makes you in this sudden change? i. 4 that shall make me my bride i. 4 this hour, he make his way i. 4 I make you both protectors i. 4 make much of him, my lords i. 4 find means to make the body follow i. 4 then we'll make our claim i. 4 fellow-soldier, make thou proclamation i. 4 that makes small brooks i. 4 or did he make the jest against i. 4 I will make amends; and, Richard i. 4 that makes me make a fool i. 4 and make him of like spirit to i. 4 the wolf, that makes this spoil i. 4 satisfaction canst thou make i. 4 to make a bloody supper in i. 4 reason, that makes me make haste i. 4 let hell make crooked my mind i. 4 the readiest way to make the wench i. 4 that makes us wretched by this i. 4 I'll make a case of him that disobeys i. 4 that makes me no excuse i. 4 brook it ill, it makes him worse i. 4 God make your majesty joyful as i. 4 he desires to make atonement between i. 4 and myself makes him to send i. 4 I'll God, that makes my wings i. 4 that will I make, before I let i. 4 as ours by murder, to make him a king! i. 4 O let me make the period to i. 4 makes the night morning i. 4 I'll make a coward of his i. 4 insinuate with thee, but to make thee i. 4 device! and make a spot of him i. 4 make peace with God (rep.) i. 4 and make me happy in your unity i. 4 to make the blessed period of i. 4 to make an act of tragic violence i. 4 and make me die a good old man i. 4 untimely storms make men expect i. 4 are slow and weedy, make us haste i. 4 conquerors, make war upon themselves i. 4 good lords, make all the speedy haste i. 4 to make his valour live; death makes i. 4 an easy matter to make William lord i. 4 who made me a man of i. 4 and make pursuit, where he did mean i. 4 ere a fortnight make me older i. 4 the princes both make high account i. 4 make haste, the hour of death is expiate i. 4 make me more forward in i. 4 make a short shift, he longs i. 4 he would make his son heir to the crown i. 4 listed to make his prey i. 4 on that ground I'll make a holy descent i. 4 and make, no doubt, us happy i. 4 O make them joyful, grant their i. 4 make me die the thrall of Margaret's i. 4 and makes her pew-fellow with others' i. 4 English woe shall make me soile i. 4 bettering thy loss makes the bad-caster i. 4 thy woe will make them sharp i. 4 to make the earth my hell i. 4 when avoided grace makes destiny i. 4 use of grief makes will, grief tame i. 4 to make her queen of England (rep.) i. 4 to make amends, I'll give (rep.) i. 4 make bold her bashful years i. 4 can make seen pleasing to i. 4 greatest strength and power he can make i. 4 to make her queen of England, here to i. 4 inflame you, it will make you mad, i. 1 then make a ring about the core, i. 1 we must strain to make head, i. 1 make gallant show and promise of, i. 2 abler than yourself to make conditions, i. 3 and make your bondmen tremble, i. 3 make your vaunting true, i. 3 Brutus makes mine greater, i. 3 mother gave me, makes me forgetful? i. 3 of your philosophy you make no use, i. 3 by them shall make a fuller, i. 3 make forth, the generals would have, i. 3 what I will make us use, i. 3 that make to him on the spur, i. 3 what ill request did Brutus make, i. 3 can but make a fire of him, i. 3 this foolish compounded clay, man i. 2 as if he had writ man ever since i. 2 and if a man is thorough with i. 2 did I say you were an honest man? i. 2 all the other gifts appertinent to man i. 2 a man can no more separate i. 3 the utmost man of expectation i. 2 neither woman, man, nor child i. 1 what man of good temper would i. 1 if thou wert an honest man i. 1 if a man will make court'sy i. 1 let the end try the man i. 2 it would be every man's thought (rep.) i. 2 what a maidenly man's arms i. 2 every man must be a man i. 2

 I will bar no honest man my house i. 4 than will do me good, for no man's i. 4 where Trigon, his man, be not i. 4 the man of action is called on i. 4 and fruer-hearted man,—well, fare i. 4 this Percy was the man nearest i. 1 a man may prophecy, with a near i. 1 Will Squele, a Cotswold man i. 2 it would have done i. 2
 I knew him a good backwards man i. 2 when a man is, as they say (rep.) i. 2 but if he had been a man's tailor (rep.) i. 2 a man can die but once; we owe i. 2 no man's too good to serve his prince i. 2 a man? care I for the limb (rep.) i. 2 give me this man; he presents no i. 2 like a mau made after supper i. 2 to see you here an iron man, cheering i. 2 that man, that sits with me, they'll i. 2 try our fortunes to the last man i. 2 as good a man as he, sir, who'er i. 3 nor a man cannot make him laugh i. 3 of this little kingdom, man, to arm i. 3 an honest man, sir, is able (rep.) i. 3

MAN—no man could better command. 2Henry IV. v. 1 though no man be assured what. v. 2 that have a man so bold, that dares v. 2 had been a man of this mettle v. 3 then say an old man can do somewhat v. 3 which blows no man to good v. 3 deliver them like a man of this world v. 3 Harry the fifth's the man v. 3 let us take any man's horses v. 3 there hath been a man v. 4 for the man is dead, that you and Pistol v. 4 thou thin man in a censer! v. 4 speak to that vain man v. 5
 I know thee not, old man v. 5
 I dreamed of such a kind of man v. 5
 I will be the man yet, that shall v. 5 and this is not the man; my tongue (epil.) thousand parts divide one man. Henry V. i. (chorus) [Col. King] when the man dies, let the i. 2 the state of man in divers functions i. 2 plodded like a man for working-days i. 2 let every man now task his i. 2
 In the breast of every man ii. (chorus) endure cold as another man's sword ii. 1 show the valour of a man, and put up ii. 2 nay, but the man that was his ii. 2 if each man do his best ii. 2 enlarge the man committed (rep.) ii. 2 and this man may be for the work ii. 2 to mark the full-fraught man ii. 2 is like another fall of man ii. 2 if ever man went to Arthur's bosom ii. 3 what, man! be of good cheer ii. 3 there's nothing in securities ii. 3 could not be a man to me ii. 3 anticks do not amount to a man ii. 3 never broke any man's head but ii. 3 as well as any military man in ii. 3 being as good as a man (rep.) ii. 3 and a man that I love and honour ii. 3 and he is a man of no estimation ii. 3 here comes the man. Captain ii. 3 let man go free, and let not lemp ii. 3 he is not the man that we work ii. 3 the duke is a brave man ii. 3 the duke hath lost never a man ii. 3 if your majesty know the man ii. 3 nay, the man hath no wit ii. 3 the king is but a man (rep.) iv. 1 no man should possess him with iv. 1
 'tis certain, every man that dies ill iv. 1 wish not one man more (rep.) iv. 3 we would not die in that man's company iv. 3 shall the good man teach his son iv. 3 perish the man, whose mind iv. 3 the man, that once did sell the iv. 3 not so much of a man as I iv. 3 and not a man of them, that we iv. 7 as your majesty is an honest man iv. 7 if any man challenge this iv. 7
 I would fain see the man iv. 7
 I met this man with my glove iv. 8 appeared to me but as a common man iv. 8 de tongues of mans is full of v. 2 as man and wife, being two v. 2 what say'st thou, man, before dead. 1Henry VI. i. 2 a third man that without i. 2 I'll ne'er fly from a man i. 4 a baser man of arms by far i. 4 O lord, have mercy on me, woful man i. 4 she hath beheld the man whose ii. 3 is this the man? ii. 3 dare no man answer in a case ii. 4 it will glimmer thro' a blind man's eye ii. 4 even like a man new haled ii. 5 more than will become a man ii. 5 to be a man just and upright iii. 1 twit with cowardice a man half dead iii. 2 as good a man as York iii. 4 ill beseeching any common man iv. 1 no simple man that sees this iv. 2 a breathing valiant man iv. 2 sell every man his life as dear iv. 2 the cause I cannot aid the man iv. 3 that ever-living man of memory iv. 3 a man of great authority in v. 1 Charles the Dauphin is a proper man v. 3 fond man! remember, thou hast v. 3 sure the man is mad v. 3 you have surnamed this man v. 4 a married man's heart v. 4 but privilege of a private man v. 4 than a man of the church. 2Henry VI. i. 1 were I a man, a duke, and next i. 2 may, fear not man, we are alone i. 2 what say'st thou, man? But the man i. 2 make merry, man, with thy i. 2 for he's a good man! Jesu i. 3 my lord cardinal's man, for i. 3 York is needest man to be your i. 3 is most unmet of any man i. 3 because here is a man accused of i. 3 this is the man that doth accuse his i. 3 say, man, were these thy words? i. 3 do not cast upon the honest man i. 3 the apte of man prevaileth against me i. 3 yea, man and birds, are fain of i. 3 had not your man put up ii. 1 a blind man at a bank. 1Ban's (rep.) ii. 2 the greatest man in England ii. 2 in the Isle of Man (rep. ii. 4) ii. 3 the armourer and his man ii. 3 drink, and fear not your man ii. 3 as it were, upon the honest man's ii. 3 and myself an honest man ii. 3 not his wont to be the hindmost man iii. 1 Humphrey is no little man in England iii. 1 Gloster is a man unsounded yet iii. 1 the cutting short that fraudulent man iii. 1

MAN—wrong, nor no man wrong. 2Henry VI. iii. 1 no man alive so fain as I iii. 1 fear like with the mean-born man iii. 1 didst ever hear a man so penitent? iii. 2 woe is me for Gloster, wretched man! iii. 2 full ghastly like a strangled man iii. 2 that no man should disturb your iii. 2 a cunning man did calculate iv. 1 a honest man, and a good playster iv. 2 scribbled'er, should undo a man? iv. 2 and I was never mine own man since iv. 2 the man is a proper man iv. 2 like an honest plain-dealing man iv. 2 shall be encountered with a man as good iv. 2 why dost thou quiver, man? iv. 7 not amiss to cool a man's stomach iv. 10 to combat a poor famished man iv. 10 she hath lost her best man iv. 10 arr! thou the man that slew him v. 3 can brook I bow a knee to man v. 1 is the man grown mad? v. 1 to rob a man, to force a spotless v. 1 an wretched man! would I had died. 3Henry VI. i. 3 hated both of God and man i. 3 he is a man, and Clifford, cope with him i. 3 why art thou patient, man? i. 4 and tho' man's face be fearful ii. 2 ye're a mortal man may live ii. 2 this man, who stand to haught ii. 5 to some man else, as this dead man ii. 5 being the earl of Warwick's man ii. 5 weep, wretched man, for the ii. 5 [Cous.] man, for the loss of thee iii. 1 here comes a man, let's stay iii. 1 not a man comes for redress iii. 1 a man at least iii. 1
 do I not breathe a man? iii. 1 to the man that look'd like iii. 2 am I then a man to be belov'd? iii. 2 become a banished man iii. 3 each man take his stand iv. 3 nay, this way, man iv. 5 my brother, I abhorred thee iv. 7 the good old man would fain iv. 7 surly Warwick mans the wall v. 1 naked, foil a man at arms v. 4 suspect a fearful man v. 4 he was a man v. 4 and many an old man's sigh v. 6 and that good man of worship. Richard III. i. 1 there is no man secure i. 1 that no man shall have private i. 1 we speak no treason, man i. 2 know't! no law of God nor man i. 2 vouchsafe, diffused infection of a man i. 2 then man was never true i. 2 myself to be a marvellous proper man i. 2 who loves not me i. 3 cannot a plain man live i. 3 no man but prophesied revenge i. 3 as I am a christian faithful man i. 4 a man a coward; a man cannot (rep.) i. 4 a man as you are. But no i. 4 spurn at his edict, and fulfil a man's? i. 4 and no man in the presence ii. 1 but he, poor man, by your first ii. 1 my brother killed no man ii. 1 and not a man of you had ii. 1 not a man would speak ii. 1 and make me die a good old man! ii. 2 reason almost with a man that ii. 3 more can you distinguish of ii. 3 that Julius Caesar was a famous man ii. 3 an' if I live until I be a man ii. 3 chop off his head, man ii. 3 where is your boar-spear, man? ii. 2 I'll give man, His sword ii. 2 when I met his holy man, the men ii. 4 than my lord Hastings, no man might ii. 4 there's ne'er a man in Christendom ii. 4 that with no man here he is offended ii. 4 so dear I loved the man, that I ii. 5 true ornaments to know a holy man ii. 7 I partly know the man iv. 2 by the man that slew her brothers iv. 4 away alone, no man knows whither iv. 4 every man's conscience is a thousand v. 2 every man unto his charge v. 3 enacts more wonders than a man v. 4 a man may weep upon his. Henry VIII. (prol.) every man, that stood, showed (prol.) I'll give man, His sword i. 1 every man, after the hideous i. 1 not a man in England can advise i. 1 free pardon to each man that i. 2 this man so complete, who was i. 2 here's man in this man i. 2 in freedom, and this man out of prison? i. 2 the noble ruined man you speak of ii. 1 this from a dying man receive ii. 1 a man of my lord cardinal's ii. 2 (letter) slept upon this bold bad man ii. 2 or this imperious man will work ii. 2 this good man, this just and learned ii. 2 such a man I would have wished for ii. 2 in this man's place before him (rep.) ii. 2 kept him a foreign man ii. 2 grieve an able man, to leave so ii. 2 that man 'if the world, who shall ii. 4 like a good man, your late censur ii. 1 the prime man of the state ii. 2 went beyond all man's endeavours ii. 2 and no man see me more ii. 2 dare make a sounder man than ii. 2 I could despise this man, but that I ii. 2 press not a falling man too far ii. 2 this is the state of man (rep.) ii. 2 wonder, a great man should decline? ii. 2 too heavy for a man that hopes ii. 2 but he's a learned man ii. 2

MAN—I am a poor fallen man. Henry VIII. iii. 2 how can man then, the image iii. 2 that ever lay by man iv. 1 no man living could say iv. 1 a man in much esteem iv. 1 as a man sorely tainted iv. 2 alas, poor man! at last iv. 2 an old man, broken with iv. 2 he was a man of a painted iv. 2 greater honours to his age iv. 2 or let me lose the fashion of a man! iv. 2 tongues, than I myself, poor man v. 1 what manner of man are you? v. 1 look, the good man weeps v. 2 to suffer man of his place v. 2 childish pity to one man's honour v. 2 a man that more detests v. 2 no man dare accuse you v. 2 being but a private man again v. 2
 'tis a cruelty to load a falling man v. 2 of this man to be vexed! v. 2 against this man, (whose honesty v. 2 good man, sit down (rep.) v. 4 every man shall eat in safety v. 4 thou hast made me now a man v. 2 this day, no man think he has v. 4 he is a very man, per se (rep.) Troilus & Cres. i. 2 Hector's a gallant man i. 2 Troil is the best man i. 2 he is so young a man, and so old i. 2 better than any man in all Phrygia i. 2 an 'were a man born in April i. 2 Zenas; is not that a brave man? i. 2 and he's a man of worth enough i. 2 I brave man? O a brave man! (rep.) i. 2 do you know what a man is? i. 2 season a man? Ay, a ruined (rep.) i. 2 one that was eaten by Hector's (rep.) i. 3 a man distilled out of our virtues i. 3 in taint of our best man (rep.) i. 3 what's the matter, man? ii. 1 no man is beaten voluntary ii. 1 though no man should be a Greek ii. 1 propagation there is in one man's ii. 3 he is a privileged man; proceed ii. 3 if you will favour the man ii. 3 a better man than I am? ii. 3 why would you be so? (rep.) ii. 3 here is a man,—but 'tis before ii. 3 I wished myself a man ii. 3 wise, and love, exceeds man's might ii. 2 and are the proud man's fees ii. 3 no great man, for he's a man ii. 3 that man—how dearly ever parted ii. 3 that no man is the lord of anything ii. 3 heavens, what a man is there! ii. 3 how one man eats into another's ii. 3 thou great man, thou great man ii. 3 than an effeminate man in ii. 3 the man's undone for ever ii. 3 what think you of this man ii. 3 a man may wear it on both sides ii. 3 no man as yet can give ii. 5 a naughty man, let it sleep? iv. 2 you're an odd man; give even (rep.) iv. 5 gentle, and too free a man iv. 5 if an old man embraces thee iv. 5 proud man, to know such a man iv. 5 any man at first sight. And any man v. 2 never did young man fancy v. 2 a better man holds dear; but (rep.) v. 3 how now, young man, what's that v. 3 better 'tis a lion than a man v. 3 that, unless a man were cursed v. 3 much more a fresher man, had I v. 6 this is the man I seek v. 9 great Hector would have made me Timon of Athens. i. 1 a most incomparable man, Timon of Athens. i. 1 shaped out a man, whom this i. 1 with one man beckoned from i. 1 call the man before thee i. 1
 I am a man that from my i. 1 this man of thine attempts i. 1 the man is honest i. 1 almost the natural man; for since (rep.) i. 1 which will not cost a man a doit i. 1 the strain of man's bred out into i. 1 that ever governed man i. 1 a humour there does not become a man i. 2 but yond' man's ever angry i. 2 dip their meat in one man's blood i. 2 is the deadliest morsel for man i. 2 a huge man, I should fear to drink i. 2 which ne'er left man 'if the mire i. 2 I pray for no man but myself (rep.) i. 2 (grace) that man might ne'er be wretched i. 2 that man go in i. 2
 nor thou altogether a wise man ii. 2
 I prythee, man, look cheerly ii. 1 every man has his fault, and honesty ii. 1 denied that he's a man ii. 2
 O see the monstrousness of man ii. 2
 I was the first man that e'er received ii. 3 when he made man politic ii. 3 the villanies of man will set ii. 3 he is a man, setting his fate aside ii. 5 the worst that man can breathe ii. 5 but who is man, that is not angry? ii. 5 every man here's so. What would ii. 6 this is the old man still ii. 6 he's a man to his stoic ii. 6 lend to each man enough (rep.) iii. 6 (grace) of man, and beast, the infinite ii. 6 be of Timon, man, and all humanity! ii. 6 when man's worst sin is, he does iv. 2 and say, 'this man is a better?' iv. 2 showing me again the eyes of man iv. 3 is man so hateful to thee (rep.) iv. 3 with man's blood paint the ground iv. 3 a man! if thou dost perform (rep.) iv. 3

MAN—in hollow bones of man. Timon of Athens, iv. 3 being sick of man's unkindness. iv. 3 more brittle than ingrateful man (rep.) iv. 3 more man? plague! plague! iv. 3 what man didst thou ever know iv. 3 think, thy slave man rebels. iv. 3 so miserable, but a man may be true iv. 3 despised and ruin'd man my lord's. iv. 3 when man was wish'd to love. iv. 3 if thou grant'st thou'rt man. iv. 3 I ne'er had honest man about me. iv. 3 surely, this man was born of woman. iv. 3 I do proclaim one honest man (rep.) iv. 3 ne'er see thou man, and let me ne'er iv. 3 not paint a man so bad as thyself. v. 1 each man apart, all single. v. 1 which looks like man, is friendly with v. 2 the former man may make him. v. 2 this man was riding from Alcibiades v. 3 there does not live a man. v. 4 not a man shall pass his quarter. v. 4 the cranks and offices of man. v. 5 a sick man's appetite, who desires. Coriolanus, i. 1 ever man so proud as is this Marcius? i. 1 perform to the utmost of a man. i. 1 I'm seeing he had proved himself a man i. 3 it more becomes a man, than gilt. i. 3 no, nor a man that fears you less. i. 4 there is the man of my soul's hate. i. 5 tongue from every meaner man's. i. 6 with a man's heart, I'm breathing i. 9 in Corioli, at a poor man's house. i. 9 no more of him; he is a worthy man i. 9 if it be, the man I speak of cannot i. 12 he proved best man i' the field. i. 12 why man! that changes his mind? i. 12 so soon out as another man's will. i. 13 there was never a worthier man. i. 13 the bewitchment of some popular man i. 13 go without any honest man's voice. i. 13 no matters? that's true, but is it? i. 13 no; no man saw 'em. He said. i. 13 not a man of their infirmity. i. 13 this man has marred his fortune. i. 13 the city, and be every man himself. i. 13
 I say the man's true (rep.) i. 13 thy tears are saltier than a younger man's i. 13 to seek a single man. i. 13 was not a man my father! i. 13 good man, the woman's fault. i. 13 the fittest time to corrupt a man's wife i. 13 and am the man, I think, that shall i. 13 speak, man; what's thy name? i. 13 dost not think me for the man I am. i. 13 never man eicher, but I'm sure i. 13 he is simply the rarest man i' the world i. 13
 I had as lief be a condemned man. i. 13 as any man I can imagine. i. 13 crest up again, and the man in blood i. 13 nature, that changes his mind? i. 13 ever taints the happy man. i. 13 this man, Aufidius, was my beloved. i. 13 this last old man, whom with i. 13 as if a man were author of himself. i. 13 can alter the conductor. i. 13 is grown from man to dragon. i. 13 as with a man by his own aims. i. 13 the man is noble, and his fame i. 13 which this man's life did owe you. i. 13 what man is that? A soldier? Julius Cæsar, i. 2 and this man is now become a god. i. 2 a man of such a feeble temper. i. 2 why, man, he doth bestride the i. 2 there is in it but one only man. i. 2
 I do not know no man I should call i. 2
 I am no true man. What said he i. 2 an I had been a man of any i. 2 name to thee a man most like. i. 2 a man no mightier than myself. i. 2 poor man! I know, he would not i. 2 and to such a man, there is no fleeing i. 2 the man entire, upon the next. i. 2 shall Rome stand under one man's awe? i. 2 and the state of man, like to a little. i. 2 yes, every man of 'em; and no man i. 2 and every man hence to his idle bed i. 2 till each man drop by lottery. i. 2 shall no man else be touched. i. 2 sometime hath his hour with every man i. 2 here is a sick man, that would. i. 2 I have a man's mind. i. 2 will crowd a feeble man almost. i. 2 do so; and let no man abide. i. 2 every man of 'em. A soldier? i. 2 shall be as strong as any man's. i. 2 let each man render me his bloody hand i. 2 the ruins of the noblest man. i. 2 not a man depart, save I alone. i. 2
 But us is an honest man. i. 2 there's not a nobler man in Rome. i. 2 a plain blunt man, that love i. 2 he gives, to every several man. i. 2 a married man, or a bachelor (rep.) i. 2 this is a slight man. i. 2 lay these honours on this man. i. 2 and let no man come to our tent. i. 2 because I knew the man. i. 2 the foremost man of all this world. i. 2 away, slight man! it's possible. i. 2 no man bears sorrow better. i. 2 young man, thou couldst not die i. 2 O that a man might know. i. 2 more tears to do death. i. 2 keep this man safe, give him i. 2 I found no man, but he was true i. 2 what man is that? My master's man i. 2 and no man else hath honour by i. 2 say to all the world, 'tis man. i. 2 alike feeds beast as man. Antony & Cleopatra, i. 1

MAN—is this the man? Is't you, sir. Antony & Cleo. i. 2 to see a handsome man loose-wiv'd. i. 2 that man from Sicily. i. 2 she is cunning just as my thought. i. 2 of a man from him, it shows to man. i. 2 you shall find there a man, who is in. i. 2 and the ebbed man, ne'er loved. i. 4
 'tis the man; but not him. i. 4 so does it no man else. i. 4 paragon again my man of men. i. 5 with snakes, not like a formal man. i. 5 thou'rt an honest man. i. 5 the man is innocent. i. 5 they would have one man but a man? i. 6 a man prepared to take this offer. i. 6 I will praise any man that will praise i. 6 best this vice in man. i. 7 am the man will give thee. i. 7 the third part of the world, man. i. 7 the holding every man shall bear. i. 7 so is he, being a man. i. 7 a proper man, indeed, he is not. i. 7 the man hath seen some majesty. i. 7 strange news come, sir. What man. i. 7 will appear there for a man. i. 7 well I know the man. i. 7 thou'rt must to young man send. i. 7 a private man in Athens. i. 10 the bidding of the fullest man. i. 11 leave thee now, like a man of steel. i. 4 as it had been each man's like. i. 8 behold, man, a thing less owns. i. 6 what man is this? stand close. i. 9 best force is forth to man his galleys i. 10
 'tis said, man; and farewell. i. 12 wilt thou not answer, man? i. 12 the best man that I know. i. 1 might see but such another man! v. 2 such a man as this I dreamed off. v. 2 wert thou a man, thou wouldst. v. 2 this is the man. Avoid, and leave him v. 2 you do not see the man. Cymbeline, i. 1 alack, good man! and therefore banish'd i. 1 stuff within, endows a man but he. i. 1 truly read, what kind of man he is. i. 1 tenderness than doth become a man. i. 2 he is a man, worth any woman. i. 2 desire my man's abode where I. i. 7 that man,—who knows by history. i. 1 was there ever man had such luck! i. 1 and I must be content to lose myself. i. 1 the most patient man in loss (rep.) i. 3 gold, which makes the true man (rep.) i. 3 love, where there's another man. i. 4 that most venerable man, which I. i. 5 that this man, worth any woman. i. 5 one that rode to his execution, man. i. 5
 I see before me, man, nor here i. 2 Pisanio! man! where is Posthumus? i. 4 speak, man! thy tongue. i. 4 a riched man, a thing most i. 5 and an almost a man already. i. 5 that man of hers, Pisanio. i. 5
 I would think thee an honest man. i. 5
 I see, a man's life is a tedious one. i. 6 he is a man; I'll love him as a man. i. 6 for a man and his glass to confer. i. 6 so man and man should be. i. 6 the man that gave them thee. i. 6 I mean, to man, he had not. i. 2 what man is that? I'll love him as a man. i. 2 this bloody man the case on't. i. 2 a headless man! i. 2 that I never did see man die? i. 2 an old man, and two boys! v. 3
 an old man, and two boys! v. 3 the old man and his sons were (rep.) v. 3
 'tween man and man, they weigh not v. 4 upon once he was mature for man. v. 4 what man is that? I'll love him as a man. v. 4 that a man should have the best use v. 4 unless a man would marry a gallows v. 4 strive, man, and speak. v. 5 qualities that man loves woman for. v. 5 that headless man I thought had. v. 5 this man is better than the man he slew v. 5 indeed, a banished man. v. 5 no man shed tears for noble Mutius. Titus And. i. 2 beholden to the man that brought. i. 2 take up this good old man as. i. 2 what, man! more water glideth by. i. 1 where never man's eye may behold. i. 3 upon the dead man's earthy checks. i. 4 that man's face can fold. i. 4 what man is that? I'll love him as a man. i. 4 why, 'tis no matter, man. i. 1 happy man! they have befriended thee i. 1 stands my other son, a banished man i. 1 for thou, poor man, hast drowned. i. 1 the man's best man that ever. i. 1 no man should be mad but I. i. 1 alas, poor man! i. 2 that if I were a man i. 1 can you hear a good man groan. i. 2 the old man that found this man. i. 2 then let no man, but I, do execution i. 2 and leave you not a man of war. i. 3 for the man must not be hanged. i. 3 when I have as much like a private man i. 3 the man think needful of the man. i. 3 as kill a man, or else devise. v. 1 know thou, sad man, I am not. v. 2 find'st a man that's like thyself. v. 2 tell us, old man, how shall we. v. 2 or more than any living man could. v. 3 come, come, thou reverend man of Rome v. 3 no funeral rite, nor man in mournful v. 3 assuming man's infirmities. Pericles, i. (Gover) 1 to hear an old man sing. i. (Gover) 1 ye gods that made me man. i. 1

MAN—he's no man on whom perfections. Pericles, i. 1 to make man his lawful music. i. 1 is wronged by man's oppression. i. 1 if a king did a man be a villain. i. 3 that man and I. i. 2 where each man thinks all is writ. ii. (Gover) 1 all perishes of men, of self. ii. (Gover) 1 earthly man is but a substance that. ii. 1 why, man? Because he should have ii. 1 a man whom the waters and the wind ii. 1 a man shrunk up with cold. ii. 1 for I am a man, pray see me buried. ii. 1 and what a man cannot get. ii. 1 like a poor man's right in the law. ii. 1 seas, that spare not any man. ii. 1 outward habit by the inward man. ii. 2 see, not a man in private. ii. 4 and a man whom I am bound to. ii. 4 the former, making a man and wife. ii. 5 what else, man? ii. 3 have you that a man may deal. ii. 6 note, this is an honourable man. ii. 6 and a man whom I am bound to. ii. 6 where a man may serve seven years. ii. 6 this is the man that can, in night. v. 1 a man, who for this three months. v. 1 that art a man, and I have suffered. v. 1 can you remember what I call'd you? v. 3 this man, through whom the gods. v. 3 what wouldst thou do, old man? Leary, i. 2 an admirable evasion of whoremaster man. i. 2 at an honest man, if there be. i. 2 idle old man, that wilt work me. i. 4 how now, who art thou? A man, sir. i. 4 this man hath had good counsel. i. 4 if a man's brains were in his heels. i. 5 that art a man cannot smell out. i. 5 put him on the old man's death. i. 2 a tailor make a man? i. 2 put upon him such a deal of man. i. 2 a good man's fortune, may grow out i. 2 an attempt of man's malice. i. 3 when a man is over-lustful. i. 4 having more than wit. i. 4 when a wise man gives thee. i. 4 and let the wise man fly. i. 4 dost thou understand me, man? i. 4 and sickly fit for the sound man. i. 4 who put man i' the stocks? (rep.) i. 4 man's life is cheap as beast's. i. 4 a poor old man, as full of grief as age. i. 4 water-drops, that fall from man's i. 4 the old man and his people cannot. i. 4 followed the old man forth. i. 4 in his little world of man to outdoom. i. 1 one, that make Ingrateful man. i. 2 weak, and despised old man. i. 2 the man that makes his toe. iii. 2 (song) 2 that's a wise man, and a fool. iii. 2 since I was man, such sheets of fire. iii. 2 a man's nature cannot crack his affliction iii. 2 and thou similar man of virtue. iii. 2 hast practised on man's life! iii. 2 I am a man, more sinned against. iii. 2 commit not with man's sworn. iii. 4 unaccommodated man, no more. iii. 4 poor banished man! iii. 4
 I smell the blood of a British man. iii. 4 (song) 6 thou robbed man of justice. iii. 6 if this man come to good. iii. 7 which made me mad. iii. 7 good man (Col. Kent—good man's son) iii. 7 let the superfluous, and lust-dieted man iv. 1 undo excess, and each man have enough iv. 1 never man so changed. iv. 2 O the difference of man's man. iv. 2 and a gracious aged man. iv. 2 a man, a prince, by him so benefited? iv. 2 milk-livered man! iv. 2 what can man's life be worth? iv. 4 remediate in the good man's distress. iv. 4 well worth a poor man's taking. iv. 6
 I took it for a man. iv. 6
 I pardon that man's life. iv. 6 a man may see how this world goes. iv. 6 this would make a man, a man of sale. iv. 6 a most poor man, made tame by iv. 6 nay, come not near the old man. iv. 6
 I am a very foolish fond old man. iv. 7
 I should know you, and know this man! iv. 7 for, as I am a man, I think iv. 7 our sister's man is certainly miscarried. v. 1 if'er your grace had speech with man. v. 1 away, old man, give me thy hand. v. 2 a man may rot as well as man. v. 2 if it be man's work, I will do it. v. 3 were my simple men? iv. 3 Germans are honest men iv. 5 what shall poor men do? v. 5 the company and sight of men Twelfth Night, i. 2 I take these wise men that crow so i. 5 and three merry men we be ii. 4

 I would have men of such constancy ii. 4 what love women to men may owe ii. 4 we men may say more, swear more ii. 4 but wise men, folly like, quite taint ii. 4 I have heard of some kind of men ii. 4 these wise men, that give fools ii. 4
 'gainst knave and thief men shut v. 1 (song) such as moves men Measure for Measure, i. 3 you must not spend your men i. 5 when maidens sue, men give like i. 5 are there not men in your ward ii. 1 could great men thunder as Jove ii. 2 great men may jest with saints ii. 2 shall you not spend your men were fond ii. 4 men their creation man ii. 4 never breaks men's troth v. 2 the two learned men have compiled v. 2 meek men are good for the singing v. 2 (song) there are a sort of men, whose Merch. of Venice, i. 1 these same dumb wise men i. 1 and poor men's cottages i. 2 and holy men at their death, have i. 2

 iii. 1 men that ever my i. 2 sailors but men? i. 3 is blessing, if men steal it not i. 3 or cursed it among men ii. 7 that will men desire ii. 7 men, I hazard all, do it in hope ii. 7 yes, other men have ill luck too iii. 1 where men enforced do speak any iii. 2 to entrap the hearts of men, faster iii. 2 meek men are good for the singing iii. 4 both accoutered like young men iii. 4 that men shall swear, I have iii. 4 why, shall we turn to men? iii. 4 some men there are, love not iv. 1 that will men desire iv. 1 themselves into the trunks of men iv. 1 serves many men to save their iv. 1 did give the rings away to men iv. 2 a many merry men with him As you Like It, i. 1 that will men desire i. 2 the little foolery, that wise men i. 2 three proper young men, of excellent i. 2 be it known unto all men by these i. 2 thus men may grow wiser every day i. 2 which in the world is best i. 2 to some kind of men their graces ii. 3 and sat at good men's feasts ii. 7 all the men and women merely ii. 7 glad of other men's good ii. 2 scorn to be men ii. 2 your own lands, to see other men's iv. 1 men have died from time to time iv. 1 men are April when they woo iv. 1 unnatural that lived among men iv. 3 every man of great worth iv. 4 for the love you bear to men (epil.) I charge you, O men, for the love (epil.) how virgins might blow up men? All's Well, i. 1 if you could be contented to be what i. 3 which men full true shall find i. 3 (song) of heaven we count the act of men ii. 2 I have an answer will serve all men ii. 2 created for men to breathe themselves ii. 3 where are my other men, monsieur? ii. 5 that's the loss of men, though it be ii. 2 that you do charge men with iv. 2 I see, that men make hopes iv. 2 she says, all men have the like oaths iv. 3 (letter) which in the world is best iv. 3 reports of men very nobly held iv. 3 but, O strange men! that can iv. 4 that she, whom all men praised v. 3 men will stay themselves, Taming of Shrew, i. (ind.) nor will such men as you i. (ind.) such names and men as these 2 (induc.) my men should call me, lord 2 (induc.) for to cunning men I will be very i. 1 as scatters young men through i. 2 all the men that live 2 (induc.) when men and women are alone ii. 1 and may not young men die ii. 1 thou hast braved many men iv. 3 go, call my men, and let us iv. 3 which men full true shall find i. 3 saw I men scour so on their way ii. 1 the men are not yet cold iii. 3 are given to men of middle age iv. 3 and a l'en's ears grew to his tunes iv. 3 that are not able to be wry iv. 3 that doth utter all men's wear iv. 3 (song) made themselves all men of hair iv. 3 since these good men are pleased iv. 3 more than he, and men iv. 3
 that are not able to be wry iv. 3 seem to be honest plain men iv. 3 men, that she is the rarest of all women v. 1 has these poor men in question v. 1

MEN—as seafaring men provide Comedy of Err., i. 1 or any place that harbours men i. 1 men more divine, the masters of ii. 1 what he hath scant men in hair ii. 2 hairy men plain dealers without wit ii. 2 have you not heard of any ii. 2 takes pity on decayed men iv. 3 they appear to men like angels iv. 3 where any honest men resort v. 1 proving much in youthful men v. 1 one of these men that you ii. 3 by men of Epidamnus v. 1 with new supplies of men Mocheb, i. 2 deign him burial of his men i. 2 where men may read strange i. 5 there's daggers in men's smiles ii. 3 attend those men our pleasure? iii. 1 men, my liege (rep.) iii. 1 and so of men iii. 1
 so all men do, from hence iii. 2 men must not walk too late iii. 6 to hear the men deny it iii. 6 why, the honest men iv. 2 and like good men, bestride iv. 3 ten thousand wars to rep iv. 3 and good men's lives expire iv. 3 of all men else I have avoided v. 7 shall I produce the men? King John, i. 1 more are as all men's children may i. 1 test men should not be wretched i. 1 have is have, however men do catch i. 1 call for our chiefest men ii. 1 these men of Anglers (rep. ii. 2) ii. 1 wanting the flesh of men ii. 2 old men, young men, middle men iii. 1 the fury of two desperate men iii. 1 be kept with slaughtered men? iii. 1 laughter, keep men's eyes, and strain iii. 3 men fortune men have, and what good iii. 3 the fierce looks of these bloody iii. 3 drive these men away, and I will (rep.) iv. 1 the faiths of men ne'er stained iv. 2 my lord; men's mouths are full iv. 2 O men, and belaims in fighting men iv. 2 what men provided, what invention v. 1 and good men, hate so foul a liar Richard II, i. 2 men are but gilded loam i. 2 that which in mean men we entitle i. 2 are like two men that you i. 3 to men in joy; but grief i. 3 when they shall know what men are ii. 1 the tongues of dying men enforce ii. 1 more are men's ends marked ii. 1 this happy breed of men ii. 1 can sick men play so nicely with ii. 1 dying men flatter with those that (rep.) ii. 1 three thousand men of war ii. 1 will you go muster men ii. 1 old York there with his men of war? iii. 3 manned with three hundred men iii. 3 that young Mars of men iii. 3 base men by his endowments iii. 3 men look not at the men iii. 4 bring forth these men; Bushy iii. 4 here, in the view of men iii. 1 the breath of worldly men cannot iii. 2 weak men must fall; for heaven iii. 2 have twelve thousand men iii. 2 the blood of twenty thousand men did iii. 2 wise men ne'er wait their present iii. 2 men judge by the complexion iii. 2 to great and growing men iii. 4 did send two of the men of Golgotha, and dead men's skulls iv. 1 the favour of these men; were they not iv. 1 the souls of men may deem that you iv. 1 had died kept ten thousand men? iv. 1 been still a happy kind of men v. 1 bad men, ye violate a twofold v. 1 the eyes of men, after a well-graced v. 2 more contempt, men's eyes did scowl v. 2 steeled the hearts of men v. 2 it will make wise men mad v. 5 leading the men of Herefordshire 1 Henry VI, i. 1 and let men say, we be men of good i. 2 us, that are moon's men i. 2 O if men were to be saved by men i. 2 shall rob those men that we have i. 2 by so much shall I falsify men's hopes i. 2 when men think least I will i. 2 that men of your nobility i. 3 how is it a commandment to men ii. 2 young men must live ii. 2 thieves have bound the true men ii. 2 such as we see when men restrain ii. 3 there live not three good men ii. 4 save six or seven of the men of us ii. 4 eleven buckram men grown out of ii. 4 know these men in Kendal green ii. 4 swear it was the blood of true men ii. 4 followed certain men to this house (rep.) ii. 4 if he have robbed the men ii. 4 cousin, of many men I do not iii. 1
 I am not in the roll of common men iii. 1 a nobleman, loath men's hearts iii. 1 common hackneyed in the eyes of men iii. 2 men would tell their children iii. 2 did pluck allegiance from men's hearts iii. 2 being daily swallowed by men's eyes iii. 2 as cloudy men use to their adversaries iii. 2 feeds in men fat, who men delay iii. 2 for men must think of w iv. 1 tish man, mortal men, mortal men iv. 2 bring men of such great lending iv. 3 ten thousand men must bid iv. 4 and demer men of manhood v. 5 had all his men upon the foot v. 5 stuffing the ears of men with 2 Henry VI, (induc.)
 so did our men, heavy in flopsurs (induc.) and the shows of men, to fight i. 1

MEN—as men drink potions 2Henry IV. i. 1 as men of some take a pride i. 2 the cause that will be in their mouths i. 3 five and twenty thousand men of choice i. 3 using the names of men instead of men i. 3
 O thoughts of men accurst! i. 3
 O miracle of men! him did you i. 4 die men, like dogs, give cry now i. 4 how men of merit are sought after? i. 4 there is a history in all men's lives i. 4 two of sir John Falstaff's men i. 4 half a dozen sufficient men? i. 4 there are other men fitter to go i. 4 come, sir, which men shall I have? i. 4 they are your likeliest men i. 4 O give me the spare men, and spare i. 4 lord, lead the men away i. 4 lord, how subject we old men are i. 4 for crowding among the marshal's men i. 4 in the throngs of military men i. 4 even by those men that most i. 4 our men more perfect than i. 4 against ill chances, men are ever i. 4 that we may persecute the men we should i. 4 use his men well, Davy? for they i. 4 coherence of his men's spirits and his i. 4 I would humbly desire his men i. 4 if to his men, I would curry with i. 4 as men take diseases, one of i. 4 we meet like men that had forgot i. 4 one of the greatest men in the realm i. 4 if these wider men fitter to go i. 4 which men devout by testament have i. 4 lurketh in men's ears, to steal i. 4 that men are merriest when i. 4 men may sleep, and they may meet i. 4 sweet men, come to him i. 4 show men dutiful? why, so i. 4 men's faiths are wafer-cakes i. 4 with men of courage, and with means i. 4 the dead men, whose the living i. 4 copy now to men of grosser blood i. 4 merciful, great duke, to men of mould i. 4 that men of few words are the best men i. 4 the men would carry coals i. 4 as familiar with men as the living i. 4 like to men proud of destruction i. 4 therefore, you men of Harfleur i. 4 what men have you lost, Fluellen? i. 4 just, just; and the men do sympathize i. 4 I would men might be made of it i. 4
 'tis good for men to love their i. 4 and a many poor men's lives saved i. 4 to feel other men's minds i. 4 now if these men do not die well i. 4 if those men have suffered i. 4 outstrip men, they have no wings i. 4 so that here men are punished i. 4 kings neglect, that private men enjoy? i. 4 creating awe and fear in other men? i. 4 them but the husbands and husbands of men i. 4 of fighting men they have full i. 4 ten thousand of those men in England i. 4 the fewer men, the greater share i. 4 if men my garments wear i. 4 old men forgive me all shall i. 4 unwish'd five thousand men i. 4 dying like men, though buried i. 4 have reinforced their scattered men i. 4 there is good in men as at the month i. 4 for our nobles than our common men i. 4 fifteen hundred, besides common men i. 4 of all other men, but five and twenty i. 4 from France arrived more happy men i. 4 pales in the cheeks of old men v. (chorus) i. 2 the tongues of men are full of deceit v. (chorus) i. 2 confinding mighty men v. (chorus) i. 2 did blind men with his beams v. (chorus) i. 1 but want of men and money i. 1 no leisure had to men at the month i. 1 keeps his men from mutiny i. 1 nor men, no money, hath he i. 2 what men have I! dogs! i. 2 mean more than we poor men do know i. 2 draw men; for all this privileged place i. 3 (procl.) i. 3 all manner of men, assembled i. 4 mirror of all martial men? i. 4 cheer up thy hunger-starved men i. 5 hear how we have played the men i. 5 amongst the captains of armed men i. 5 when a world of men could not prevail i. 5 prove on better men than Somerset i. 5 kind umpire of men's miseries i. 5 through malice of the bishop's men i. 5 bishop and the monks of sleeping men i. 5 and my power of men are yours i. 5 we lost twelve hundred men i. 5 what madness lies in brain-sick men i. 5 but great men tremble, when 2Henry IV. i. 1 men's flesh pucker of sleeping men i. 1 will you lead a band of men i. 1 packing with a host of men i. 1
 'twas men I lacked, and you i. 1 no knife, to slaughter sleeping men i. 2 pernicious bloodsticker of sleeping men i. 2 with the men of Bury i. 2 blaspheming God, and cursing men i. 2 can I make men live, who's they i. 3 clip dead men's lives i. 3 small things make base men proud i. 3 great men oft die by vile i. 3 let the magistrates be labouring men i. 3 for they are thrifty honest men i. 3 O graceless men, they know i. 3 that thou hast men about thee i. 3 to call poor men before them i. 3 when honest men about thee i. 3 you men of Kent, what say i. 3 great men have reach'd to hands i. 3 determine poor men's causes i. 3

MEN—men shall hold of me in capite. 2Henry IV. i. 7 Cade driven back, his men dispersed i. 9 come thou and thy five men i. 10 dead men's cries do fill v. 2 York not our old men spares 3Henry VI. i. 1 left his men; wheret the great i. 1 will fill the house with armed men i. 2 hard by with twenty thousand men i. 2 what, with five thousand men? i. 2 let's set our men in order i. 2 five men to twenty, though i. 3 be thou revenged on men i. 3 like men born to renown i. 4 so true men yield, with robbers i. 4 a band of thirty thousand men i. 4 a thousand men have broken men i. 4 sad-hearted men, much overgrown i. 5 for wise men say, it is the wisest i. 1 and men may talk of kings i. 1 ah, simple men, you know not i. 1 the lightness of you common men i. 1 with five thousand men, shall cross i. 3 go levy men, and make prepare for war i. 3 so near as men report i. 2 that men must needs abide i. 3 is for friends with horses and men i. 3 for few men rightly tumber i. 6 for many men, that stumble i. 7 let's levy men, and beat him i. 8 shalt find men well inclined i. 8 do the men ne'er sit and wait i. 8 born to be a plague to men v. 5 and men ne'er spend their fury v. 5 men for their sons, wives for v. 6 two braver men ne'er spurred v. 7 this is he, when men are ruled Richard III. i. 1 to be her men, and wear her livery i. 1 all men, I hope, live so i. 2 smile in men's faces i. 4 a thousand men, that fishes unawed i. 4 some lay in dead men's skulls i. 4 from out a word of men, to slay i. 4 and desire all good men's love i. 4 wise men put on the cloak i. 3 storms make men expect a dearth i. 3 the hearts of men are full of fear i. 3 men's minds mistrust ensuing i. 3 oft have I heard of sanctuary men i. 1 when men are unprepared i. 2 and so 'twill do with some men else i. 2 the men you talk of came into my i. 2 momentary grace of mortal men i. 4 of griefs would make men mad iv. 1 no big-boned men, framed of the iv. 3 my uncle and one of the imperial's men iv. 3 a power of high men iv. 3 thou the giddy men of Rome v. 1 make poor men's cattle break v. 1 digged up dead men from their graves v. 2 take vengeance of such kind of men v. 2 are they worthy men to be miserable v. 3 you sad-faced men, people v. 3 are by, men praise themselves v. 3 purpose to make men glorious. Pericles, i. (Gower) i. 1 every virtue gives renown to men! i. 1 and as sick men do, who know the world i. 1 all good men, as every prince should do i. 1 countless eyes to view men's acts i. 1 those men blush not in actions i. 1 our men be vanquish'd i. 2 fit kings, as they are men i. 2 whose men and dames so jetted and i. 2 ships and number of our men i. 2 harbourage for ourself, our ships, and men i. 4 the curse of heaven and men succeed i. 4 who that they men should be ii. (Gow.) ii. 1 where when men been, there's seldom ii. (Gow.) ii. 1 thinking of the poor men that were ii. 1 why, as men do aland; the great ii. 1 these fishers tell the infirmities of men ii. 1 I wish that men should be ii. 2 nature gat for men to see ii. 2 I see that time's the king of men ii. 3 since men take women's gifts for ii. 3 reef of ships and men (rep.) ii. 3 since they love men in arms ii. 3 get fire and meat for these poor men ii. 3 if men were as they have been ii. 3 by men, then men must comfort (rep.) ii. 3 that which ordinary men are fit for Lear, i. 3 all that may men do i. 4 for wise men are grown foppish i. 4 (song) men so disordered, so debauched i. 4 to be such men as may besort i. 4 my train are men of cities i. 4 by the tolls, and me by i. 4 are led by their eyes, but blind men i. 4 if you do love old men, if your i. 4 and fifty men dismissed? i. 4 to will to men, the i. 4 pities neither woe nor i. 4 hang fated o'er men's faults iii. 4

MEN—which men may blame, but not Lear, iii. 7 they honour of men's impossibilities iv. 6 them are not men of their words iv. 6 men must endure their goings v. 2 that men are as the kings v. 3 howl! O you are men of stones v. 3 Montague's men from the wall. Romeo & Juliet, i. 1 our masters, and us their men i. 1 when I have fought with the men i. 1 draw! If you be men, Gregory i. 1 to part these men with me i. 1 what hol you men, you beasts i. 1 on pain of death, all men depart i. 2 men so old as we to keep the peace i. 2 as do lusty young men i. 2 nay, bigger; women grow by men i. 3 atwath men's noses as they lie asleep i. 4 all in one or two men's hands i. 5 young men's love then lies not i. 3 fall, when they exceed all men's i. 5 yet his leg exceeds all men's i. 5 in the public haunt of men iii. 1 men's eyes were made to look iii. 1 no faith, no honesty, in men iii. 2 they are free men, but iii. 2 when that wise men have no eyes? iii. 3 fortune! all men call thee fickle iii. 5 covered quite with dead men's rattling iii. 5 answer me like men iv. 5 the thought of death v. 1 the strength of twenty men v. 1 worse poison to men's souls v. 1 how often when men are at the point v. 3 fit to take these dead men's tombs v. 3 o'erwhelm them, to men's eyes Hamlet, i. 2 if it chances in particular men i. 4 that these men, carrying, I say, the stamp i. 4 sure I am, two men there are not living ii. 2 that all men honest ii. 2 and the liberty, these are the only men ii. 2 for wise men know well enough iii. 1 nature's journey had made men iii. 2 could of men distinguish her election iii. 2 men's dead men's eyes on iv. 4 young men will do't, if they come iv. 4 dead men's fingers call them iv. 7 there the men are as mad as he v. 1 even while men's minds are wild v. 2 in the men, these men do me Othello, i. 3 life and being from men of royal siege i. 3 and men whose heads do grow beneath i. 3 men do their broken weapons rather use i. 3 that thinks men honest, that but seem i. 3 ye men of Cyprus, have your i. 1 base men, being in love ii. 3 (as if some planet had unwittingly) ii. 3 but men are men; the best sometimes ii. 3 O that men should put an enemy ii. 3 men should be what they seem (rep.) ii. 3 there are a kind of men so loose of soul ii. 3 men's natures wrangle with inferior ii. 4 we must think men are not gods ii. 4 you'll counsel with no men iv. 3 (song) in these men, these men do thou iv. 3 and frailty as men have? iv. 3 kill men 't the dark? where be v. 1 must die, else she'll betray more men v. 2

MIND—balm of hurt minds, great to that dauntless temper of his mind have I filed my mind; for them torture of the mind to lie in of scorplings to my mind, dear wife!
no mind, that's honest infected minds to their dead pillows my mind she has mated the mind I sway by, and the heart minister to a noble mind speak my salutation in their minds your mind is all as youthful had not come into my mind the cover of a flatterer mind than his siege is now against the mind in his physician's mind, to help nay, speak thy mind; and let him with the eyes of heavy mind far off from the mind of Bolingbroke now Bagot, freely speak thy mind (rep.) both in shape and mind transformed my lord, the mind of Bolingbroke but now I know thy mind sweet husband, be not of that mind I am not yet of the mind of the earth was not of my mind his letters bear his mind, not I both with wisdom and with mind grief had wiped from my mind all with my mind as of a side if captains were of my mind show a weak mind and an able body I'll ne'er bear a base mind to deride rank minds, sick of happiness and labours of his mind heaven put it in thy mind, to take to busy giddy minds with foreign tell us the Dauphin's mind shall you know our mind at full grippe your mind
our performance with your mind of my mind, as touching the direction I will tell him my mind my master's mind, unfold it all when the mind is quiet to feel other men's minds a body filled, and vacant mind I do thee wrong to mind thee of it if our minds be so, Ferish the (rep.)
I speak thy mind, and thou in your fair minds let this and rest your minds in peace meet, and break our minds at large you perceive my mind misconstrue the mind of call we to mind, and mark but this pen and ink, and write my mind as humble lowliness of mind conference that my mind hath had Whichever, I know your mind bears this base and humble mind but all his mind is bent to boldness base ignoble mind that mounts we know your mind at full can thy little mind be broken respecting what a rancorous mind he first been put to speak my mind but in my mind, that were no shall perceive the commons' mind a king shall know your mind no better sign of a brave mind that grief softens the mind continue still in this so good a mind my mind was troubled with deep my so I am, and my mind other time, to know our mind my mind. My mind will never grant but let thy dauntless mind still ride I mind to tell him plainly what I shortly mind to leave you belike, she minds to play the but if you mind to hold your true my mind exceeds the compass (rep.) and fearless minds climb somewhat unto my mind presecch happy gain always haunts the guilty mind let hell make crooked my mind provoked by thy bloody mind let me put in your minds, if you take the devil in thy mind grace to put it in my mind men's minds mistrust ensuing danger you shall o'errule my mind for once William lord Hastings of our mind my lordship to the noble mind the men you talk of came into my mind knows the lord protector's mind herein?
should soonest know his mind in your form and nobleness of mind beers a bounteous mind
I have considered in my mind the late to put your grace in mind of what quoth Forrest, almost changed my mind shall understand from me her mind my mind is changed, my mind will resolve him of my mind. Farewell nor cheer of mind, that I was wont his mind and place infecting the mind growing once corrupt bears a bounteous mind you bear a gentle mind, and heavenly sir, call to mind that I have been and complete in mind and feature there is a mutiny in my mind your best grace in your mind shown at full their royal minds to speak my mind of him my mind's not on't, you are too what ease might corrupt minds procure my mind gave me, in seeking

MIND—and the minds of all deject the courage of our minds and that great minds, of partial your mind's the clearer, Ajax all at me, we're of thy mind with a mind that doth appear it to your mind, that you know my mind, I'll fight my mind is troubled, like 'twould that I were of your mind that's my mind too: good-morrow and let your mind be coupled with of our eye directs our mind O then conclude, minds awayed never mind was to be so unwise bastard in mind, bastard in valour how all minds, (as well of glibb, Timon of Athens, I the noblest mind he carries ne'er be wretched for his mind my mind is now turned for his right noble mind, illustrious but for my mind's sake creep in the minds and marrows of I'll ever serve his mind with grees his pure mind in all were obedient, and knew my mind!
noblest minds to basest ends!
duty and zeal to your unmatched mind every minute you do chance a mind I'll ne'er change my mind your minds pre-occupied with by Jove, 'twould be my mind (rep.) teach my mind a most inherent yet my mind gave me, his clothes and to expand his heart in mind your mind hold, and your dinner
'tis meet that noble minds keep ever some sick offence within your mind not kee, their minds may change I have a man's mind, but but yet have I a mind, that fears your hearts and minds to mutiny have mind upon your health I will change my mind and partly he bears too great a mind I have a mind to strike thee bear'st thou her face in mind?
what cost your heart has mind to which sorrow should be in mind less noble mind than she as the fits and stirs of his mind could holds her virtue still, and I my mind furnished with a mind so rare to measure our good minds by this thy mind to her is now as low what is in thy mind, that makes if you could wear a mind dark as not measure our good minds by this I had no mind to hunt this day all of one mind, and one mind good and then a mind put in't to men of noble minds write down thy mind, newly thy rail at him to ease my mind in a tedious sampler sewed her mind and arm the minds of infants I tell on thy mind, I say thy child that doth my mind, my mind the gnawing yulture of thy mind since 'tis my father's mind, that I and our mind partakes her private the passions of the mind, that have I have a mind, that I have musing into my mind, a thousand good king Simonides were of my mind near to Marina bend your mind bear you it in mind brought hither a courtier my mind as generous, and my shape whose mind and mine, I know an honest mind and plain commands the mind to suffer when the mind's free, the body's proud in heart and mind suffers most i' the mind but then the mind much sufferance into my mind; and yet my mind was these things stir the mind to know our enemies' minds I fear, I am not in my perfect mind a troubled mind drive me put us in mind they hide the out of my mind, the courtiers for my mind misgives, some guilty deeds to sinners' minds and know her mind early to-morrow you do not know the lady's mind doleful is the mind of oppress if his mind be writ, give me his letter a mote it is, to trouble the mind's eye a heart unfortified, or mind impatient in my mind's eye, Horatio the inward sense of the mind and soul but to my mind,—though I am native taint not thy mind, nor let thy the flash and outbreak of a fiery mind 'tis too narrow for the mind the lady shall say her mind freely whether 'tis nobler in the mind, to suffer for, to the noble mind, rich gifts O what a noble mind is here o'erthrown!
the strength and truth of the mind conjecture in ill-breeding minds if your mind dislike anything even while men's minds are wild trust not your daughters' minds I saw Othello's mind to be free and bounteous to her mind

MIND—and ne'er disclose her mind that folly and green minds look after the general were put in mind of it farewell the tranquil mind! farewell!
your mind, perhaps, may change but my noble Moor is true of mind that handkercher my mind misgives keep that monster from Othello's mind!
beauty upbraid my mind again good father! how foolish are our minds!
song to night will not go from my mind MINDED—were I so minded peremptory as she proud minded, Taming of Sh. ii that have minded you of what how you stand minded in so many a minded wave
I minded him, how royal 'twas one minded like the weather too much minded by herself MINDING (to content you, Mid. N. Dr. v. 1 (prol.) minding true feelings most high gods not minding lower not minding whether I dislike or no!
MINDESS—a mindless slave
MINDING (to be worth)
MIND—'twould I were of your mind not wed her for a mine of gold as bountiful as mines of India come presently to the mines (rep.) how mines is not according to have you quit showed like a mine
a heart dearer than Plutus' mine O Antony, thou mine of bounty beak like the mines of sulphur hushed within his bosom

MINIMUS, of hindering knot-grass
MINION, thou liest
Mars' hot minion is returned again how now, minion
you, minion, are too saucy but this your minion
I must do his minions grace do you hear, you minion?
you'll cry for this, minion you, minion, are these like valour's minion, carved out the minion of their race out one side her happy minion who is sweet fortune's minion I'minions of the moon
'mongst her minions t'other day what, minion! can you not?
go rate thy minion is this the Athenian minion the exile of her minion is too new minion stood upon her elasticity mistress minion, you, thank me minion, your dear liege

by help of her more potent ministers to minister occasion to these gentlemen I and my fellows are ministers of fate my fellow ministers are like invulnerable my meamer ministers their several I must minister the like to you we two will still be the ministers and minister occasion to him send my ministers to see the minister is here than we do minister to our gross that I may minister to them accordingly as cause doth minister
you blessed minister
how sweetly do you minister to love if you three will but minister I does them by the weakest minister that ministers thine own death the noble Scot, lord Douglas v. 5 the noble Percy slain, and all his men v. 5 of noble Hotspur's sword Henry IV. (and) i. 1 noble earl, I bring you certain news i. 1 from Shrewsbury, my noble lord (rep.) i. 1 so fought the noble Douglas i. 1 then was that noble Worcester too soon i. 1 my most noble friend i. 3 let it be but twenty nobles ii. 1 lack from Wales, my noble lord? ii. 1 and yours, most noble Bardolph ii. 2 wherein the noble youth did ii. 2 till that the noble Westmoreland ii. 3 redoration to my noble husband ii. 3 reverend father, and these noble lords iv. 1 my most noble lord of Westmoreland iv. 1 your noble and right well-remembered iv. 1 to you, my noble lord of Westmoreland iv. 2 believe not the word of the noble iv. 3 and noble offices thou may'st effect iv. 4 and he, the noble image of my youth iv. 4 the noble change that I have purposed iv. 4 as called John, the noble Westmoreland iv. 4 how many nobles then should hold v. 2 such limbs of noble counsel v. 2

I will inflame thy noble liver v. 5 and Helen of thy noble thoughts v. 5 noble English, I would entertain Henry V. i. 2

I shall have my friend? ii. 2 my princes, and my noble peers ii. 2 come they of noble family? ii. 2 well supplied with noble counsellors ii. 2 that hath not noble lustre in ii. 2 lord in heaven with noble lord Harry? ii. 2 my lord, your nobles, jealous of ii. 3 joyfully, my noble lord of Bedford iv. 3 the noble earl of Suffolk also lies iv. 3 sort our nobles from our common men iv. 7 and nobles being in the noble iv. 8 the names of these their nobles iv. 8 the noble duke of Gloucester (rep.) Henry V. i. 3 that noble should such stomachs hear i. 3 my noble uncle, thus ignobly used i. 5 I fill that noble earl, and noble beheaded i. 5 that two such noble peers as ye ii. 2 see, noble Charles, the beacon of ii. 2 there erects thy noble deeds ii. 2 there young Henry, with his nobles, lies ii. 2 let's not forget the noble duke of Bedford ii. 2 in honour of my noble lord of York ii. 4 of the garter were of noble birth ii. 4 hear him, noble prince! (rep.) iv. 3 I cannot help the noble Chevalier iv. 3 rescue of the noble Talbot (rep.) iv. 3 erics out for noble York and Somerset iv. 3 while he, renowned noble gentleman iv. 4 lucely fled, when noble Talbot stood iv. 5 he would have made a noble knight iv. 7 my noble birth, and noble name, a noble iv. 7 thou, nor thy nobles, to the crown v. 4 rare description, noble earl v. 4 your report, my noble lord of Suffolk v. 5 bear him like a noble gentleman Henry V. i. 1 for my part, I take that noble i. 2 all the peers and nobles of the realm i. 3 noble she is; but, if she have forgot i. 3 here, noble Henry, is my staff ii. 3 ill can thy noble mind brook ii. 4 then, noble York, take that noble ii. 4 well, nobles, well, 'tis politely done iii. 1 I'll call him presently, my noble lord iii. 2 and all to leave the noble duke alive iii. 2 and noble stoek was graft with iii. 2 never of the noble York, and the rest, Henry V. i. 2 ay, noble father, if our words will v. 1 how now, my noble lord? what all v. 2 my noble father, three times to-day v. 3 but, noble he is, look where he comes v. 3 noble Warwick, old man, and the rest, Henry V. i. 2 when as the noble duke of York was ii. 1 cheer these noble lords, and hearten ii. 2 the noble gentleman gave up the ghost ii. 3 be it known noble Lewis ii. 3 my noble queen rep. ii. 3 where a noble heart hath paid iv. 2 thanks, noble Clarence; worthy v. 7 his noble queen well struck Richard III. i. 1

NOBLE—with the noble duke Richard III. i. 1 with patience, noble lord i. 1 at Gherysey monastery, this noble king i. 2 towards Chertsey, noble lord? i. 2 two days since were worth a noble i. 3 the curse my noble father laid i. 3 bed of thee, and thy noble house! i. 3 and you, my noble lords (rep.) i. 3 the noble duke of Clarence to i. 4 here comes the noble duke ii. 1 of you, my noble cousin Buckingham ii. 1 some, my noble, and my noble peers ii. 1 if that our noble father be alive? ii. 2 lith in thy noble husband! ii. 2
I say, with noble Buckingham ii. 2 the nobles were committed ii. 4 fatal and ominous to noble peers? ii. 4 cousin, noble lord of York? iii. 1 for the instalment of this noble duke iii. 1 commends him to your noble lordship iii. 2 good-morrows to my noble lord! iii. 2 fatal and ominous to noble peers! iii. 3 now, noble peers, the cause why we iii. 4 most inward with the noble duke? iii. 4 noble lord [Col. Kn. honourable lords] iii. 4 my noble lords and cousins, all iii. 4 this noble [Col. Kn. prince's] presence iii. 4 done this deed, my noble lord iii. 4 I do not doubt, right noble princes iii. 5 noble York, my princely father iii. 5 being nothing like the noble duke iii. 5 [Col. Kn.] how fares my noble lord iii. 7 my noble cousin should suspect me iii. 7 the noble isle doth want her proper iii. 7 draw forth your noble ancestry iii. 7 noble prince. O bitter (rep.) iv. 2 and he, I let it be but twenty nobles iv. 3 come, noble gentleman, let us v. 3 thy person, noble father-in-law! v. 3 such noble scenes as draw Henry VIII. (prot.)
the very persons of our noble story (prot.)
for the nobles of the noble (prot.)
book, outwards a noble's blood i. 1 when these so noble benefits shall i. 2 not in your spleen a noble person i. 2 no doubt, he's nobler; he had a black i. 3 to the noble Westmoreland i. 4 that noble lady, or gentleman i. 4 your grace is noble; let me i. 4 noble troop of strangers i. 4 a noble company? what are i. 4 of this noble, and my noble i. 4 rest showed a most noble patience ii. 1 and see the noble ruined man ii. 1 his noble friends, and fellows ii. 1 noble father, Henry of Buckingham ii. 1 must name once more noble ii. 1 must needs say, a noble one ii. 1 the trial just and noble ii. 2 invited by your noble self ii. 2 all strangers' loves, you are so noble ii. 2 the is noble here, and, like, for true ii. 2 may it please you, noble madam ii. 3 noble lady, I am sorry my integrity ii. 3 out of his noble nature, zeal and ii. 3 that noble title your master wed me ii. 3 you have a general, and my noble ii. 3 a noble spirit as yours was put ii. 3 bewailing land of noble Buckingham ii. 3 his noble jury and foul cause ii. 3 as you are truly noble, as you respect ii. 2 or siliage, the noble, noble ii. 2 his good, (I know his noble nature ii. 2 so good, so noble, and so true ii. 2 is that old noble lady, dulness of iv. 1 without, my noble lords? (rep.) v. 2 men so noble, however faulty v. 2 to a most noble judge, the King v. 2 two noble partners (rep. v. 4) v. 2 my noble gossips, ye have been v. 2 in noble eminence enthroned Troilus & Cressida, i. 3 in our Grecian host one noble man i. 3 find the welcome of a noble foe i. 3 be brought home noble peace ii. 2 nor none so noble, whose life ii. 2 dull and factious nobles of the Greeks ii. 2 our grievances, and my noble ii. 2 noble Ajax; you are as strong (rep.) ii. 3 noble general do not do so ii. 3 do depend upon a noble gentleman ii. 3 and tell me, noble Diomed ii. 3 I can't tell you, noble ii. 3 noble Ventidius' wells, I am no Timon of Ath. i. 1 most noble Timon, call the man i. 1 I pry thee, noble lord (rep.) i. 2 a noble spirit. Nay, my lords i. 2 my lord, were you not a noble i. 2 other noble parts you'll suit, in ii. 2 great Timon, noble, worthy ii. 2 a noble nature may catch a wretch ii. 2 a noble gentleman 'tis, if he would not ii. 1 for his right noble mind, ill at ease ii. 1 with a noble fury, and fair spirit ii. 1 my noble lord,—ah, my good friend! ii. 6 here's a noble feast toward ii. 6 so noble a master fallen ii. 6 base, noble, old, young, coward ii. 6 the noble Timon (rep.) iv. 3 our late noble master v. 1 so it is said, my noble lord v. 1 spoke to them, noble Timon v. 2 noble, and you, when the noble v. 2 march, noble lord, into our city v. 5 fears with my more noble meaning v. 5 my noble general, Timon is dead v. 5

NOBLE—dead is noble Timon Timon of Athens, v. 3 hail, noble Marcian! thanks Coriolanus, i. 1 and call him noble that was now i. 1 you cry against the noble senate i. 1 noble Lartius! Hence! to your homes i. 2 noble Aufidius, take your commission i. 2 indeed, Ja, 'tis a noble citizen i. 3 O noble fellows, who, sensible, outdares i. 3 my noble steed, known to the camp i. 9 plebeians would the noble Marcian ii. 1 how now, my fair as noble ladies ii. 1 and the noble Marcian ii. 1 the nobles bended, as to Jove's ii. 1 and, out of his noble carelessness ii. 2 to gratify his noble service ii. 2 he's right nobles! let him be called for ii. 2 and to our noble consul, I wish we all ii. 2 his noble deeds, we must also tell (rep.) ii. 3 God save thee, noble consul! worthy ii. 3 the noble house of the Marcians ii. 3 authority, against all noble sufferance iii. 1 passed the nobles [like a noble] and iii. 1 or never be so noble as a consul iii. 1 prefer a noble life before a long iii. 1
I help, you that be nobles! help him iii. 1
I pry thee, noble friend, home to iii. 1 his nature, too noble for the world iii. 1 the noble tribunes (rep.) iii. 1 noble Menenius, be you then as iii. 1 well said, noble woman iii. 2 therein you can never be too noble iii. 2
his nature, too noble for the world iii. 2 noble lady! come, go with us iii. 2 give to my noble heart a lie iii. 2 amen, amen! a noble wish iii. 3 the gods preserve our noble tribunes! iii. 3 craves a noble name iii. 3 and my friends of noble touch iv. 1 more noble blows than ever iv. 1 unknit himself the noble knot he made iv. 2 against the senators, patricians, and nobles iv. 3 I pry thee, noble friend, home to iv. 3 your noble Tullus Aufidius will appear iv. 3 feasts the nobles of the state iv. 3 thou show'st a noble vessel iv. 5 permitted by our dastard nobles iv. 5 the noble Marcus iv. 5 that I see thee, here, thou noble thing! iv. 5 the nobles, in great earnestness iv. 6 unlike the noble man have mercy iv. 6 like beasts, and cowardly nobles iv. 6 first was a noble man v. 1 to make eels cheap: a noble merry! v. 1 unless his noble mother, and his wife v. 1 a noble fellow, I warrant him v. 2 and the most noble mother of the world v. 2
It is not, noble lords (rep.) v. 3 to show a noble grace to both parts v. 3 the man was noble, but with his last v. 3 honourable for a noble man still v. 3 most noble sir, if you do hold the v. 5
It is not, noble lords (rep.) v. 5 the man is noble, and his fame v. 5 my noble masters, hear me speak v. 5 regarded as the most noble course v. 5 yet he shall have a noble memory v. 5
I have wished for this noble Julius Caesar, v. 5
I had lost the breed of noble bloods! i. 2 till then, my noble friend, chew i. 2 he is a noble Roman, and well given i. 2 of any bold or noble enterprise i. 2 we are brutish i. 2 met that noble mind keep even i. 3 my noble Brutus to our party i. 3 which every noble Roman bears of you i. 1 render me worthy of this noble wife! ii. 1 good-morrow, Antony! So many noble ii. 1 the fortunes and affairs of noble Brutus ii. 1 with the most noble blood of all ii. 1 most noble! in the presence of thy corpse? ii. 1 the noble Brutus (rep.) ii. 2 noble Antony, go up (rep.) ii. 2 for when the noble Caesar saw (rep.) ii. 2 but that my noble master will ii. 2 most noble brother, you have done ii. 2 glad to learn of noble men ii. 3 my heart is thirsty for that noble pledge ii. 3 noble, noble Cassius (rep. v. 3) ii. 3 by noble Brutus' power (rep.) v. 3 O young and noble Cato, art thou v. 4 we must not; a noble prisoner! v. 4 all noble men, noble friends, noble v. 4 now is that noble vessel full of grief v. 5 a while. At your noble pleasure, Antony & Cleo. i. 2 every hour, most noble Caesar i. 4 noble friends, that which combined ii. 2 noble friends, noble friends, noble ii. 2 noble Antony, not sickness should detain ii. 2 is noble, courageous, high, unmatchable ii. 3 but, he away, 'tis noble ii. 3 Rome cast on my noble father ii. 6 noble Ventidius, I have writ to you ii. 6
'tis a noble Lepidus. A very fine one ii. 2 the noble Antony, let not the piece ii. 2 my noble brother! the April's in her ii. 1 O noble emperor, do not fight ii. 7 the noble rule of her master, Antony's ii. 7 most noble sir, arise; the queen ii. 9 call all his noble captains to ii. 10 ay, noble lord. Sometime, we see iv. 12 was Antony, most noble Antony! iv. 12 most noble mind, than she, which iv. 12 from me then! that in blame countenance iv. 12 my noble girls! ah, women, women! iv. 13 stained with his most noble blood v. 1 most noble empress, you have heard v. 3 that 'tis a noble man she, which v. 3 now, noble Charman, we'll despatch v. 2 how poor an instrument may do a noble v. 2 rouse himself to praise my noble act v. 2

NOBLE—O noble weakness! Antony & Cleopatra, v. 2 as noble mistress of mine, Cymbeline, i. 7 madam, a noble gentleman of Rome more noble than that rufagate i. 7 myself, and other noble friends i. 7 I had rather not be so noble as I am after the noble manner of your lordship that harsh, noble, simple, nothing iii. 4
 'fore noble Lucius present yourself iii. 4 my noble mistress, here is a box iii. 5 my, my noble and natural person iii. 5 my, my noble lord. How long is't since O noble strain! O worthiness of nature! that promise noble service iv. 2 otherwise than noble nature iv. 2
 O noble misery! to be I' the field v. 3
 I never saw such noble fury v. 5 most like a noble lord in love v. 5 to make the noble Lucius mad v. 5 noble patricians, patrons of my Titus Andronicus, i. 1 thy noble brother Titus, and his sons my noble lord and father, live in funeral gentle tribune, noble brother Marcus and service of their noble duties i. 2 O thanks, to me of noble minds i. 2 thanks, noble Titus (rep.) i. 2 accompany your noble emperor i. 2 his noble nephew here in virtuous nest man shed tears for noble duties i. 2 this noble gentleman, lord Titus here lose not so noble a friend i. 2 great would your noble mother ii. 1 nor reason that my noble lord ii. 3 fathers! noble tribunes, stay! ii. 3 thy noble (Col.-aged) eyes to weep (rep.) for that noble hand of thine iii. 1 the heads of thy two noble sons iii. 1 farewell! Last of my noble mother iii. 1 know, my noble aunt loves me wilt thou betray thy noble mistress iv. 2 to see thy noble uncle thus distract? iv. 3 then, noble auditory, be it known v. 3 that true dutiful and noble sister herself! then, noble Helienne (rep.) Pericles, ii. 4 like noble subjects, and in your speech my actions are as noble as my ii. 5 when noble Pericles shall demand iv. 4 to think of wifely train iv. 6 that thy training hath been noble iv. 6 pupils lacks she none of noble race v. (Gower) of gentle, kind, and noble stock v. 1 thou art a grave and noble counsellor it seems you have been noble towards her noble, if you have told Diana's v. 3 do you know this noble gentleman Lea, i. 1 France and Burgundy, my noble lord i. 1 right noble Burgundy (rep.) i. 1 and the noble, and true-hearted, gentle noblest against his noble father i. 2 father, and a brother noble i. 2 the noble duke my master, my worthy how now, my noble friend? ii. 1 occasions, noble Gloucester, of some ii. 1 to thee, my noble master ii. 4 touch me with noble anger! ii. 4 when nobles are their tailors' tutors iii. 2 noble philosopher, your company iii. 4 speaking looks to noble Edmund iv. 5 do make thy noble adversary v. 3 art I noble, as the adversary v. 3 if my speech offend a noble heart v. 3 if thou art noble, I do forgive thee v. 3
 'tis noble Kent, your friend v. 3 your words, and noble company v. 3 my noble uncle, do you know Hecate & Juliet, i. 1 O noble prince, I can discover all iii. 1 thy noble shape is but a form of wax she shall be married to this noble earl the gallant, young, and noble iii. 5 (Col. Kn.) a gentleman of noble noble county Paris (rep.) v. 3 seek for thy noble father in the dust Hamlet, i. 2 if I assume my noble father's person i. 2 doth all the noble substance often i. 4 but know, thou noble youth i. 5 how is't, my noble lord? What news of your noble son is mad ii. 2 how noble in reason! how infinite for to the noble mind, how good ii. 2 O that a noble mind is here! O earth!
 now see that noble and most sovereign no noble rite, nor formal ostentation iv. 5 he, which hath your noble father slain and so, have you noble spirits iv. 7 that the noble must of Alexander that is Laertes, a very noble youth v. 1 forgiveness with me, noble Hamlet v. 2 your cracks a noble heart v. 2 now crabs a noble eye, is it not? Othello, i. 2 my very noble and approved good masters one of the king's justices of the peace iii. 2 for one to do her husbandry iii. 2 and spare me the great ones iii. 2 to end one doubt; by death iii. 2 on my life, one of these days iii. 2 whole strength into one giant arm iii. 2 taken diseases, one of another iii. 2 shorten Harry's happy life one day iii. 2 there's one Pistol come from the court iii. 2 sweet knight, that's no one of us iii. 2 one word more, I beseech you (epil.)

 thousand parts divide one man. Henry V. i. (chorus) than ever at one time the clergy i. 1 are every one a woe, a sore i. 2 for hundred one in twenty years i. 2 never did the clergy at one time i. 2 doth keep in one concert (rep.) i. 2 several ways, fly to one mark i. 2 in one town; as many fresh (rep.) i. 2 ones about, and in one purpose i. 2 take you one quarter into France i. 2 we'll not offend one stomach ii. (chorus) it is a simple one; but what though ii. 1
 I will cut thy throat, one time or other ii. 1 the crow a pudding one of these days ii. 1 knives to cut one another's throats? ii. 1 nor leave not one behind, that ii. 2 I one, my lord; your highness ii. 2 extract one spark of evil ii. 2 even just between two of us one ii. 2 I knew there was but one way ii. 3 with one appearing hair iii. (chorus)

ONE that is like to be executed Henry V. iii. 6 upon one pair of English legs iii. 6 a soldier, so to one's mistress iii. 7 by one that knows him better iii. 7 dedicate one jot of colour iv. (chorus) give to every one, thawing iv. (chorus) twenty French crosses to one iv. 1 there's a fellow for our bodies, they all iv. 3 but one ten thousand of those iv. 3 wish not one man more (rep.) iv. 3 likes me better, than to wish us one iv. 3 that every one may spare iv. 4 are all one reckonings iv. 4 but 'tis all one, 'tis so like as my iv. 7
 'tis the gage of one that I should fight iv. 7 there lie dead one hundred iv. 8 on one part and on the other? iv. 8 there is one goat for you v. 1 princes English, every one v. 2 what says she, fair one? v. 2 for the one, I have neither words v. 2 that every one should see v. 2 needs be granted to be much as v. 2 for one fair French maid that v. 2 let that one article rank with v. 2 in one, your realms in one (rep.) v. 2 one would have lingering wars Henry VI. i. 1 cost one that is to be i. 1 not having struck one stroke i. 1 I'll change for one of ours i. 1 besiege us one hour in a month i. 2 sees me one, one foot, or fly i. 5 he fighteth as one i. 5 one to ten! lean raw-boned i. 5 one that still motions war i. 3
 I can count every one, and view i. 4 one of the eyes, and the cheek's side i. 4 one eye that's best to look to i. 4 with one Joan la Pucelle joined i. 4 that one day bloomed, and fruitful i. 6 if I chance the one of us do fall i. 1 that every one may read i. 2 kindly give one fainting i. 2 when one will kill; mourn not i. 5 no one should sway but he; no one i. 1 but one imperious in another's throat? i. 1 as fast as one another's pate i. 1 that gudge one thought ago i. 1 one sudden foil shall never breed i. 3 one drop of blood, drawn from i. 3 French were almost ten to one i. 4 that any one should therefore be i. 4 for vengeance, every one will swear i. 5 mother's hopes lie in one tomb? i. 5 the help of one stands me in i. 6 all our lives in one small boat i. 6 shortning of my life one day i. 6 fellows, among professors one faith i. 6 have their answers every one i. 1 two parts, is now conjoined in one v. 2 ten to one, we shall not find v. 4 as one that at a trumpet v. 5 lords, with one cheerful voice Henry VI. i. 1 vouchsafe one glance unto the i. 1 so, one by one, we'll weed them all i. 3 or York, all's one to me i. 3 doth any one accuse York for i. 3 when every one will be as we i. 3 ten to one, old Joan had not gone i. 1 then send for one presently i. 1 mischiefs work the wicked ones i. 1 shall one day make the duke of York i. 1
 when every one will be as we i. 1 nor ever had one penny bribe i. 1 her harmless young one went i. 1 weren't not all one, an empty i. 1 show me one scar character'd i. 1 fixed on one, as one retract i. 2 as one that surfs thinking i. 2 it is our pleasure, one of them depart i. 4 apparel them all in one livery i. 2 by her he had two children at one birth i. 2 will not leave one lord, one gentleman i. 4 kill for a hundred lacking one i. 4 one and twenty fiftens, and one i. 7 struck'st thou one blow in the field? i. 7 let them kiss one another i. 1
 I will make shift for one Henry VI. i. 1 if one so rude, and of so mean condition v. 1 of one or both of us the time v. 2 nor have we won one foot v. 3 hear but one word; let me Henry VI. i. 1
 'tis a villain one, to rest i. 2 hath been ten to one i. 3 and leave not one alive, I live in i. 3 thou hast one son, for his i. 3 blows, twice two for one i. 4
 'tis a villain one, to rest i. 4 and ten to one is no impeachment i. 4 each one a perfect sun ii. 1 but one lamp, one light, one sun ii. 1 each one already blazing by his ii. 1 ah, one that was a wolf-looker-on ii. 2 protection of their tender ones ii. 2 now, one the better; then, another ii. 2 the one, his purple blood right well ii. 5 with'er one rose and let the other ii. 5 one way, or other, she is for a king ii. 2 like one that stands upon a promontory ii. 2 like one lost in a thorny wood ii. 2 and this English queen's, are one ii. 3 but answer me one doubt ii. 3 for this one speech, lord Hastings ii. 3 nor how to be contented with one wife ii. 3 yet in this one thing let me ii. 6 and, ten to one, you'll meet him v. 1 in case some one of you would fly v. 6 hapless man to be one v. 6 resident in men like one another v. 6 the one against the other Richard III. i. 1

ONE, had best to do it (rep.) Richard III. i. 1 yes, one place else, if you will hear i. 2 so I might live one hour in your i. 2 me, but one of better nature i. 2 beg one favour at thy gracious i. 2 nor no one here; for curses never i. 3 but while one would tell twenty i. 4 it fills one full of obstacles i. 4 but factious one, that's the other i. 2 to wait one that's lost ii. 2 have but one false gage ii. 2 grandam, one night as we did ii. 4 I moralize two meanings in one word iii. 1 one from lord Stanley iii. 2 may be determined at the one iii. 2 and myself, are at the one iii. 2 ladies, one hour hence, and I'll iv. 1 for one that scorn'd iv. 1
 cradle for such little pretty ones iv. 1 girdling one another within their iv. 3 one heaved o' high, to be hurled iv. 4 one that waits the name (rep.) iv. 4
 for one that scorn'd iv. 4 nor fearing one; for one commanding iv. 4 as one being best acquainted iv. 4 children, but one step below iv. 4 of all one pain, save for a night iv. 4 some one take order in my name iv. 4 flither, is but one day's march v. 2 by this me bloody trial of sharp war v. 2 well, all's one for that; who hath v. 3 yet one thing more, good captain v. 3 one that's dead, is not ours v. 3 one raised in blood, and one (rep.) v. 3 one that hath ever been God's enemy v. 3 they would restrain the one, disdain v. 3 a milkop, one that never in his v. 3 what four throats are there? Henry VIII. i. 1 but now married to one above itself i. 1
 'twas said, they saw but one i. 1 one, certes, that promises no element i. 1 and place infecting one another i. 1 one weak ones, is not ours i. 2 and, with one hand on his dagger i. 2 but they are shrewd ones; for when i. 3 lame ones; one would take it, that i. 3 a supper, and a great one, to many i. 3 but how now give us one i. 4 brought with her one care abroad i. 4 a sweet society of fair ones i. 4 confessor to one or two of these! i. 4 you are one will keep them waking i. 4 there should be one among them i. 4 such a one, they all confess i. 4 one of her highness' women (rep.) i. 4 lead in your ladies, every one i. 4 of state was a deep envious one i. 1 one of your prayers one sweet sign i. 1 goodness and he fill up one monument! i. 1 will make them one day groan for't i. 1 at one stroke has taken for ever i. 1 must needs say, a noble one i. 1 far we are one, a fortune i. 2 the king will know him one day i. 2 heaven will one day open the i. 2 I'll venture one heave at him i. 2
 I mean, the learned ones i. 2 his sent one gone among them i. 2 was not one doctor Pace in i. 2 was reckoned one the wisest prince i. 4 I spake one the least word i. 4 a wife, a true one i. 4 one that he'd dress'd in a woman i. 4 an arch one, Crammer; one hath i. 2 all the land's wealth into one ii. 2 but, thus much, they are four ones ii. 2 all my glories in that one of man ii. 2 a sure and safe one, though my ii. 1 and, sometimes, falling ones ii. 1 so strangely in one piece ii. 1 the one, of Winchester, (newly ii. 1 and one, already, of the privy-council ii. 1 one, that by suggestion did all ii. 2 scholar, and a ripe, and good one ii. 2 one of which fell with him ii. 2 of which there is not one, I dare avow ii. 2 it's one o'clock, boy, is't not? v. 1 who dare speak one syllable v. 1 the honour they do one another? (rep.) v. 2 childish pity to one man's honour v. 2 might go one way, and safely v. 2 one that, in all obedances v. 2 and one as great, as you v. 2
 'tis young one made a Christian (rep.) v. 2 a dozen crabtree staves, and strong ones v. 3 as much as one sound cudgel v. 3 this one christening, I'll bet v. 3 let her blessedness to one v. 4
 'tis little one shall make it v. 4
 'tis ten to one, this play can (epil.) for such a one we showed them (epil.) an one and other side. Prolog. Troilus & Cress. (prol.) black-o-moor: 'tis all one to me i. 1 one (Col. Nat. two) and fifty fifts (rep.) i. 2 he's one of the flowers of Troy i. 2 he's one o' the soundest judgments i. 2 it's all our; by God's id, it does one's i. 2 you are such a woman! one knows not i. 2 say one of your watches i. 2 that's one of the chiefest of them too i. 2 by him one step below i. 3 may one, that is a hard i. 3 which with one voice call Agamemnon i. 3 if there be, among the fairest, i. 3 one is, or hath, or means to be, that one i. 3 one that was a man when Hector's i. 3 one noble man, that's one i. 3 and such a one, that dare maintain ii. 1 thus one again says Nestor ii. 2 the value of one ten ii. 9

ONE—in one man's valour Troilus & Crest, ii. 2 Paris, you speak like one besotted iii. 1 you understand me one another iii. 2 less than the tenth part of one iii. 2 if ever you prove false one to another greatness, one fallen out with iii. 3 do one pluck down another iii. 3 for one man gets into another's iii. 3 where one but goes abreast iii. 3 that one by one pursue iii. 3 one touch of nature makes iii. 3 with one consent, praise new-born iii. 3 in love with one Erastus, iii. 3 it will go one way or other iii. 3 the one and other Diomed embraces hark! there's one up iv. 2 briefly and discharge of one iv. 4
 'I'll give you three for one iv. 5 the one almost as infinite iv. 5 one that knows the youth iv. 5 as welcome as to one that would iv. 5 time, will one day end it iv. 5 and one that loves quiet iv. 5 hark, one word in your ear v. 2
 'I'll fetch you one. You have v. 2
 'twas one that loved me better v. 2 one cannot speak a word v. 2 as fewell one in one another's v. 2 like witless antics, one another meet what one thing, what another (rep.) v. 3 they are clapper-clawing one another think they have swallowed one another v. 4
 'O bear with me one moment v. 4 let one be sent to pray Achilles v. 10 of gesture, one might interpret Timon of Ath. i. 1 Infants one comma in the course i. 1 one do I personate of lord Timon's i. 1 with one man's beckoned from i. 1 not one accompanying his i. 1 than one which holds a trencher (rep.) dip not one? Yes. Then I lie not i. 1
 'twould have kept one to thyself, i. 1 but rather one that looks on thee, i. 2 commanding one another's fortunes!
 that bears not one spurn i. 2 would one day stamp upon me i. 2
 'My lords, I have one word to say, i. 2 but rather one that smites i. 2 one Varro's servant, my good lord i. 2 my mistress is one, and I am her fool the reason of this? I could render one in stones more than I could in official one one cloud of wine showers i. 2 one of lord Timon's men (rep. iii. 4) and one that knows what belongs i. 3 I can tell you one thing, my lord iii. 2 one of his men was lord Lucullus iii. 2 I count it one of my great afflictions one business does command us all iii. 4 one may reach deep enough iii. 4 debts may well be called desperate ones iii. 4 if one's head is lent to another iii. 6 (Genes) one day he gives us diamonds iii. 6 and not one friend, to take his iv. 2 not one word more: thus part we iv. 2 twinned brothers of one womb iv. 3 if one be, so apt they are to quarrel iv. 3 let not thy sword skip one iv. 3 thy plentiful bosom one poor root!
 the one is filling still iv. 3 have with one winter's brush iv. 3
 'tis prodigal, I that I am one now iv. 3 away; rob one's name iv. 3 one honest man, mistake me not (rep.) expecting in return twenty for one iv. 3
 'I'd exchange for this one wish iv. 3 if one's net's a one of you but trusts iv. 3 reside but where one villian is iv. 3 the senators, with one consent of love and am not one that rejoices in v. 2 I met a courier, one mine ancient v. 3 one word, good citizens Coriolanus, i. 1 one that hath always loved (rep.) i. 1 for that being one o' the lowest i. 1 the one side must have bale i. 1 the one affrights you, the other i. 1 which else would have been on one another?
 a strange one, (to break i. 1 one's Junius Brutus, Sicinius Velutius i. 1
 'I'll lean upon one crutch i. 1 till one can do no more i. 2 that one voluntarily surfeit out of one of his father's meat i. 2 with one part of our Roman power i. 3 and one infect another against i. 3 like one that means his proper i. 9 call me one thing, I shall ask you he's poor in one fault ii. 1 and one that loves a cup of hot wine one that converses more with ii. 1 you are a pair of strange ones ii. 1 I think, there's one time for you one in the neck, and two ii. 1
 'tis thought of every one, Coriolanus
 I had rather have one scratch my ii. 2 one's thousand than one's ii. 2 than one of his ears to hear it? ii. 2 neither will they bate one jot ii. 2 our wits were to issue out of one skull their consent of one direct way should by ones, by twos, and by threes ii. 3 every one of us has a single honour to one that would do thus (rep.) ii. 3 not one amongst us, save yourself ii. 3 one thus descended, that hath besleak'd ii. 3 such a one as he, who's ii. 3 and take the one by 'Ocher iii. 1 why shall the people give one iii. 1 where one part does disdain iii. 1

ONE—hear me one word, beseech you Coriolanus, iii. 1 one time will you one another iii. 1 one word, but you danger iii. 1 one word more, one word iii. 1 when one but of my ordinance iii. 2 at the price of one fair word iii. 3 to go rove with one that's yet iv. 1
 'I'll knock off one seven iv. 1 baited with one that wants her wits?
 a most royal one: the centurions iv. 2 seem to wear one heart iv. 4 to take the one the other iv. 4
 'tis strange, one as ever iv. 5 a mavelous poor one. True iv. 5 take the one half of my commission iv. 5 as one would set up a top iv. 5 than he, you wot one. Who? iv. 5 'Faith, look you, one cannot tell how and but one half of what he was iv. 5 hate one, another. Reason (rep.) iv. 5 and affecting one sole throne iv. 6 not to be other than one thing iv. 7 but, one of these, as he hath sences iv. 7 one fire drives out one fire, one nail, one yet one time he did call me iv. 7 to one whom they had punished v. 1 for one poor grain or two (rep.) v. 1 I am one, the selling iron v. 2 thus seek the end of one v. 3 prate, like one i' the stocks v. 3 o' the chiefest soldiers; I'll be one v. 5
 'I'll blow and unchidled many a one Cassius, be you one, I beseech you v. 4 set honour in one eye, and death i. 2 with more than with one man? (rep.) i. 2
 'twas one of these coronets i. 3 smiled at one another and shook i. 3 for here come one in haste i. 3 no, it is Casca; one incorporate i. 3 shall Rome stand under one man's awe? ii. 1 give me your hands all over, one by one ii. 1 good-morrow to you every one ii. 1
 'twould I incorporate and mix us one ii. 1 hark, hark! one knocks; Portia ii. 1 there is one within, besides the ii. 2 two lions littered in one day ii. 2 be hereafter for some one to say ii. 2 there is but one end in all ii. 3 (paper) every one doth shine (rep.) ii. 1 I do know but one that unassailable ii. 1 that one of two bad ways you iii. 1 should stand one of the three to share it? iii. 1 one that deals on objects, as you iv. 1 what, shall one of us, that struck iv. 3 hated by one he loves; braved by iv. 3 Cicero being one. Cicero one? iv. 3 farwell, every one iv. 3
 I backed one another in iv. 3 to set upon one battle all our v. 1 good to all made one of them v. 5 pray then, foresee me one Antony & Cleopatra, i. 2 is there such a one? He stays upon i. 2 good now, play one scene i. 3 courteous lord, one word; sir, you and I i. 3 to hate one great competitor i. 4 or, if you borrow one another's love ii. 2
 'I'll think them every one an Antony ii. 2 painted one way like a Gorgon ii. 6 they would have one man but a man? ii. 7 pinch one another by the disposition ii. 7 than drink so much in one iii. 1 Sossius, one of my place in Syria iii. 2
 'tis very true: O her motion and her station as one her motion and her station as one iii. 3 I have one thing more to ask him yet grind the one the Col.—each other iii. 5 they say, one Taurus iii. 7
 let's have one rates all the iii. 7 one, that but performs the bidding iii. 11 than with an old one dying iii. 11 by one that looks on feeders? iii. 11 with one that ties his points? iii. 11
 let's have one rates all the iii. 11 when one so great begins to rage iii. 11 fortune, he is twenty men to one iv. 2
 'tis one of those odd tricks iv. 2 as one that takes his leave iv. 2 it will determine one way iv. 2 who? one ever near thee iv. 5 run one before, and let the queen iv. 8 the last day was a shrewd one to us iv. 9 death of one person can be paid iv. 12 nor any one, by all the fortunes iv. 12 one word, sweet queen iv. 13 or ever were one such v. 2 honour of thy lordliness to one so meek v. 2 with one that I have bred v. 2 I heard of one, by all the fortunes v. 2 in Rome, at one Philario's Cymbeline, i. 2 O thou vile one! sir, it is your fault i. 2 the one may be sold, or given i. 5 by the gods, it is as casual i. 5 will not trust one of her malice i. 6 to exchange one misery with i. 6 he is one of the noblest note i. 7 (letter) one eminent monsieur i. 7 I'll have one, by all the fortunes i. 7 should at one time encounter i. 7 and he is one the truest manner'd i. 7 would he had been one of my rank! ii. 1
 'tis thought, one of Leonatus' friends ii. 1 one of your lordship's pages ii. 2 might touch! but kiss; one kiss! ii. 2 hell is here; one, two, three,—time ii. 2 the one is Caius Lucius ii. 3 one that he, who's poor ii. 3 one of her wren (rep. ii. 4) ii. 3 one of your great knowing should learn one, bred of alms, and fostered ii. 3

ONE—your lady is one the fairest Cymbeline, ii. 4 each on one foot standing ii. 4 believe of one scarce my fall ii. 4 like a full-acorned boar, a German one ii. 5 one vice but of a minute old, for one ii. 5 I do not say, I am one iii. 1 are meet; in that, that's one of them if one of mean affairs, may I hold it iii. 2 one score, 'twixt sun and sun iii. 2 why, one that rode to his execution iii. 2 but, in one night, a storm iii. 3 one, but painted thus, would be iii. 4 I had not slept one night iii. 4 first, make yourself but like one iii. 4 from every one the best she hath iii. 5
 I forgot to ask him one thing iii. 5
 I see, a man's life, is a tedious one iii. 6 when I was one, are now one iii. 6 thou art one o' the false ones iii. 6 no comfort to one not sociable iv. 2 he is but one; and my brother iv. 2
 'twill never return, as I tell one iv. 2 from one had thing to one iv. 2 wears thee not the one half so well iv. 2 rotting together, have one dust iv. 2 young one, inform us of thy fortunes iv. 2 never bestial a horse, save one iv. 4 reserve my crown to one to morrow iv. 4 you married ones, if each of you v. 1 no bond, but to do just ones v. 1 soldierly an honest one, I warrant v. 3 ten, chased by one, are now one v. 3 here is one: two boys, an old man v. 3 yet am I better than one that's sick from her his dearest one v. 4 rare one! be not, as is our fangled world v. 4 you'll never return, as I tell one v. 4 I never saw one so prone v. 4 so should I, if I were one (rep.) v. 4 one that promised naught but beggary v. 5 though with the loss of many a bold one v. 5 this one thing on one v. 5 one and another not more resembling of all amongst the rarest of good ones v. 5 and one that had a royal lover v. 5 I buried one thing which the queen v. 5 a prince. A man, that's one v. 5 I buried one and twenty valiant ones Titus And. i. 2 one fit to budy with thy lawless sons i. 2 my foes I do repute you every one i. 2 nor, so, I were one ii. 1 these young ones, that's one ii. 1 and one thing more, that womanhood ii. 3 one hour's storm will drown ii. 5 that the one will help to cut iii. 1 I stand as one upon a rock iii. 1 or any one of you of Taurus' horns iii. 1 O here I lift this one hand up iii. 1 turn me to each one of you iii. 1 more than one confederate in iv. 1 one Multives lives, my countryman has not off one of Taurus' horns iv. 2 my uncle and one of the emperal's iv. 3 when as the one is wounded with iv. 4 as willingly as one would kill a fly v. 1 and, if one arm's embracement v. 2 the one is Murder. Raps is the other's this one hand yet is left to cut v. 2 come, be every one officious to v. 2 corn into one mutual sheaf (rep.) v. 3 if any one relieves or pities him v. 3 if one good deed shall any one v. 3 one I know another oth partake Pericles, i. 1 of which thyself art one, who now i. 2 who shuns not to break one i. 2 by the indenture of his oath to be one i. 3
 'twill throw down one mountain, 'twill cast up like one another a glass to him i. 3 one sorrow never comes, but brings i. 4
 the great ones eat up the little ones ii. 1
 'I'd wish to make one there ii. 1 to every one that comes to honour them ii. 3 therefore each one betake him to ii. 3 one twelve moons more she'll ii. 5 let me ask one thing iii. 5 every one with claps 'gan sound Gower i. 1 I have one myself, who shall not be iii. 3 hath our Cleon one daughter iv. (Gower) hat! says one, wilt out? iv. 1 therefore, let's have fresh ones iv. 3 why lament you, pretty one? iv. 3 come, young one, like thee iv. 3
 'tis like one, like one, superstitiously iv. 3 to use one language, in each several iv. 4 (Gow.) we have here one, sir, if she would iv. 6 now, pretty one, how long (rep.) iv. 6 I beseech your honour, one piece for me iv. 6 one thing first. Come, hark! your one thing in the end to buy him a wooden one? iv. 6 she sings like one immortal v. (Gower) hath not spoken to any one v. 1 that, one murther, night, drove v. 1 welcome, fair one v. 1
 such a one my daughter might v. 1 for thou look'st like one I loved indeed v. 1 was given me by one that had some v. 1 early, one blustering man v. 1
 I know, in that, are one Learn, i. 3 for taking one's part that is out i. 4 the one in motley here i. 4 gapest thy golden one away i. 4 in comes one, in a new i. 4
 'tis ox, when one has hurt her i. 4 why one's nose stands i' the middle i. 5
 I mean, the whispered ones, for they ii. 1
 I have one thing, of a queasy ii. 1 one that would be one ii. 2 one whom I will beat into clamorous ii. 2 thus to rail on one, that is neither ii. 2 but the great one that goes up the hill ii. 4

ONE—no more see one another Lear, ii. 4 how, in one house, should many people ii. 4 what need one? O reason not the need ii. 4 him gladly, but not one follower ii. 4 one minded like in my iii. 1
 I have one part in the way iii. 4 one, that slept in the contriving iii. 4 let me ask you one word in private (song) 4 for one blast of thy minikin mouth iii. 6 I entertain you for one of my iii. 6 one that's a good friend, and not (rep.) iii. 7 one side will mock another iii. 7 my lord, you have one eye left iii. 7 dizzy 'tis, to cast one eyes so low iv. 6 hang one that galleth samphire iv. 6 ere the black ones were there iv. 6 all the letters stuns, I could not see one iv. 6 you are a royal one, and we obey you iv. 6 thou hast one daughter, who redeems iv. 6 every one hears that, which can distinguish iv. 6 so poor, hear me one word v. 1 shall I take? Both? one? or neither? v. 1 jacks and sects of great ones v. 3 one step I have advanced thee v. 3 the one that poisoned v. 3
 I know when one's a friend, and when one v. 3 one of them we behold v. 3
 'tis all one, I will show myself Homoie & Juliet, i. 1 here comes one of my master's kinsmen i. 1 stir one [Kin.-] foot to seek a foe i. 1 I need to be one of them i. 2 one more, most welcome, make my i. 2 being one, may stand in number i. 2 one fire burns out another's burning, one i. 2 one desperate grief cures with another's i. 2 one here that my lord i. 2 how one another lend one i. 2 why, may one ask? i. 4 lie all in one or two men's hands i. 5
 I learned even now of one I danced i. 5 but one rhyme, and I am satisfied i. 5 one one face, and one name i. 5 ere one can say 'tis lightens i. 5 on a sudden, one hath wounded me i. 5 a grave, to lay one in, another i. 5 in one respect I'll be assisted by i. 5 one wo, and one third in your bosom i. 5 more of the wildgoose in one of thy wits i. 5 one, gentleman, that God hath made i. 5 keep counsel, putting one a way? i. 5 a nobleman in town, one Paris i. 5 that one that one minute i. 5 holy church incorporate two in one i. 5 thou art like one of those fellows i. 5 for one would kill the other i. 5 a word with one of you (rep.) i. 5 crying, but one of your nine lives i. 5 with one hand beats cold death aside i. 5 those twenty could but kill one life i. 5 and Romeo, press one heavy bier! i. 5 that one word, banished, hath i. 5 arise, one knave's good fortune i. 5 one kiss, and I'll descend i. 5 as one dead in the bottom of a tomb i. 5 I'll send one in Mantua i. 5 one, who, to put thee from thy heaviness i. 5 in a little bed, from another one i. 5 I see this one is one too much i. 5 may not one speak? Peace i. 5 proportioned as one's heart could wish i. 5 but one, poor one, one poor and (rep.) i. 5 rise, one preface, one relation i. 5 one of our order, to associate me i. 5 one writ with me in sour misfortune's i. 5 here's one, a friend, and one that knows i. 5 my master one that you love i. 5 rise, one comes one with that open i. 5 the bell then beating one Hamlet, i. 2 to be contracted in one brow of woe i. 2 with one auspicious, and one dropping eye i. 2 while one with moderate haste i. 2 carrying, I say, the stamp of one defect, i. 2 that one may smile, and smile, and be i. 2 give me one poor request i. 5 [Col. Kn.] one to my gracious king i. 2 then is the world one. A godly one i. 2 Denmark being one i. 2
 then your ambition makes it one i. 2 why—one fair daughter, and no more i. 2 I remember, one said, there were no i. 2 one speech in it I chiefly loved i. 2 God hath given you one sense, and you i. 2 mad and almost mad in one sense, the i. 2 madness in great ones must not i. 2 the censure of which one, must, in your i. 2 as one, in suffering all, that suffers i. 2 one scene of it comes near i. 2 so, I feel it taken from another one? i. 2 one as kind for husband shalt thou i. 2 this is one Lucianus, nephew to the king i. 2 a whole one, I. For thou dost know i. 2 O the recorders: let me see one i. 2 may one be proud in another one? i. 2 when one can not repent? i. 3 but a sickly part of one true sense i. 4 but one word more, good lady i. 4 but I will deliver one yard below their i. 4 when in one line two creatures i. 4 two dishes, but to one table i. 4 man and wife is one flesh i. 4 hath but one part wisdom, and ever i. 4 would make one think, there might i. 5 true love know more from another one? i. 5 (song) such envy from him, as did that one i. 5 a sight indeed, if one could match you i. 7 one woe doth tread upon another's i. 7 as one incapable of her own distress i. 7 that would have more of another one? i. 7 his purchases, and double ones too v. 1 one, that was a woman, sir v. 1

ONE now, to mock your own grinning? Hamlet, v. 1
 'prythes, Horatio, tell me one thing v. 2 life's no more than to say, one v. 2 come, one for me. I'll be your foil v. 2 one. No Judgment. A hit v. 2 these are the quacks of the city O'ello, i. 1 one Michael Cassio, a Florentine i. 1 and such a one do I profess myself i. 1 zounds, sir, you are one of those i. 1
 I am one, sir, that comes to tell you i. 1 some one may, some another i. 1 this very night at one another's i. 1 goodnight to every one; and, noble signior i. 3 supply it with one gender of herbs i. 3 had not one seal of reason to poison i. 3 one that excels the quacks of blazoning i. 3
 'tis one logo, ancient to the general i. 3 there's one gone to the harbour? i. 3 the one's for use, the other useth it i. 3 pranks which fair and wise ones do i. 3 one that is the authority of her merit i. 3 he is a good one, and his wretchedness do i. 3 but one cup; I'll drink for you (rep.) i. 3 good faith a little one; not past a pint i. 3 the one as long as the other i. 3 and tilting one of an ingrat infirmity i. 3 as one would beat his offenceless dog i. 3 discourse fustian with one's own shadow? i. 3 one unperfectness shows me another i. 3 I hear, that one of Cassio entreats her i. 3 if he be not one that truly loves you i. 3 from one that so imperfectly conjests i. 3 fo! one may smell, in such, a will i. 3 yet, 'tis the plague of great ones i. 3 one of this kind is Cassio i. 3 I gave her such one, that was my i. 3 one is too poor, too weak for my revenge! i. 3
 'tis a good hand, a frank one i. 3 though great ones are their object i. 4 his second life, he had one yesterday i. 4 to be like one that truly loves you i. 4 another fitchew! marry, a perfumed one i. 4 a most unhappy one; I would do much i. 4 least, being like one of heaven, the devils i. 4 would it not make one weep? i. 4
 I fall on my knees to you, and beg you i. 4 all's one: good father! how foolish are i. 4 shroud me in one of those same sheets i. 4 to go hang my head all at one side i. 4 here's one comes in his shirt, with light i. 4 of one, that loved not wisely, but too well i. 4
